Kristen Butler | HEAD COACH | 4th YEAR FLORIDA '06

Now in her fourth season at the helm of the University of Toledo softball program, Kristen Butler has built the Rockets into a Mid-American Conference team to watch in 2018.

Since her arrival in 2015, Butler has helped the Rockets make steady improvement towards their goal of reaching the top of the conference. The Rockets have won 69 games in Butler's three seasons, the best three year stretch for the program since 1997.

In the MAC, Butler's Rockets have averaged 10 wins per season for the best three-season conference average since the turn of the century. Her back-to-back double digit wins in conference was the first for UT since the conference implemented the current three-game series format.

Last season with the guidance of Butler, Toledo produced first team All-MAC selection Chandler Rice, who went on to sign a professional contract with the Akron Racers in the NPF.

In 2016, Butler coached Toledo to its first MAC Tournament berth since 2013. The Rockets finished the regular season on a 13-game winning streak, the longest unbeaten stretch since 1992 when UT recorded 13- and 14-game winning streaks. Toledo also finished the 2016 campaign with its first winning MAC record (12-11) since 1997 and its highest conference winning percentage (.522) since 1996.

In 2016, Butler coached 2B Chandler Rice to a first-team All-MAC selection and OF Jessica Lemieux to second-team All-MAC honors. In her first season, Butler helped 1B Samantha Showalter earn 2015 All-MAC freshman team honors.

Prior to coming to Toledo, Butler spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Charleston Southern, focusing primarily on pitching and catching duties. In 2014, Charleston Southern went to the NCAA Regionals, and won the Big South Tournament. One of her pitchers, Cheyenne Gandara, was named the MVP of the tournament. She joined the CSU coaching staff in September of 2012 after previously coaching at Mississippi Valley State and the Florida.

While at MVSU, Butler and the rest of the coaching staff were honored as the Southwestern Athletic Conference Coaching Staff of the Year after helping lead the Devilettes to a SWAC Championship and the NCAA Super Regionals.

A native of Orlando, Fla., Butler was a four-year starter from 2003-06 at Florida where she played both catcher and third base.

Butler and her husband, Marcus, are the parents of two children.
