UK CLOSES ROAD SLATE AT TENNESSEE

After a tough loss on Sunday afternoon to the No. 6 Georgia Bulldogs, the No. 18 Kentucky Wildcats will look to turn the page over the weekend down at Lee Stadium in Knoxville, as the Wildcats travel south to face the No. 6/7 Tennessee Lady Vols for a three-game Southeastern Conference series.

Kentucky and Tennessee will be playing a regular-season series for the second season in a row, with UT sweeping UK a year ago at John Cropp Stadium in Lexington. All three games will be shown live on the SEC Network+, ESPN3 and the ESPN app from Lee Stadium.

The Wildcats had their final two scheduled midweek games rained out over the week against Northern Kentucky and Morehead State due to rain in the upper mid-west region of the country. UK finishes with a 4-0 record against in-state schools for the third-straight year, and has now not lost a game to an in-state opponent since 2015.

Tennessee is on a hot streak, after a series win at No. 15 Alabama over the weekend in Tuscaloosa, UT's first-ever series win at the Rhodes House.

Team Captains

The 2018 captains for Kentucky will be Jenny Schaper, Brooklin Hinz, Katie Reed and Erin Rethlake.

The voting process is unique, however, as all players, staff members and support staff members (ticket office, marketing, SID, field crew, office assistants, etc.) get one vote.

Coach Lawson then decides a cut-off point and those are determined as the captains.

Grabbing the Tiger by its Tail

Kentucky picked up a two-game sweep of the No. 8 LSU Tigers in its SEC home-opener. Freshman pitcher Grace Baalman and sophomore transfer Autumn Humes both picked up their first SEC wins of the season, allowing just one total run all weekend.

UK was leading 7-0 in the bottom of the fourth inning on Monday night in an attempt at a three-game sweep, but after a Carley Hoover wild pitch, the game was put into a rain delay, and since the game could not restart past 9 p.m. ET, the game was called. Since it did not reach five innings, it was a no contest and the result and stats do not count.

Baalman, Cheek SEC Players of the Week

After a 4-0 week in official games that were played this week by the Kentucky softball program, junior third baseman Abbey Cheek and freshman pitcher Grace Baalman were awarded Southeastern Conference weekly awards by the league office on Tuesday.

Cheek was named the SEC Player of the Week, hitting over .700 in the four countable games with five runs scored and six RBI. She had three multi-hit games, including three in a row against three different teams to start the week.

Baalman went the distance, allowing just two runs for her eighth win of the season. She then won her first SEC game by throwing a complete game against No. 8 LSU in Kentucky's 4-1 win over the Tigers in the first game of the sweep. Baalman did not walk a single batter against LSU on Saturday.

Domination of Kentucky

UK beat Louisville 8-0 to secure its third-straight "Battle of the Bluegrass" win. The Wildcats have run-ruled the Cards each of the last two seasons.

UK has won two games with EKU and one with WKU for a 4-0 in-state record.

Sarah Rainwater Tears ACL, Out for Remainder of 2018

Kentucky softball starting centerfielder Sarah Rainwater tore the anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) of her left knee in practice on Friday afternoon and will miss the remainder of the 2018 season, head coach Rachel Lawson announced on Tuesday, April 3.

Campbell/Cartier Classic

Kentucky won the 2018 Campbell/Cartier Classic in San Diego by going 4-0 on the weekend with wins over SDSU, North Dakota State, and two run-rule wins over Cal State Fullerton.

Humes' First-Career Start ... No-No

Autumn Humes became the first pitcher in UK history to throw a no-hitter in her first-career start on Saturday, Feb. 17 against North Dakota State.

Her career began in a relief outing vs. New Mexico State, where she allowed seven earned runs on four hits and walked five in just two innings pitched.

She followed that up with a no-no against an NCAA Regional team from 2017, facing the mini-mun, walking two and striking out three in just 75 pitches.

Unlike the Wildcats on Opening Day

Kentucky opened up the season with a 12-9 loss to New Mexico State. It was the first time that:

- UK lost its season-opening game since 2012 (at UCLA)
- UK gave up double-digit runs since March 18, 2012 vs. UAB (20-7)
- UK gave up double-digit runs in back-to-back games since 2008 (March 14 vs. #1 Alabama)

John Cropp Classic Champions

Kentucky won the 2018 John Cropp Classic, sweeping through the field to go 4-0 on the weekend. The Wildcats outscored their opponents 31-7 on the weekend, and only trailed for a total of four innings.

Home Run City

The Wildcats hit 10 home runs in the opening two weekends games of the season. Three players (Katie Reed, Abbey Cheek, Jenny Schaper) had multi-HR's with Cheek delivering four and Reed/Schaper hitting two.

Abbey Cheek is the second player in program history to have at least 10 home runs in three different seasons (Brittany Cervantes accomplished the feat in all four seasons of her career, 2009-2012)

2017 vs. 2018 Pre-Conference Offensive Production

Kentucky finished 172nd nationally in 2017 in runs scored. The focus in the offseason for the Wildcats was getting their offense back to a WCWS level. UK after the pre-conference slate of games ranked tied for eighth nationally in scoring (March 5), and was third in the SEC in total offense. Here are some comparison stats to the first 18 games of the 2017 season:

Offensive Statistic	2017	2018	(+/- from '17 to '18)
Team Batting Average	.315	.351	+.036
Runs Scored	80	123	+43
Home Runs	13	19	+6
RBI	72	106	+34
Stolen Bases	38	38	EVEN
Hits	152	172	+20
Strikeouts by UK hitters	73	52	-21

Toughest of the Tough

The SEC is always a challenge. But, in this year's schedule rotation - Kentucky mathmatically has the toughest schedule possible. The Wildcats will face each of the top eight teams for their eight conference series. This year, the Wildcats miss out on Mississippi State, Ole Miss, Arkansas and Missouri while adding LSU, Auburn, Alabama and South Carolina back onto their schedule. All eight of UK's SEC series are currently against a team ranked inside the top-17 of both major polls, and inside the top-16 of the NCAA RPI released on Monday.

KENTUCKY SOFTBALL 2018 | WEEK 12 | AT TENNESSEE

Bradley and Harvard at the Citrus Classic. She went for four singles and five walks. She also scored four runs – and the game-winning run in the first game of the day against Bradley.

Perfect 10

Kentucky was a perfect 10-0 at John Cropp Stadium this season and was outscoring its opponents 68-17 in those games. UK won the John Cropp Classic in the opening weekend of home play, and opened SEC home action with a two-game sweep of No. 8 LSU. UK's first home loss was to Alabama on March 31.

Runs on Runs on Runs

Kentucky had their largest run differential in a four-game span (+38, Apr. 3 - 6, 2018) in program history. Those games were EKU, Louisville, MTSU (2x).

The previous record was +37 (Apr. 2 - 6, 2011). All four games were run-rule wins, and happened in just 22 innings.

Record Setting Attendance

UK set a John Cropp Stadium attendance record on Saturday, March 31 when 2,524 fans attended UK's 11-6 win over No. 16 Alabama. It was the largest crowd to ever watch a UK softball at John Cropp Stadium, only eclipsed in stadium history by the 2013 SEC Tournament Championship game in the stadium's inaugural year.

NCAA RPI

UK opened the season as the No. 27 team in the initial release of the NCAA Ratings Percentage Index. The Wildcats are currently at No. 16 nationally.

Hitten' Kittens

You might notice that all UK players that get on base after a hit tap their helmets. This is a sign to the dugout that they are "hitten' kittens" so the two hands on top are to be cat ears.

Potent Offense

Kentucky's 25 runs scored in their first three games of the season is the second-most in school history. The 2007 team scored 34 runs in their first three games of the season.

Kentucky's four home runs on Sunday vs. New Mexico State in the 10-2 win were their most in a non-conference road game since Feb. 28, 2015 at Tennessee Tech (four).

Wildcats Dominate Hoosiers

Kentucky scored six runs in the first inning and seven runs in the second inning - the two highest-scoring innings of the season for the Wildcats en route to a 15-2 win over Indiana on March 14.

The 15 runs scored was the most runs scored in any game for UK since March of 2013 when UK scored 18 in an 18-1 win over North Carolina at John Cropp Stadium.

Baalman on the Ball

Grace Baalman threw a complete-game shutout in her first-career start on the road at San Diego State in a 5-0 win over the Aztecs. She became the first UK pitcher since 2013 (Katie Henderson) to throw a complete-game shutout in her first-career start for the Wildcats.

She threw in all five games of the Diamond 9 Citrus Classic in Orlando earning three back-to-back-to-back wins in the circle, finishing the weekend with a 3-0 record and a 1.12 ERA.

In her first-career SEC start at #2 Florida, she took the lead going into the bottom of the seventh, but UF won the game on a walk-off single from Kayli Kvistad, 3-2.

Home Run For First-Career Hit

Sophomore Ashley Ruiz hit a home run against Cal State Fullerton on Feb. 17. It was her first-career hit after an 0-for-5 year a season ago and a groundout in her first AB of the 2018 season.

Rachel Lawson Elected Serving on NCAA Softball Rules Committee

Head coach Rachel Lawson is serving her third season on the NCAA Rules Committee.

Home Sweet Home

Kentucky finished the regular season with a record of 14-6 in 2017 at John Cropp Stadium, with seven wins over top-20 teams and five shutouts.

The Wildcats won their first 10 home games of the year in 2018 after winning their first eight in a row at home last year.

Start With a Number

USA Softball and ESPN.com released its pre-season top 25 on Tuesday afternoon, with the Kentucky softball team slotted at No. 13 in the poll, its highest start to a season since 2015.

The Wildcats are one of eight Southeastern Conference teams in the top 15 of the poll, and nine in the top-25 overall for the preseason polls.

Reed Named All-SEC Preseason

Katie Reed was named to the 2018 Southeastern Conference Preseason Team, it was announced on Wednesday morning. The honor is voted upon by the 13 head coaches in the SEC.

Reed was named the third National Fast-pitch Coaches' Association All-American in program history a season ago, hitting .353 at the plate, and living up to the hype defensively – with the best fielding percentage of all SEC shortstops. The St. Louis, Mo., native made SportsCenter's "Top 10" on two occasions last year, including during the 2017 NCAA Regionals in the regional final against Illinois.

Doing What it Takes

Not only was 2017 a banner year for the Kentucky softball team on the field – but it was another strong year off the field as well for the Wildcats, who earned the 2017 Easton/NFCA Division I All-Academic honor.

Under the direction of team academic advisor, Amy Craiglow, the Wildcats earned a 3.425 GPA which was the second-highest in all of the Southeastern Conference – and in the top 40 nationally. The team GPA of a 3.425 was the second-highest among female sports at UK for the spring semester of 2017.

Shining in the Spotlight

The SEC Network and its corporate partners at ESPN announced that the Kentucky softball team will be featured on national television 12 times in 2018, setting a new program record. Seven of the 12 games will be home games originating from John Cropp Stadium in Lexington.

The SEC Network, ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPNU will combine to televise over 650 softball games this season including every pitch of the 2018 SEC Tournament and the Women's College World Series from Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

All games that are featured on ESPN, ESPN2 and the SEC Network can be seen live on mobile devices and tablets through ESPN3 and the WatchESPN app.

HEAD COACH RACHEL LAWSON (11TH SEASON)

When Rachel Lawson was named head coach of the University of Kentucky softball team in July 2007 she saw a program poised for success. She knew athletics director Mitch Barnhart and the rest of UK's administration would give her unwavering support, and most importantly she knew the Big Blue Nation would provide the home-field advantage necessary for her team to compete in the Southeastern Conference.

Entering her 11th season as UK's head coach in 2018, Lawson's vision for the UK softball program has started to become a realization. The winningest head coach in program history has not only lead UK to its first-ever appearance in the Women's College World Series, five NCAA Super Regionals the last six seasons, including a program-best 50 wins in 2014, but UK's administration come through on their promise and commitment to softball by providing Lawson with one of the nation's greatest collegiate softball facilities in the $9.5 million John Cropp Stadium.

She became the first coach in program history to eclipse 300 wins at Kentucky against Ole Miss on March 19 in a 3-1 win at John Cropp Stadium in Lexington.

Lawson and Co. have made sure the beautiful stadium has seen lots of wins over the past few seasons as UK had had some of its three most successful seasons in program history each of the last four years. In 2014, Lawson guided Kentucky to the Women's College World Series behind 50 wins. The Wildcats also set single-season records in at-bats, runs scored, doubles, home runs, RBI, total bases, walks, fielding percentage, putouts, lowest ERA and strikeouts. UK, which advanced to the program's first SEC Tournament Championship, started the season with a program-best 12 straight wins.

Four of the last five seasons, Lawson has led the Wildcats to a national seed in the NCAA Tournament. The school's first-ever national seed was in 2013 - and UK hosted an NCAA Regional for the first time ever. Kentucky, which has made the NCAA Tournament each of the last nine seasons, is one of just 18 schools nationally to claim that honor.

Lawson helped guide Kentucky to its best regular season in program history in 2016, winning 43 games in the regular season, ending with a No. 9 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, a new program best. The Wildcats earned the right to host the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last four seasons at John Cropp Stadium in Lexington. Lawson was named the 2016 SEC Coach of the Year, and joined Kelsey Nunley (SEC Pitcher of the Year) as the first two Kentucky winners of those awards.

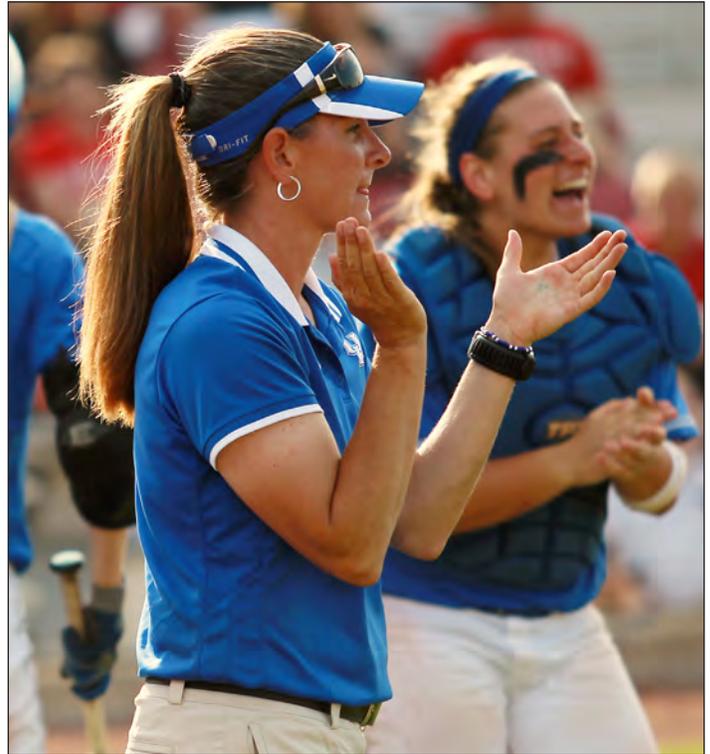

The 2016 team finished with some of the best pitching numbers in program history, setting school records in the circle for lowest team ERA (1.71), lowest opponent batting average (.191), fewest runs allowed (130), fewest earned runs allowed (98), fewest hits allowed (280) and fewest doubles allowed (44)

Now entering her 11th season in 2018, Lawson has won 451 career games at the head of the dugout and has earned her first-career NFCA First Team All-American in 2016 when Kelsey Nunley was named to the elite squad as a pitcher. Nunley became the second All-American in program history (Molly Johnson, 2nd Team), and the first to be named to the First Team. Katie Reed was named an NFCA All-American in 2017, for two in two years.

Sitting at 361-232 in her 10 seasons at Kentucky, Lawson is the winningest head coach in school history and already has more wins in SEC play than UK had all told as a program when she took over in 2007. UK finished the 2014 season ranked sixth in both national listings for its best final ranking ever. In 2013, Kentucky was ranked in the top 14 of both collegiate softball rankings for the second time in school history with nine wins over ranked teams. In her 10 seasons at Kentucky, Lawson has defeated over 75 ranked foes, including 42 wins vs. top-10 teams and 27 against top-five teams. UK has made the Super Regionals in four of the last five seasons.

Lawson's 2013 squad set the stage for the 2014 run to the Women's College World Series, setting several school records, including a then-program record 41 wins. All told, Lawson has directed the Wildcats to 30 or more victories in nine-straight seasons, which also resonates as a program record. In her 10 years with Kentucky, Lawson has helped UK players earn 37 All-SEC honors and 25 SEC Player of the Week honors.

Lawson's impact on the UK program is obviously, but her ability to develop players sometimes gets overshadowed by her impressive credentials in handling the day-to-day running of a program. Lawson, who serves as the pitching coach for the Wildcats, has guided three different pitchers to throw no-hitters against top-25 teams in just the last four seasons alone. In all, UK has 17 career no-hitters - all of which have come under Lawson's tenure - including two perfect games.

Kentucky's 2012 season was highlighted by an impressive second-half surge with upsets of 12 ranked opponents, a then Lawson-best fifth place finish in SEC action, a program-record six captured conference series and a senior class who became the first class in school history to tally a .500 record or better in each of their four seasons of play.

The end of the 2012 season also marked the conclusion of some of the best individual careers in UK history as Lawson helped pitcher Chanda Bell become the first player in school history to record 200-plus strikeouts all four seasons, while slugger Brittany Cervantes is the school's leading home run hitter. Pitcher/infielder Rachel Riley also excelled under Lawson, ranking top 10 in school history in field percentage and nearly every pitching category.

In 2011, Lawson directed the Wildcats to their first NCAA Super Regional appearance and finished the season ranked No.12 in the country. The 2011 team earned a 40-16 overall record to set a new single-season standard for wins in a season before Lawson's 2013 team posted 41. UK appeared in the national rankings for a school-record 14 consecutive weeks, defeated 12 top-25 ranked opponents, captured five SEC series and became a national story with a dramatic postseason run which included a seventh-inning rally to knock off the nation's No. 2 team in Michigan in Ann Arbor to advance to Super Regionals.

The 2011 Wildcats shattered 12 single-season UK records, including home runs (65), RBI (275) and batting average (.275). Individually, the Wildcats had a school-record five players earn National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Region honors in Meagan Aull, Cervantes, Kara Dill, Riley and Megan Yocke. Following the end of the impressive 2011 season, Lawson was rewarded with a five-year contract extension keeping her at the helm of the Wildcat program through 2016. That contract has been extended several times since, including June of 2014, which keeps Lawson in UK blue through the 2020 season.

In 2010, the Wildcats charted a 32-27 record and entered into the national rankings for the first time in program history, while also knocking off five top-seven ranked opponents on the year. Behind the pitching tandem of sophomores Riley and Bell, the Wildcats broke school records in nearly every pitching category. Kentucky's offense continued to make strides as well with improvements in batting average, home runs, RBI and sacrifice hits for the third consecutive season under the direction of Law-

HEAD COACH RACHEL LAWSON (11TH SEASON)

Lawson's impact on the program was immediate as many Wildcats broke into the school record books under her tutelage. Pitcher Amber Matousek became the first pitcher in 10 years to record 10 or more strikeouts in a game when the sophomore right-hander achieved the feat three times in the season. Johnson set the school record for most doubles (20) in a season, while rocketing up the school charts for career home runs, doubles, batting average, slugging percentage and on-base percentage.

During the season the head coach also charted her 100th career victory in a 5-1 UK triumph over Eastern Illinois on March 1. Lawson became the winningest head coach in program history on April 10, 2013 with win No. 182 against Eastern Kentucky in Richmond, Ky.

Lawson became just the third head coach in the history of the Kentucky softball program after spending three seasons at Western Kentucky. She also served as an assistant coach at Maryland from 1996-2002 and was the associate head coach of the Philadelphia Force professional team in 2006.

Lawson tallied a record of 92-84 (.523) during her tenure with the Hilltoppers. In her first season at WKU, she led the Toppers to a spot in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship game. Picked to finish last in the preseason poll, WKU tied for second in the conference standings after setting a school record with 12 Sun Belt victories. The Billings, Mont., native led WKU to a 33-24 record in 2005 and reached the 30-win plateau again in 2007.

Lawson and the Hilltoppers battled nine NCAA Regional participants in 2006, including four teams ranked in the top 25, while finishing third in the Sun Belt regular-season play. She guided the squad to wins over perennial powers Long Beach State, South Florida, Mississippi Valley, as well as No. 13 Louisiana-Lafayette and No. 21 Louisville. In fact, then-freshman pitcher Ryan Rogge tossed the school's third no hitter against the Ragin' Cajuns in WKU's 8-0 victory.

The win handed UL its first run-rule defeat in an SBC contest. Three Hilltoppers - Lathrop, Rolfs and Rogge - each earned SBC Player- and Pitcher-of-the-Week honors throughout the season, as Rolfs and outfielder Alana Towns notched all-conference honors.

Lawson was a two-time all-conference player at Massachusetts, where she was part of a program that advanced to the 1992 Women's College World Series, and has seven years experience as an assistant coach at Maryland.

During her four-year career at UMass, Lawson helped the Minutewomen post a combined record of 142-68 (67.6 percent) including a 39-3 (92.9 percent) Atlantic 10 mark. In addition to the 1992 WCWS appearance, she was a part of squads that also advanced to the NCAA Tournament her freshman season, won three A-10 Tournament titles and claimed the league regular-season championship four straight years.

Lawson was honored individually for her accomplishments on and off the field. She was both an All-Conference and All-Atlantic 10 Tournament performer in 1992 and 1994, and was also named to the A-10 Academic all-conference squad following each of her final two seasons.

Lawson joined the Maryland staff in 1996 and helped the Terrapins post six winning seasons in her seven years in College Park. Her responsibilities included recruiting, scheduling, organizing practice and travel, as well as running camps and clinics. In 1999, Lawson and company were selected the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Mid-Atlantic Coaching Staff of the Year after leading the Terrapins to a 51-23 record, their first ACC regular-season title and the championship game of the NCAA Region II Tournament.

During her time at Maryland, Lawson helped eight individuals earn NFCA all-region accolades -- with an All-America honoree in 1999 -- and nine players collected all-conference honors.

A 1994 graduate of Massachusetts with a degree in exercise science, Lawson also earned her master's degree in sports management from UMass in 1998. She is the daughter of Elaine and Gerald Lawson and has 11 siblings.
