ABOUT THE COVER

In life there are occasions when everything seems to line up as it should, the pieces fall into their proper place and great things can be achieved. Occurrences of these types in the past brought the the Tennessee Lady Vol softball program Southeastern Conference titles, 50 to 60-win seasons and Women's College World Series berths, co-head coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly have continued to work diligently with their staff to go out and locate the necessary pieces to assemble into something special. In a normal re-loading process at Rocky Top, with four upperclassmen set to lead the way in 2010, a foundation of talented and experienced youth and more standout recruits on the way in the near future, the time looks right for Tennessee to take advantage of its "Window of Opportunity."

MEDIA INFORMATION

BRIAN DAVIS Assistant Media Relations Director

Brian Davis rejoined the Lady Vols staff on a full-time basis in September 2004, after spending the previous year as an assistant media relations director at Vanderbilt University. With the Commodores, Davis handled the day-to-day media relations duties for the women's basketball and men's golf programs. He also assisted in the hosting of the 2004 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament in Nashville, Tenn., and traveled to Athens, Ga., as the media contact with the VU women's tennis team during its run to the NCAA Final Four.

At UT, Davis is in charge of all publicity efforts for the nationally-ranked softball and soccer programs. The Jackson, Tenn., native is familiar with the Tennessee program after serving for three seasons (2000-03) as a media relations graduate assistant and intern working with the Lady Vol basketball team. Since entering the profession in 1999, he has worked as a contact or assistant contact with seven teams over four sports that have been to NCAA Final Fours or the Women's College World Series, two NCAA finalists and served as a part of seven Southeastern Conference regular-season or tournament championship teams. Davis earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Tennessee in 1997. He completed work on a master's degree in sport administration from UT in 2002.

UT MEDIA RELATIONS/CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

The University of Tennessee Lady Vol Media Relations Department looks forward to serving the members of the media during the 2010 Lady Vol softball season. If you will be attending a game at Lee Stadium, please take a few moments to review the items of media interest appearing on this page.

Requests for working press space and photographic privileges should be made through the media relations office. If this publication does not answer your questions or you need further assistance, please contact Brian Davis in the Lady Vol Media Relations Office at (865) 974-4275.

UT ON THE WORLD WIDE WEB

The official University of Tennessee Lady Vol Web site, www.UTLadyVols.com, ranks among the best in the country as evidenced by the number of users who view the site on a daily basis. The site totaled over 15 million page views during the 2008-09 academic year. In excess of 1.5 million fans visited the Web site last year.

It has welcomed visitors from more than 50 countries and every U.S. state with up-to-the-minute news and information. Live event coverage and photo galleries from nearly every home event and many away contests can be viewed on the site. The Lady Vol web site is also your best source for rosters, schedules, statistics, team news and athlete biographies.

Last year UTLadyVols.com streamed more than 50 live audio and video events free of charge. This year even more events will be aired using the latest in video and audio streaming technology.

MEDIA SERVICES

MEDIA CREDENTIALS/PARKING PASSES

Requests for working media credentials should be directed to Brian Davis with the Lady Vol Media Relations Department. Credentials can be acquired at the University of Tennessee Lee Softball Stadium press box located at the entrance of the complex. Parking will be available adjacent to Lee Stadium.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers or those individuals on special assignment. Please check with Brian Davis in the Lee Stadium Press Box for instructions on allowed areas of access. No photographers are allowed inside the fence or in the dugout at any time during the game.

RADIO

Lee Softball Stadium is equipped with radio lines and wireless internet access. In order to access these lines, teams interested in doing a radio broadcast of a particular game need to inform the women's media relations office in writing at their earliest convenience and no later than five days prior to the contest.

TELEPHONES AND FAX LINES

A long distance telephone line will be available in the press box at Lee Softball Stadium, which is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Media guides, flipcards and updated game notes and statistics will be available prior to each game. For fax service, please contact Brian Davis prior to game time. Services provided include statistics generated from The Automated ScoreBook computer statistics program. Game-by-game statistics will be e-mailed back to the sports information office of visiting teams at the conclusion of the day, if requested. If no sports information representative is traveling with the opposing team, arrangements should be made in advance for additional services to be provided in their absence.

PRACTICE SCHEDULE/INTERVIEWS

Members of the working media are invited to attend all practices of the Tennessee softball team, which are held at the Lee Softball Stadium or indoors at the Neyland-Thompson Indoor Sports Complex. For scheduled times please contact Brian Davis in the media relations office. Members of the working media interested in interviews with Co-Head Coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly and/or any UT softball player must make an arrangement 24 hours prior to a requested time through Brian Davis in the women's media relations office. Post-game interviews of requested players and the Weeklys will be arranged immediately after a 10-minute cooling-off period through the Tennessee Softball SID.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Ayanna Wakefield, a media relations assistant, will handle all information requests related to softball at the Southeastern Conference. The SEC address is 2201 Richard Arrington Blvd. North, Birmingham, AL 35203-1103. The SEC telephone number is (205) 458-3010, the fax number is (205) 458-3030, and the Web site address is www.secsports.com.

LADY VOL TWITTER

Updated information on all Lady Volunteer athletic teams can be obtained 24 hours a day by accessing the official Lady Vol Twitter page at www.twitter.com/UTLadyVols. The page will be updated regularly with results, facts and schedules.

HONORS

The 2009 Lady Volunteer Softball Media Guide was judged to have the Best Cover among all NCAA Division I schools by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The certificate was awarded to the Tennessee media relations office at the annual convention last June in San Antonio, Texas.

WINDOW OF OPPORTUNITY

2010 LADY VOL PREVIEW

2010 SEASON PREVIEW8-10

2010 SEASON OUTLOOK

"WINDOW OF OPPORTUNITY"

In life there are occasions when everything seems to line up as it should, the pieces fall into their proper place and great things can be achieved. Occurrences of these types in the past brought the the Tennessee Lady Vol softball program Southeastern Conference titles, 50 to 60-win seasons and Women's College World Series berths, co-head coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly have continued to work diligently with their staff to go out and locate the necessary pieces to assemble into something special. In a normal re-loading process at Rocky Top, with four upperclassmen set to lead the way in 2010, a foundation of talented and experienced youth and more standout recruits on the way in the near future, the time looks right for Tennessee to take advantage of its "Window of Opportunity."

While the past two seasons ended as losses in NCAA Regional championship contests, the streaks of consecutive NCAA berths and 40-win seasons have continued unabated in Knoxville, standing at six and seven years, respectively. Not long removed from three straight top three national finishes (2005-07) and a record stint as No. 1 in the major softball polls in 2007, the talent stockpiled within the program should be present to help take that step back to its expected place among the elite level of the collegiate softball world.

Tennessee preps to begin the 2010 campaign with nine returning letter-winners, including seven players who saw at least 37 starts last season, and 10 high-profile newcomers. As a continued sign of program respect, the Lady Vols will open the new season in the national rankings for the fifth consecutive year, having been tabbed at No. 16 by the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) preseason poll. Included among the Big Orange returnees are Louisville Slugger/NFCA Second Team All-American Tiffany Huff (Senior, C/1B--399 avg., 13 doubles, eight HR's, 67 RBIs), NFCA All-South Region selections Kelly Grieve (Junior, OF--393 avg., 48 runs scored, 39 stolen bases) and Jessica Spigner (Sophomore, 3B/P--322 avg., 14 doubles, 14 HR's, 48 RBIs) and SEC All-Freshman pitcher Cat Hosfield (43 games started, 28-13 record, 221 K's in 257.1 IP).

The Lady Vols record 74 percent of their runs scored, total hits and doubles, 88 percent of their triples, 84 percent of their home runs, 81 percent of their total RBIs and 73 percent of their pitching victories from the 2009 campaign. Tennessee also welcomes back seven position players to a defense that finished second in the nation in fielding percentage during the '09 campaign at .978. Included in that group are expected starters at all four infield positions, centerfield, pitcher, catcher and designated player.

"I think this roster as a whole probably has the best overall talent we've ever had at Tennessee," Lady Vol co-head coach Ralph Weekly said. "The majority of that talent, however, is contained within our freshman and sophomore classes."

"We have more team speed this year than we've ever had with four players who run legit 2.6 times to first base and also possess the ability to hit away. Our four upperclassmen are all battle-tested and have played extensively in the SEC, while the three seniors own Women's College World Series experience from 2007. Four of our sophomores started or played significant innings last season and five of our incoming players are strongly challenging to start in 2010."

"Cat Hosfield is our only pitcher with extensive SEC experience, but Jessica Spigner will be prepared to contribute innings as will our promising newcomers in Ivy Renfro and Andi Williamson. They are both learning quickly and are anxious to compete at the collegiate level. We have been a top-five defensive team nationally since 2005 and should remain very good in that area this season. The future is extremely hard to predict in a highly-competitive conference such as the SEC, but we are ready for the challenge. We are a work in progress, but I think we'll be very competitive, will play extremely hard and should be a solid offensive club."

INFIELD/CATCHING: Unlike last preseason when there were plenty of unknowns surrounding what would be an exceptionally young unit, the 2010 Lady Vol infield could perhaps be the strength of this year's squad, boasting a wealth of returning experience at all four positions. A pair of sophomores will anchor the left side of the diamond, each player having started all 59 games for the Orange & White last year, including an NFCA All-Southeast Region and SEC All-Freshman selection at the hot corner. A platoon is expected to be utilized at second between a senior with 85 career starts and a pair of highly-touted freshmen, while last year's season-opening starting second baseman will slide over 60 feet to take care of duties at first in 2010. Having led NCAA Division I in fielding percentage three times since 2005 and consistently rating among the top five nationally proves the Weeklys know how to get the most out the outstanding talent they have accrued across the diamond.

Entering last season a lot was expected of then-rookie Jessica Spigner. The high-profile recruit from the softball hotbed of California was being asked to step into a third base position long patrolled by a three-time NFCA All-American and the program's career home run hitter in the graduated Tonya Callahan. The Santa Clarita, Calif., did about as solid an imitation of the departed slugger as anyone could have hoped for prior to the season, playing in 58 contests at the hot corner while hitting .322 overall with 14 doubles, a Tennessee freshman record 14 home runs and 48 RBIs on her way to NFCA All-Southeast Region and SEC All-Freshman status. Spigner finished sixth overall in the SEC in big flies and tied for fourth in NCAA Division I for HR's by a freshman, while her .638 slugging percentage trailed only All-American Tiffany Huff on last year's roster. Spigner registered 16 multi-hit and 12 multi-RBI games in 2009 with a career-high two home runs and six RBIs during a 16-0 (5 inn.) rout of San Jose State during her first weekend as a Lady Vol. She even found a way to contribute from the pitching circle after being forced into emergency action late during the 2009 campaign, picking up her first collegiate pitching win during an outstanding five-inning, one-hit effort in a 6-3 victory at No. 8 Georgia. During the 2010 season Spigner will be called upon to provide continued offensive fireworks as well as relief innings from the circle to bolster a youthful Lady Vol pitching staff.

Also expected to contribute at third base but mostly in the outfield to start her career is lauded recruit Raven Chavanne, a slap-hitter and track speedster out of Thousand Oaks, Calif. Chavanne presents a somewhat different résumé than your usual collegiate softball freshman in that she didn't play the sport at her high school, but rather ran track. She did, however, perform capably for one of the highest-profile Amateur Softball Association (ASA) Gold summer teams, Haning's OC Batbusters. For Haning's 16-under squad in 2007, Chavanne set the all-time mark for batting average in team history at .583 while helping her squad to a third-place national finish. She made her name at Newbury Park H.S. on the track, however, winning the All-Marmonte League 100 and 200-meter titles four consecutive seasons. A player with tremendous speed to first base, Chavanne put up a 100-meter best of 11.90 and a 200-meter best of 24.54 during her senior year at Newbury Park. She is expected to join Kelly Grieve and Lauren Gibson at the top of the Lady Vol line-up as table setters for UT's big RBI producers.

"One of two of the incoming freshmen who possesses legitimate 2.6 speed to first base, Raven can bunt, slap or hit away," Weekly said. "She is a talented outfielder and also plays a solid third base. She will be asked to contribute early for our team."

Another lauded recruit demonstrated her impressive potential last season as Tumwater, Wash., native Ashley Andrews showed she was ready for the bright lights of collegiate softball by handling the starting shortstop duties for her entire freshman campaign. She committed just 10 errors in an impressive 238 chances in the field while assisting on six of UT's 12 double plays during the 2009 campaign. She posted a .299 batting average at the plate with 22 runs scored, three doubles, three triples and seven RBIs and also swiped eight bases in 11 attempts. A switch-hitter for a portion of the season, Andrews managed to post a pair of five-game hitting streaks as well as a career-best eight-game skein from April 10-22. She registered a perfect 3-for-3 in a game at Ole Miss and showed a flair for the dramatic by tripling and scoring the winning run in an 11-inning marathon victory over Auburn. With a year's experience under her belt, Andrews should continue her growth both in the field and at the plate in her second year as UT's starting shortstop.

A returning senior middle infielder fresh off her best campaign in the Orange & White, Nicole Kajitani is expected to serve as the team's main utility player this season and will play a lot at second base. She will face a solid challenge at the position from a pair of high-profile freshmen in Gibson and Melissa Brown. Kajitani posted career-highs last season in batting average, runs scored, hits, triples, home runs, stolen bases and slugging percentage while recording four multi-hit and five multi-RBI games. During one five-contest stretch that included a doubleheader at Kentucky and a three-game series versus Auburn, the San Bernardino, Calif., native hit .450 with two doubles, a game-winning triple, two home runs and nine RBIs on her way to reaping her initial career nod as the SEC Player of the Week. She posted a career-best six RBIs in a 14-2 (5 inn.) dismantling of UK and with UT trailing Auburn 2-1 in the bottom of the seventh, launched a two-RBI, three-bagger to rally the Lady Vols to a 3-2 victory. Already solid in the field, Kajitani will be expected to continue her offensive improvement at the plate for the Big Orange in 2010.

A native of Pasadena, Md., and both a 2008 ESPN/Under Armour All-American and Gatorade/RISE Magazine State Player of the Year for Maryland, Gibson led her Chesapeake H.S. team to consecutive Maryland Class 4A state titles (2007-08) while throwing no-hitters during both championship games. She was chosen as the No. 17 softball recruit in the nation in 2009 by ESPN RISE and was honored as the 2007 and 2008 Metro Player of the Year by The Baltimore Sun, The Washington Post and Capital-Gazette Newspapers (Md.). She also received four straight softball All-Metro selections and Anne Arundel Coaches All-County nods (2006-09). Following a senior campaign that saw her go 12-3 from the circle with seven shutouts, a no-hitter and a 1.39 ERA as well as hit .510 with seven homers, 18 RBIs and 13 steals, she was honored as First-Team All-Metro by both The Baltimore Sun and The Washington Post. Although she won't pitch at Tennessee, Gibson showed she's ready to contribute at the dish as a hitter with a solid fall season for the Big Orange during which she hit .521 with a team-best 12 RBIs.

"Lauren is a strong, left-handed hitter with long ball power," Weekly said. "She possesses very quick hands and is fundamentally strong at the plate. She can play both outfield and infield positions and is expected to be a solid contributor at Tennessee."

A two-sport athlete at Hart H.S. in softball and basketball, Brown ventures to Tennessee as a slap-hitting middle infielder who helped her squad to a pair of Foothill League (Calif.) titles (2006, 2008). During the '08

A preseason member of the 2010 USA Softball National Player of the Year Watch List, Huff enters her senior season at Tennessee coming off a year in which she set personal single-season highs for batting average (.399), hits (63), runs scored (48), home runs (eight) and RBIs (67).

2010 SEASON OUTLOOK

campaign, her team posted a 9-1 league mark as part of a 25-5 overall record to tie Lady Vol sophomore Jessica Spigner's Valencia H.S. squad for the crown. Brown reaped 2009 first-team All-Foothill League and second-team All-California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) accolades after hitting .393 (44-of-112) with 18 runs scored during her senior softball campaign and was chosen second-team All-Foothill League in 2008 after recording a .458 batting average with 28 runs scored, two home runs and 16 RBIs while going 13-for-13 on stolen bases.

"A very strong middle infielder with a good, accurate arm and soft hands, Melissa is a solid offensive threat at the plate who is moving from the left side over to the right," Weekly said. "She possesses great softball instincts."

Perhaps no one on the roster has proven to be more versatile defensively during her Lady Vol career than this season's incumbent at first base, Erinn Webb. Having started her career in the outfield as a freshman and sophomore, the Hemet, Calif., native moved to the infield in 2009 to take over the starting second base position. Now she will slide over this year to handle a vital corner spot at first. Webb's offensive numbers dropped slightly from her sophomore campaign in 2009 but were still very effective as she hit .274 (46-of-168) over 58 starts. She tied for the overall SEC lead with five triples, was tied for eighth in the league with 13 doubles and added six homers and 35 RBIs. Webb recorded 11 multi-hit and 11 multi-RBI match-ups, while registering a career-long seven-game hitting streak stretching from Feb. 21-March 6. As one of just three seniors and four total upperclassmen on this year's 19-player Lady Vol roster, Webb will be expected to contribute not only in the field and at the plate, but as a team leader.

The catching position is in capable hands for the 2010 campaign, as returning behind the dish for Tennessee is 2009 NFCA second-team All-American and Top 25 finalist for the USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year award, Tiffany Huff. Huff rated fourth in the SEC last year in RBIs and fifth in all of NCAA Division I in RBIs-per-game while establishing personal single-season career-highs for batting average (.399), hits (63), runs scored (48), home runs (eight), RBIs (67), on-base (.522) and slugging percentage (.646) and stolen bases (11). The Saugus, Calif., native started all 59 games for the Big Orange last season either behind the plate or at first base, where she will again contribute this season as relief for Webb. She posted 14 multi-hit and 14 multi-RBI contests last year and registered a career-long 17-game hitting streak from Feb. 20-March 21. After opening the '09 campaign by hitting .647 with 15 RBIs at the BYU Red Desert Classic in St. George, Utah, Huff was honored as the USA Softball National Co-Player of the Week and drew a mention in Sports Illustrated as one of its weekly "Faces in the Crowd." She was also honored as an ESPN the Magazine Academic All-American for her work in the classroom. An unquestioned team leader, the senior will be expected to lead by example with her outstanding work ethic both on and off the diamond.

Backing up Huff in the catching position this season will be sophomores Shelby Burchell and Andrews, and potentially, utility freshman Morgan Fowler.

Burchell opened her career in the Orange & White 56 games played (52 starts) with 18 runs scored, three runs, 25 RBIs, 16 walks and a pair of stolen bases in three attempts. The Columbia, Tenn., product received the majority of her playing time (38 games) in the designated player spot in the line-up, but she also played 20 contests in the outfield and got into three match-ups behind the plate. She demonstrated her power prowess early in her rookie campaign blasting two home runs in a single contest as part of a three-RBI effort in a big win over No. 23 Massachusetts. She also hit .857 (6-for-7) during a three-game series versus Mississippi State. In 2010, Burchell should improve on her offensive numbers, providing another vital contributor from a power/RBI standpoint.

An in-state product and a four-year softball letter-winner out of Camden, Tenn., Fowler was a three-time District 11 selection in Class AA softball from 2007-09 at Camden Central High School. She was an honorable mention selection at the Tennessee State Tournament for CCHS' Class AA runner-up squad that posted a 46-10 record in 2007 and played ASA summer ball for High Intensity as well as ASA Gold with the Nashville Nighthawks. Fowler enters her freshman season listed at utility because of her versatility on the defensive side.

"Morgan is a hard-nosed utility player who has shown the ability to play every position on the field except pitcher," Weekly said. "She is a good, young hitter who has flourished during her brief time at UT through hard-work and dedication."

OUTFIELD/DESIGNATED PLAYER: This season the youth movement switches from the infield to the outfield where the Lady Vols return incumbent NFCA All-Southeast Region center fielder Grieve, but they must replace the production of '09 senior departures Lillian Hammond and Danielle Pieroni. A cadre of freshman including Chavanne, Kat Dotson, Megan Givens, Leah Sophomore pitcher and '09 SEC All-Freshman choice Cat Hosfield preps for her second campaign at UT after going 28-13 with 221 strikeouts in 257.1 innings as a rookie in 2009. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native finished second in the SEC in wins, fourth in K's and 11th in opposing batting average (.222), while tying for 12th in NCAA Division I in triumphs.

highest single-season batting average (.716) to go along with 68 hits, 60 runs scored, 23 RBIs and a .916 on-base percentage, while in 2006 she set state marks for single-season stolen bases (63), hits (68) and triples (10). Dotson holds Georgia career records for thefts (181), batting average (.638) and triples (29). From 2006-08, she put up staggering batting averages of .667, .539 and .716.

"One of the fastest slap hitters we've ever had at Tennessee, Kat hit in the top three of our line-up during the fall and posted a very solid on-base percentage," Weekly said. "She covers a lot of ground in the outfield and has a strong throwing arm."

Givens comes to Tennessee as one of several former Girls Preparatory School players from the Chattanooga, Tenn., area to have recently ventured through the Lady Vol softball program including recent graduate Lillian Hammond and her sister Whitney. The Soddy Daisy, Tenn., product played on three-straight Division II AA Tennessee State Championship softball teams at GPS (2007-09) and two runner-ups (2005, 2006). She was selected by the Tennessee Sports Writers Association (TSWA) to its all-state team for Division II softball in 2007 and 2009 and was chosen to the Chattanooga Times-Free Press "Best of Preps" listing for softball in 2006, 2007 and 2009. Givens posted a .476 batting average with 13 doubles, nine stolen bases, 30 RBIs and 20 runs scored for GPS during her senior campaign. She also was Tennessee's Player of the Game in the Volunteer State's 12-10 victory in the 2009 Tennessee-Georgia All-Star Softball Classic with three hits, two runs scored and a RBI.

"Megan is a dynamic young player who hits from the left side, plays outfield and runs the bases extremely well," Weekly said. "She has a lot of experience playing high-level Gold ball during the summer and worked extremely hard for our coaching staff during the recent fall season."

Another native West Tennessean on this year's Lady Vol softball roster, Taylor ventures to Rocky Top from Haywood High School in Brownsville, Tenn., where she was a four-time selection to the All-District 14 AA Softball Team (2006-09) as well as a three-time choice to the All-District 14 AA All-Tournament squad (2007-09). She also helped guide Haywood H.S. to the 2006 Tennessee state softball playoffs and helped lead her ASA Gold team Fury Fastpitch to the national tournament for the first time in its history in 2009.

"Leah is a very fast outfielder who has really improved as a hitter and will be counted upon in key situations off the bench," Weekly said. "She will play in the outfield, pinch-hit and see time in the designated player spot. She is a very smart player who maximizes her talents."

Hammond played alongside current Lady Vol freshman teammate Givens at Girls Preparatory School in Chattanooga, Tenn., as part of the 2007, 2008 and 2009 Division II AA softball champions. She was chosen to the TSWA All-State Softball Team as well as to the Chattanooga Times-Free Press "Best of Preps" listing for softball as a senior in 2009 after hitting .531 with two triples, 18 stolen bases and 38 runs scored. She also participated in the 2009 Tennessee-Georgia All-Star Softball Classic.

Junior outfielder and NFCA All-Southeast Region choice Kelly Grieve wreaked havoc on opposing defenses by hitting .393 with a UT sophomore record 39 stolen bases. She owns both the freshman and sophomore theft marks at UT, breaking those set by All-American Lindsay Schutzler.

2010 SEASON OUTLOOK

"Whitney is a very fast left-handed slap hitter with a strong arm and great outfield skills," Weekly said. "She is quick to the ball and knows what to do with it when she receives it. She is always a threat at the plate for us offensively."

Returning sophomore Baker spent the 2009 campaign serving mainly as a pinch runner for the Lady Vol offense, playing in 35 contests. The Broadway, Va., product scored 11 runs for UT, stole five bases and received action in six games in the outfield.

After receiving the majority of the starts last season at designated player, Burchell will be expected to take on that role to start the new year. The freshman Gibson is listed as a back-up option at the position on the early depth chart.

PITCHING: There is plenty of promise for UT heading into the new season at the pitching position, but youth will again be the defining factor in the Big Orange corps. Returning to head the staff as its ace is a sophomore who made 54 appearances in 2010 while tossing 257.1 innings during a SEC All-Freshman campaign. Bolstering the staff are two freshman standouts as well as a sophomore (Spigner), who after being thrust into the role of pitcher in an emergency spot last year, has spent time in the off-season working on her delivery in order to provide solid relief innings. She was named the Gatorade California Player of the Year in 2008 primarily for pitching her Valencia High School team to a state title. The Weeklys see Spigner as a Charlotte Morgan (Alabama senior)-type player, one who can be a hard-hitting infielder and also toss great innings from the circle. Tennessee should be strong from the circle, as the Lady Vols have always demonstrated the ability to get the most out of their group of hurlers.

Eager to begin her sophomore campaign in the Orange & White is Murfreesboro, Tenn., native Hosfield. The 5-9 righthander opened her UT career as the Lady Vols' workhorse in the circle, firing the second most innings in the SEC in 2009 (257.1) while posting a 28-13 record with a 2.67 ERA on her way to SEC All-Freshman honors. She tied for 12th in NCAA Division I in pitching victories and rated second in the SEC in wins, rated fourth in strikeouts (221) and 11th in opposing team batting average (.222). She was honored as the SEC Freshman of the Week on Feb. 23rd after posting a 4-0 record with a 1.11 ERA and 27 K's in 25.1 innings at the prestigious Cathedral City Classic. During the event, Hosfield fired a complete-game, one-hit shutout over Loyola Marymount, two-hit #15 Massachusetts and relieved in wins over Hawai'i and Cal Poly. During the year she also beat No. 6 Oklahoma (twice), No. 18 LSU (twice including at the SEC Tournament), No. 25 Kansas and Auburn (three times). With an off-season of work and having fully recovered from a devastating ankle injury sustained in the summer of 2008, Hosfield should be ready to provide the needed stabilizing force in the circle for Tennessee in 2010.

Hailing from West Tennessee, Renfroe made a name for herself starting in the eighth grade as a standout pitcher at Trinity Christian Academy in Jackson, Tenn. During her illustrious career she won over 110 games, struck out 1,294 hitters, posted 79 shutouts and recorded 41 no-hitters with four perfect games. She was just as productive at the plate putting up batting averages of .478, .330, .396 and .384 with a staggering 187 career RBIs. The 5-10 hurler helped TCA post records of 40-3 ('06), 46-5 ('07), 43-8 ('08) and 46-1 ('09) while winning three Tennessee Class A State Titles (2006, 2007, 2009, state runner-up in 2008), five sectional and district championships (2005-09) and four region crowns (2006-09). As a senior Renfroe registered a perfect 23-0 pitching record with a miniscule 0.21 ERA, 281 strikeouts in 139.0 innings of work, 11 no-hitters, a perfect game and 17 shutouts, while at the plate, she hit .384 with a pair of homers and 56 RBIs. For her senior efforts, Renfroe was both The Jackson Sun's 2009 Player of the Year and the Jackson Sports Hall of Fame's 2009 Female Athlete of the Year. She was also a finalist for Gatorade/RISE Magazine Tennessee State Player of the Year on three occasions, while reaping four consecutive selections as TSWA First-Team All-State, First-Team All-West Tennessee and District 15-A Most Valuable Player.

"A tall, hard-throwing right-handed pitcher who is growing in mound presence every day, Ivy is a good fielder in the circle and a player who is consistently striving to perfect her game," Weekly said.

Freshman pitcher Williamson was a 2009 EA Sports first-team Softball All-American and the 2009 Gatorade/RISE Magazine West Virginia State Player of the Year, after helping lead her Chapmanville Regional H.S. softball team to West Virginia State Class AA Championships in 2007 and 2009 and a 2006 runner-up finish while tallying over 1,000 career strikeouts. A native of Harts, W.Va., Williamson, the '09 West Virginia Sports Writers State Player of the Year, was 23-1 from the circle with a 0.09 ERA, 356 strikeouts in 153 innings of work and broke a state record by recording 33 K's in a 13-inning victory. She also hit .390 at the plate with four homers and 30 RBIs and was tabbed as an ESPN/RISE East Coast Player of the Week as a senior. The 5-8 righthander was a four-time First-Team All-State selection and a three-time All-Cardinal Conference choice in softball.

"Andi is a strong, young pitcher who has improved immensely in her first few months at Tennessee," Weekly said. "She is hard-nosed and dedicated and possesses the ability to throw quality innings for us in the future."

SCHEDULE: Facing the Big Orange in 2010 is arguably the toughest schedule put together by co-head coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly in their nine years at Rocky Top. Believing in challenging their team to make them better in time for postseason action, the Weeklys have their Tennessee squad slated to play 17 games against nine members of the NFCA preseason Top 18 and six teams that are currently rated in the nation's Top 10. Included in that total for the Lady Vols are opening weekend match-ups against No. 4 Michigan, No. 8 UCLA and No. 11 Oklahoma at the NTC Division I Elite Invitational (Feb. 12-14) in Clermont, Fla., contests versus No. 10 Stanford and No. 14 Ohio State at the prestigious Cathedral City Classic over Feb. 25-27 in Cathedral City, Calif., and then regular-season SEC series against No. 2 Alabama, No. 3 Florida, No. 7 Georgia and No. 18 LSU. In all, four of those opponents were among the eight teams participating at the 2009 Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla.

As always the early season tournament schedule will see the Lady Vols travel from coast-to-coast during February, but this year the March slate includes a pair of home-hosted tournaments at Sherri Parker Lee Softball Stadium.

Tennessee's campaign kicks off at the high-profile NTC Division I Elite Invitational in Orlando, Fla. During its stay from Feb. 12-14, UT will face a daunting slate of opponents, including 2009 WCWS participant Michigan, 11-time national champion UCLA, perennial Big 12 power Oklahoma and always highly-challenging programs, UCF and Florida Atlantic.

After a quick trip back to Knoxville for an early home opener versus Western Carolina on Feb. 16 at Lee Stadium, the Orange & White then embark on a nine-game, 10-day road trip to the Tony Cox Classic/New Mexico State in Las Cruces, N. M. (Feb. 20-23) and the prestigious Cathedral City Classic in Cathedral City, Calif. (Feb. 25-27).

During their visit to "The Land of Enchantment," the Lady Vols will face Weber State, 2009 NCAA Tournament teams Bradley and Cleveland State, and both St. Mary's (CA) and host New Mexico State.

For the sixth time in program history and the fourth straight season, UT will find itself among those teams participating in the prestigious Cathedral City Classic, formerly the Palm Springs Classic. Another challenging schedule awaits as Tennessee is scheduled to face 2009 NCAA Super Regional squads Stanford and Ohio State as well as Pacific and Syracuse during its three-day stay at Big League Dreams Sports Park.

UT wraps up its early season travels by making the brief trip down I-40 to Cookeville, Tenn., for the first time since 2005 with a visit to in-state foe Tennessee Tech for a single match-up on March 3.

Having hosted the Tennessee Classic at Lee Stadium for the past two seasons, the Big Orange steps up its hosting duties in 2010 with two home events over March 5-7 and 12-14. In the initial tourney, UT will bring in another perennial Big 12 power in Texas as well as Ohio and Illinois State. Liberty, Tennessee Tech and '09 NCAA participant Campbell venture to Knoxville to round out the field for the second event.

Stuck in a tough position right between UT's two home tournaments is an always challenging trip to Mississippi State over March 9-10 to christen Southeastern Conference play.

The Orange & White road schedule in league action includes trips to battle South Carolina (April 2-3, three games), Auburn (April 10-11, three games), Arkansas (April 14, double-header) and Alabama (May 1-2, three games).

Conference series slated to be held at Lee Stadium during the 2010 campaign involve WCWS participants Georgia (March 20-21, three games) and Florida (April 23-24, three games) as well as Kentucky (March 23, doubleheader), Ole Miss (March 27-28, three games) and LSU (May 8-9, three games).

Scattered in during SEC action are mid-week, non-conference home games against in-state opponents Austin Peay (March 17) and Middle Tennessee (March 31).

Once the regular-season concludes, Tennessee's goal is to travel back to Fayetteville, Ark., for the second time in 2010 to contest the annual SEC Tournament over May 13-15.

The NCAA Tournament schedule opens at campus sites over May 21-23 with NCAA Regionals and follows with the best-of-three Super Regionals from May 28-29. The annual Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla., will be contested from June 3-9 at the ASA Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City.

The evolution of the Tennessee softball program continues each season as players move on and new talent is brought into the fold. The trick is finding just that right combination of pieces that fit together perfectly to create something special. Time will tell if 2010 is the year that everything falls into the proper place for the Lady Vol softball program, allowing it to take advantage of a "Window of Opportunity" on the national stage.

Sophomore third baseman/pitcher Jessica Spigner wasted little time introducing herself on a national level by hitting .322 with 14 doubles and a UT freshman record 14 home runs as part of a NFCA All-Southeast Region and SEC All-Freshman campaign in 2009.

Senior first baseman Erinn Webb enters her final campaign at Tennessee after tying for the league lead in 2009 in triples with five and eighth in the SEC in doubles with 13. She hit .274 and recorded 35 RBIs.

LADY VOL CO-HEAD COACH

RALPH WEEKLY Ninth Year at Tennessee

During their first eight seasons at the University of Tennessee, Ralph Weekly and his wife, Karen, have transformed the Lady Vols from a program searching for an identity into a formidable Southeastern Conference and national contender.

Taking over the reins of the UT program following a 24-35 campaign in 2001, the Weeklys have led the Big Orange to a staggering 416 total wins, an average of 52 triumphs-per-season.

During his stay at Tennessee, Weekly has helped the program to its initial three Women's College World Series berths (2005, 2006, 2007), three straight top-three national finishes, three 60-win seasons, six consecutive NCAA Regional appearances, seven straight Southeastern Conference Tournament bids and the school's initial SEC regular season (2007) and SEC Tournament Championships (2006). Under his guidance the Big Orange became the first league school to reach No. 1 in the national polls, staying at the top of the ESPN.com/USA Softball rankings for a record 11 consecutive weeks, and the first in the league to advance to the WCWS best-of-three Championship Series. Seven Lady Vols have received a total of 16 Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-America nods since 2004, while the team has combined to reap 25 Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Region selections and 29 All-SEC or SEC All-Freshman choices since 2002. In addition, nine of his players have gone on to be drafted or participate with the National Pro Fastpitch League (NPF), most recently, Lillian Hammond with the Philadelphia Force.

The co-head coaching duo also believes in its players performing just as well in the classroom as Tennessee softball student-athletes have reaped a staggering six first-team and 10 overall ESPN the Magazine Academic All-Americans and 12 Academic All-District IV selections since 2005. UT boasted the two-time University Division Academic All-American of the Year in Lindsay Schutzler (2006, 2007) and tallied three Academic All-Americans in the same season in both 2007 and 2009.

This past year Tennessee improved its string of consecutive 40+win seasons to seven dating back to the Weeklys initial season at the helm in 2002. Despite a loss in the NCAA Knoxville Regional title game for the second straight year, UT managed a 40-18-1 overall mark, hit .304 as a team, posted a 12-12-1 record in league action and reached the NCAA Field of 64 for the sixth season in a row.

Junior catcher/first baseman Tiffany Huff became the program's seventh all-time All-American by being chosen to the Louisville Slugger/NFCA Second-Team. The Saugus, Calif., native set personal single-season marks for batting average (.399), runs (48), hits (63), home runs (eight), RBIs (67) and both slugging and on-base percentage on her way to being selected as a Top 25 finalist for the USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year award. Junior center fielder Kelly Grieve broke the school's sophomore stolen base record with 39 thefts in 42 attempts and hit .393 overall, while freshman third baseman Jessica Spigner broke a 13-year old freshman school standard for home runs by blasting 14 as each standout reaped NFCA All-Southeast Region honors. Freshman hurler Cat Hosfield tallied a 28-13 record with 221 K's from the circle in being chosen SEC All-Freshman. On the academic front senior left fielder Lillian Hammond was named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year for softball, while Hammond, Huff and sophomore first baseman/catcher Jen Lapicki were tabbed to the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America first, second and third teams, respectively.

Success continued into the 2008 campaign as the Weeklys guided the Big Orange to a fifth consecutive 50-win season at 50-16 overall and a fifth straight berth into the NCAA Tournament Field of 64. UT advanced to the championship game of its home-hosted NCAA Regional but dropped a 4-2 decision to eventual WCWS-participant Virginia Tech.

Under their tutelage, senior third baseman Tonya Callahan (.465 avg., 62 RBIs) broke the school record for single-season home runs with 16 on the way to being chosen as Tennessee's second consecutive SEC Player of the Year and a finalist for both the USA Softball National Player of the Year trophy and the Honda Award for Softball while reaping UT's 15th Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-America honor since 2004. Senior shortstop Kenora Posey and freshman infielder Lapicki each earned All-SEC accolades. Junior outfielder Hammond and senior pitcher Megan Rhodes continued the Lady Vol academic tradition by being tabbed as ESPN the Magazine Academic All-Americans. Hammond, freshman hurler Ashton Ward, sophomore catcher/first baseman Huff and Callahan were all bestowed NFCA All-South Regional accolades.

The 2007 season was the benchmark by which all future Lady Vol teams will be compared as the squad finished 63-8 for a new program-best winning percentage of .887. A third-straight trip to the WCWS ended with Tennessee becoming the first Southeastern Conference program to reach the best-of-three NCAA Championship Series, eventually finishing as national runner-up with two wins over No. 4 Arizona and triumphs against No. 6 Northwestern and No. 7 Texas A&M. UT spent a record 11 consecutive weeks at No. 1 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll, becoming the first SEC school to reach the lofty top ranking in the league's softball history.

Four players were chosen as Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Americans in 2007 as Monica Abbott, Schutzler, India Chiles and Callahan each garnered national honors. Abbott also picked up the prestigious USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year award and the Women's Sports Foundation's "Team Sport Athlete of the Year" trophy after registering a 50-5 record with a 0.68 ERA on the year. Chiles was the SEC's Player of the Year after hitting .459 with 44 stolen bases, while Abbott was the SEC's Pitcher of the Year. The Lady Vols led NCAA Division I in fielding percentage, winning percentage and team ERA in 2007, while picking up its first SEC regular-season title with a 23-4 league mark. For their efforts the Weeklys were chosen as the South Division Speedline Coaches of the Year, for the second time in three seasons, and as the SEC Coaches of the Year. Weekly presided over his 800th career coaching victory on March 28, 2007, when UT downed Western Kentucky, 6-0, in Knoxville, Tenn.

In 2006, the Weeklys guided the Lady Vols to a then-program-best single-season winning percentage of .836 after tallying a 61-12 record, UT's initial Southeastern Conference Tournament title and WCWS victories over #1 UCLA, eventual national champion #3 Arizona and #9 Arizona State. Tennessee also led NCAA Division I in hitting by posting a staggering .342 team batting average. Pupils Sarah Fekete and Abbott led the country in batting average and pitching victories, respectively, while five Lady Vols were chosen first-team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Americans. Solid recruiting and instruction have been at the forefront of the program's quick and dramatic turnaround under the Weeklys.

The tools and chemistry were thought to be in place for success heading into the 2005 campaign, but youth abounded for UT with a roster completely devoid of a single senior. However, the 2005 season proved to be a magical run that saw Tennessee reap its initial NCAA Regional and Super Regional titles and Women's College World Series berth, tie a then-national record with 67 wins, finish third in the nation in both national polls, garner an impressive four Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America selections and break a long-standing national mark for single-season shutouts with 51. A Super Regional sweep over No. 4 Stanford in Palo Alto, Calif., and WCWS victories over perennial national stalwarts Arizona, Alabama and eventual national champion Michigan proved that Tennessee, under the direction of the Weeklys, was officially a power to be reckoned with in the softball world. For their efforts the UT coaches were chosen as the 2005 Speedline South Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

In 2004, the club notched a then school-record 55 victories on its way to its first Eastern Division title in five years and its initial trip to NCAA Regionals since 1999. Ralph and Karen were honored as the SEC Co-Coach of the Year as UT finished with a final ranking of 16th from ESPN.com/USA Softball and boasted its first All-American in freshman hurler Abbott. The 6'3" left-hander registered a staggering 582 K's and 45 victories in her initial campaign at Rocky Top.

Tennessee continued its upward movement in the SEC standings in 2003 and notched then the second-most victories in school history with a 45-25 mark. Despite being overlooked for a spot in the 64-team NCAA field, the Lady Vols made their first appearance at the SEC Tournament in four years and eliminated top-seeded and seventh-ranked Georgia and Auburn before being ousted by Women's College World Series participant Alabama. Most notably, Weekly oversaw the rapid development of catcher/third baseman Kristi Durant, who became the first Lady Vol freshman to be chosen All-SEC. Over the course of the season, the Lady Vols claimed the Golden Panther Invitational hosted by Florida International, the UNLV Tournament and their own First Tennessee Round Robin. Weekly and his wife were able to develop 16 newcomers, including 14 freshmen, into a cohesive unit that came out of nowhere to fall agonizingly short of NAAs.

Year one of the Weeklys' rebuilding effort proved to be a preview of better things to come for the Big Orange, as the tandem directed the squad to a 35-25-1 overall record in 2002 and the club's first winning season since 1999. Having lost the squad's top four hitters from the previous campaign and with their projected pitching ace facing a reduced schedule in the circle due to a torn ligament in her elbow, expectations were minimal. After being picked last in the Eastern Division, Tennessee responded with the best start in the program's seven-year existence at 21-6-1. Although the Orange missed gaining a berth at the Southeastern Conference Tournament, the incoming class for the 2003 campaign was ranked ninth by Student Sports Magazine.

Under Ralph's watchful eye in the batting cages, Adrianna Wilson capped off an outstanding senior campaign by being named to the 2002 NFCA All-South Region team. Chosen to the organization's second unit as a rookie in '99, the Cypress, Calif., native joined Carrie Swinford (1997, 1999) as the lone UT players to reap all-region accolades twice in her career. A first-team choice in her final season, Wilson became UT's initial all-region honoree since 1999. At the time, she was just the third person in the Orange and White's existence on the diamond to make the first team, as Buffy Walker and Lisa Wyatt each achieved the feat in 1997.

On June 19, 2001, University of Tennessee Women's Athletics Director Joan Cronan charted a new course for the Lady Vol softball program when she announced the Weeklys as the program's co-head coaches. Since that day, the duo has worked tirelessly toward building UT's reputation on the diamond. "What they accomplished during their tenure at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, including five regular-season Southern Conference championships and five SoCon Tournament titles, speaks for itself," said Cronan. "They have a passion for the sport of softball and a love for the state of Tennessee that will be an asset as they attempt to turn things around. This combination should help take our program to the next level in collegiate softball."

The Weeklys arrived in Knoxville after shaping Chattanooga's softball team into one of the top programs in the South upon their arrival in 1995. The tandem piloted the Lady Mocs to consecutive NCAA appearances in 2000 and 2001, the first two auto-

LADY VOL CO-HEAD COACH

Weekly, who is nationally and internationally recognized for his skills as a hitting clinician, was responsible for a variety of national team duties, including the general management of USA Softball's elite level international programs for both men and women. He also served as a liaison to the ASA National Team Selection Committee that is responsible for the elite level selection process for Olympic, Pan American Games and other USA Softball National Teams. In the summer of 2009 Weekly accepted a position on the USA Softball Women's National Teams Selection Committee where he will again assist in choosing the members to the prestigious U.S. softball squads from 2010-12.

Between 1998 and 2001, Weekly worked closely with the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC) to ensure that USA Softball received adequate funding for its programs and was fully equipped with the technical assistance it needed. He was also instrumental in securing the funding for the development of a state-of-the-art practice facility at the ARCO Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, Calif. This facility has been used by all of the USA Softball National Teams and will continue to be an integral part of USA Softball's success.

Success has followed Weekly throughout his career, especially as a coach for USA Softball Women's National Teams. Weekly served as the hitting coach and Team Leader for the 2000 U.S. Olympic team that claimed its second-consecutive gold medal in Sydney, Australia. Earlier, he served as the hitting and third-base coach for the U.S. contingent that brought home the gold at the '96 Summer Games in Atlanta.

Under his direction, USA Softball captured the gold medal at the 1994 Pan American Games qualifier in Guatemala. He was an assistant on teams that won additional gold medals at the 1994 World Games in Nova Scotia, the 1995 Pan American Games in Argentina, the 1996 South Pacific Classic in Australia, the 1997 Canada Cup, the 1999 Pan American Games in Winnipeg, Canada, the inaugural 1999 America Cup in San Diego, the 2000 European Championship in Rome, Italy, and the 2001 Hawaii Cup in Honolulu.

As a coach and National Teams Director for USA Softball, Weekly has appeared in 13 international tournaments, winning a gold medal every time. His international coaching record is a sterling 130-15 (.897). He is the only person in collegiate softball to have served on a pair of Olympic gold-medal-winning coaching staffs and to have claimed two national championships as a head coach. He also directed all facets of the USA Men's National Team from 1999-2001.

He has developed High Performance Seminars funded by the USOC to establish consistent coaching philosophies for youth coaches throughout the world. In addition, Weekly has produced several instructional tapes through USA Softball, including "Fundamentals for Future Champions." In December of 2006, Ralph and co-head coach Karen Weekly released a new instructional video entitled "Hitting the Tennessee Way."

He guided the women's East team to a gold medal at the 1994 U.S. Olympic Festival in St. Louis, Mo., one year after taking the North team to a bronze medal in the Festival held in San Antonio, Texas.

Previously, Weekly was the head coach at Pacific Lutheran in Tacoma, Wash., from 1986-94, where he compiled a 310-93 (.769) record and became one of the most successful coaches in NAIA history. In his nine years at PLU, his teams made eight trips to the NAIA Tournament, returning with national championships in 1988 and 1992, and a second-place finish in 1990. His 1991 team was ranked first in the country throughout the season.

Weekly was named the National Softball Coaches Association (NSCA) Small College Coach of the Year in 1993 and was a two-time NAIA National Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1992. Incredibly, he was chosen as the NAIA West Region Coach of the Year eight times in a nine-year span, covering the 1986, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1993 and 1994 campaigns.

During the fall, he also served as an assistant football coach at PLU from 1986-93 under legendmatic NCAA Regional berths ever offered to the Southern Conference champion.

In 2001, UTC sported an overall record of 49-18 and was an impressive 4-1 against SEC programs. The Weeklys inherited a Lady Vol squad that finished 24-35 overall and 9-20 in league activity, missing the SEC Tournament for a second-straight campaign.

After accepting the co-head coaching position at UT, Ralph Weekly announced in August 2001 that he would be stepping down from his post as USA Softball National Teams Director, a position he had held since 1999. Weekly began his administrative stint with USA Softball in August 1998 after taking a leave of absence as head coach at Chattanooga.

any head coach Frosty Westerling. During his time spent working on the gridiron, he helped the Lutes to three national title games and a pair of NAIA national championships (1987 & 1993). In his last year he was able to share the title-winning experience with his son Marc Weekly, an All-American quarterback and a player responsible for 10,977 yards of career total offense.

Weekly began his coaching career in the United States Air Force, where he accumulated many championships at a variety of levels. He piloted squads to three All-Armed Forces World Titles, seven state titles at the United States Softball Association (USSA) level and three USSA Western World Championships.

He has served as the chairperson of the Gatorade High School Player of the Year Selection Committee and has published numerous articles in softball magazines and journals. In addition, Weekly has been a featured speaker at the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) national convention and at various national baseball and softball clinics around the nation. He currently serves as the co-director of the Cherry Hill, N.J., Coaches Clinic which is the largest such event in the country.

Weekly is the founder and director of National Hitting Camps, where he has taught thousands of youths in all 48 of the contiguous states and throughout Canada over the past 20 years. He was also the Director of ASA Gold Medal Camps that featured hands-on training from U.S. Olympic staff and players from 1996-2001. Well-respected internationally as a clinician, he has represented the USA in clinics in Argentina, Australia, Canada, China, Italy, New Zealand and Taiwan.

Having retired from the United States Air Force in 1986, Weekly was the commander of the Air Force Office of Special Investigations at McChord Air Force Base in Washington, D.C., in his last duty assignment. He was awarded the Bronze Star and Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry for outstanding service in the Vietnam War.

Weekly is a 1973 graduate of Arizona State University and has completed course work for a master's degree in international relations from Pacific Lutheran.

LADY VOL CO-HEAD COACH

KAREN WEEKLY Ninth Year at Tennessee

Karen Weekly enters her ninth season with her husband Ralph at the helm of the Tennessee Lady Volunteer softball program. Guiding UT to a program-best 416 victories, since arriving to helm the program prior to the 2002 season, is concrete proof that tireless recruiting and solid coaching by the experienced Weeklys and their staff have provided huge dividends to the Big Orange softball program.

During her stay at Tennessee, Weekly has helped the program to its initial three Women's College World Series berths (2005, 2006, 2007), three straight top-three national finishes, six consecutive NCAA Regional appearances, seven straight Southeastern Conference Tournament bids and the school's initial SEC regular season (2007) and SEC Tournament Championships (2006). Under her leadership the Big Orange became the first league school to reach No. 1 in the national polls, staying at the top of the ESPN.com/USA Softball rankings for a record 11 consecutive weeks, and first in the league to advance to the WCWS best-of-three Championship Series. Seven Lady Vols have received a total of 16 Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-America nods since 2004, while the team has combined to reap 25 Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Region selections and 29 All-SEC or SEC All-Freshman choices since 2002. In addition, nine of her pupils have gone on to be drafted or participate with the National Pro Fastpitch League (NPF), most recently, Lillian Hammond with the Philadelphia Force.

The co-head coaching duo also believes in its players performing just as well in the classroom as Tennessee softball student-athletes have reaped a staggering six first-team and 10 overall ESPN the Magazine Academic All-Americans and 12 Academic All-District IV selections since 2005. UT boasted the two-time University Division Academic All-American of the Year in Lindsay Schutlzler (2006, 2007) and tallied three Academic All-Americans in the same season in both 2007 and 2009.

This past year Tennessee improved its string of consecutive 40+win seasons to seven dating back to the Weeklys initial season at the helm in 2002. Despite a loss in the NCAA Knoxville Regional title game for the second straight year, UT managed a 40-18-1 overall mark, hit .304 as a team, posted a 12-12-1 record in league action and reached the NCAA Field of 64 for the sixth season in a row.

Junior catcher/first baseman Tiffany Huff became the program's seventh all-time All-American by being chosen to the Louisville Slugger/NFCA Second-Team. The Saugus, Calif., native set personal single-season marks for batting average (.399), runs (48), hits (63), home runs (eight), RBIs (67) and both slugging and on-base percentage on her way to being selected as a Top 25 finalist for the USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year award. Junior center fielder Kelly Grieve broke the school's sophomore stolen base record with 39 thefts in 42 attempts and hit .393 overall, while freshman third baseman Jessica Spigner broke a 13-year old freshman school standard for home runs by blasting 14 as each stand-out reaped NFCA All-Southeast Region honors. Freshman hurler Cat Hosfield tallied a 28-13 record with 221 K's from the circle in being chosen SEC All-Freshman. On the academic front senior left fielder Lillian Hammond was named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year for softball, while Hammond, Huff and sophomore first baseman/catcher Jen Lapicki were tabbed to the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America first, second and third teams, respectively.

Success continued during the 2008 campaign as the Weeklys guided the Big Orange to a fifth consecutive 50-win season and a fifth straight berth into the NCAA Tournament Field of 64. UT advanced to the championship game of its home-hosted NCAA Regional but dropped a 4-2 decision to eventual WCWS-participant Virginia Tech.

Under their tutelage, senior third baseman Tonya Callahan (.465 avg., 62 RBIs) broke the school record for single-season home runs with 16 on the way to being chosen as Tennessee's second consecutive SEC Player of the Year and a finalist for both the 2008 USA Softball National Player of the Year trophy and the Honda Award for Softball while reaping UT's 15th Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America honor since 2004. Senior short-stop Kenora Posey and freshman infielder Lapicki each earned All-SEC accolades. Junior outfielder Hammond and senior pitcher Megan Rhodes continued the Lady Vol academic tradition by being tabbed as ESPN the Magazine Academic All-Americans. Hammond, freshman hurler Ashton Ward, sophomore catcher/first baseman Huff and Callahan were all bestowed NFCA All-South Region accolades. Karen's slap-hitting standouts, Hammond and Posey, were responsible for .362 and .349 averages, respectively, 96 total runs scored and 67 combined stolen bases.

The 2007 season was the benchmark by which all future Lady Vol teams will be compared as the squad finished at 63-8 for a new program-best win percentage of .887. A third-straight trip to the Women's College World Series ended with Tennessee becoming the first Southeastern Conference program to reach the best-of-three NCAA Championship Series, eventually finishing as national runner-up with two wins over No. 4 Arizona and single triumphs against No. 6 Northwestern and No. 7 Texas A&M. UT spent a record 11 consecutive weeks at No. 1 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll, becoming the first SEC school to reach the lofty top ranking in the league's softball history.

Four players were chosen as Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-Americans in 2007 as Monica Abbott, Schutlzler, India Chiles and Callahan each garnered national honors. Abbott also picked up the prestigious USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year award and the Women's Sports Foundation's Team Sport Athlete of the Year trophy after going 50-5 with a 0.68 ERA on the year. Chiles was the SEC's Player of the Year after hitting .459 with 44 stolen bases. The Lady Vols led NCAA Division I in fielding percentage, winning percentage and team ERA in 2007 while picking up its first SEC regular-season title. For their efforts the Weeklys were South Division Speedline Coaches of the Year, for the second time in three seasons, and as the SEC Coaches of the Year. Karen Weekly also presided over her 500th career coaching victory on February 24, 2007, when UT downed Michigan State, 3-0, at the Palm Springs Classic in Cathedral City, Calif.

Weekly's tutelage helped guide Tennessee to a then-program-best .836 winning percentage in 2006 at 61-12 overall, a No. 2 national ranking during the regular season and a second consecutive trip to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla., where UT finished third nationally and downed #1 UCLA, #3 Arizona and #9 Arizona State. One of her slap-hitting pupils, senior outfielder Sarah Fekete, led NCAA Division I in batting average at a staggering .500 (110-of-220) as the UT squad combined to lead the country in team hitting at .342. In all three of the top five hitters in the Southeastern Conference by average in 2006 learned under the watchful eye of Karen and co-head coach Ralph Weekly, as Fekete, Chiles (.437) and Schutlzler (.409) gave the league statistics a definitive orange tint. Five members of Weekly's team also were selected as first-team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Americans to lead NCAA Division I in that category.

UT also achieved another program-first in '06 as the Orange & White raced through the field at the annual Southeastern Conference Tournament to pick up its first league tournament title with a 3-0 victory over #12 LSU at the UGA Softball Stadium in Athens, Ga. UT hosted the NCAA Regional round at home for the second straight year and added the Super Regionals to the Tyson Park slate after roaring through the opening round a perfect 3-0. The Big Orange faced a serious challenge as defending national champion Michigan ventured to Knoxville for the best-of-three Super Regional series. After downing UM 5-3 and then dropping a tough 5-1 decision to the Wolverines in game two, UT prevailed 1-0 in the finale to send the Orange and White back to the WCWS. Throughout the Weeklys tenure at Tennessee, the Big Orange have been known for tremendous speed, skyrocketing batting averages and outstanding fielding percentages, as UT led the nation in the latter category in both 2004, 2005 and 2007, while finishing second in 2009.

The Orange's and White rapid climb from a 24-win program in 2001 to a national power reached an early peak during a magical 2005 run to a third-place finish at the Women's College World Series and a national record-tying 67 victories. UT led the nation in fielding percentage (.982), shutouts (51), strikeouts (787) and victories (67) while setting program marks for runs scored (404), hits (678) and stolen bases (127) and tying the single-season record for home runs (52). Tennessee's regular-season efforts permitted the program the opportunity to host the NCAA Regionals at Tyson Park for the first time in UT history. The home field advantage paid dividends as the Lady Vols went 3-0 to advance to NCAA Super Regionals in Palo Alto, Calif., against Stanford. A two-game road sweep over the powerful Pac-10's Cardinal granted Tennessee its first trip to the WCWS. For their efforts the coaches were chosen as the Speedline South Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

The Weeklys were honored as the Southeastern Conference Coaches of the Year by their peers after directing UT to its first Eastern Division championship since 1999 during the 2004 campaign. The Orange was awarded the second seed at NCAA Regional No. 6 in Ann Arbor, Mich., and collected its first two victories in just the program's second trip to NAAs. The Lady Vols sported an overall mark of 55-16 and captured tournament titles at their own Lady Vol Classic, the New Mexico State Kick-Off Invitational, the Paradise Classic hosted by the University of Hawaii and the State-Line Classic. Tennessee also reached the semifinal round of the SEC Tournament for the second straight time.

UT continued to climb the ladder of success in 2003, capturing three tournaments and posting several victories over ranked opponents, including league rivals Alabama, Georgia, LSU and South Carolina. Perhaps the most impressive breakthrough occurred as the Lady Vols secured the sixth seed for the Southeastern Conference Tournament and matched their top performance at the event with a couple of triumphs while facing elimination. The Orange were involved in a record four extra-inning tilts during their journey to Plant City, Fla., and managed to oust Auburn and the league's number-one team, Georgia, after dropping regular-season series to the Tigers and Bulldogs.

Continued evidence of the team's progress was shown by a 34-point increase in batting average from 2002 to 2003 under the Weekly regime and a healthy boost to the squad's power numbers, including the most total bases (787), hits (543), runs batted in (280), runs (310) and doubles (102) since the 1999 edition slugged its way to the Eastern Division crown and NCAA Regional No. 3 in Seattle, Wash.

In their debut campaign, the Weeklys presided over the biggest turnaround in UT's softball history, as the team rebounded from a lackluster 24-35 effort to finish 35-25-1 in 2002. The Lady Vols showed marked improvement in every area – offensively, defensively and in the pitching circle. Despite just one returning starter in her natural position, the rest of the orange-clad players enjoyed a tremendous upswing under the Weeklys' tutelage. In fact, UT registered a team batting average that was 40 points higher than the previous season and recorded a school-record fielding percentage of .965 after shaving a massive 44 errors off its '01 figure. In addition, the club's offensive statistics jumped across the board, including a school-record-tying 52 home runs.

Upon arriving in Knoxville, Weekly brought a wealth of experience gained from being an All-America softball player at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Wash., a national title-winning assistant coach at PLU in 1988 and 1992, and a championship head coach at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga for five seasons. During her tenure, the Lady Mocs claimed five straight Southern Conference regular-season trophies, four SoCon Tournament plaques and the team made successive appearances at the 2000 and 2001 NCAA Regionals.

After Karen served as an assistant coach at UTC in 1995 and 1996, the Weeklys combined their efforts to direct the Lady Mocs to the top of the SoCon in their first two campaigns in charge of the program together. The 1997 season featured an overall record of 32-19, while the '98 edition registered a school-record 47 victories and three players earned first-team All-South Region accolades.

While Ralph was on a leave of absence from Chattanooga to handle Olympic duties in 1999 and 2000, the Lady Mocs' program continued to make steady improvement under Karen's tutelage. In her initial season as head coach in '99, UTC led the SoCon with a .303 batting average and a 1.47 earned run average en route to a school-best 48-18 overall record to go along with a spotless 16-0 mark in regular-season conference play. Weekly guided a record six individuals to first-team All-SoCon accolades that season and Chattanooga became the inaugural team to sweep all of the postseason honors issued by the conference office.

In 2000, the Lady Mocs were 47-27 and earned the program's first NCAA Regional berth by winning three-straight games after a loss to Furman to take the SoCon Tourney and secure the initial automatic bid for the conference into the 48-team regional field. Sent to the No. 1 Regional held in Seattle, Wash., the Mocs fell to Mississippi State, 6-1, before bouncing back to knock out Army, 6-4, in nine innings. The squad would later be eliminated at the event after suffering a 2-1 defeat to nationally-ranked Utah. UTC's pitching staff was the key to its success, sporting an impressive 1.58 earned run average with every hurler having an ERA of 1.80 or lower.

In rolling to a 49-18 overall mark in 2001, including four wins in five outings against SEC competition and a triumph over then-third-ranked Alabama in Tuscaloosa, the Weeklys helped the Mocs to another NCAA appearance following Southern Conference regular-season and post-season crowns. Six more Lady Mocs etched their names on the first-team all-league list after UTC racked up an 18-2 ledger in SoCon play and the Weeklys were selected as league Coaches of the Year.

Karen was Ralph's top assistant at Pacific Lutheran from 1987-94 after earning her bachelor's degree in history and political science magna cum laude from the University in 1987. The duo spearheaded the Lutes to NAIA national championships in 1988 and 1992 and a runner-up finish in 1990.

At PLU, where she was known as Karen Kvale, Weekly excelled as a student-athlete. She was named Female Athlete of the Year and led NAIA hitters with a .440 batting average during her All-America senior season. Her skills were not limited to the diamond either, as she was a three-year starter on the basketball team.

With a 3.8 grade point average, Weekly was a two-time Academic All-American, garnering honors in 1986 and 1987. In both '85 and '86, she was the recipient of the prestigious Pacific Lutheran University Undergraduate Fellow/Division of Social Sciences Award.

She later earned her juris doctor degree from the University of Washington's School of Law in 1990. At Chattanooga, Weekly was an assistant professor in the College of Business Administration from August 1995 until May 2001, where she taught a course entitled the "Legal Environment of Business." Between 1996-99 she served on the UTC Faculty Committee on Student Rating of Faculty Instruction. In addition, Weekly was an administrative law judge and a member of the school's Gender Equity Committee from 1996 until her departure from Chattanooga. She remains an administrative law judge at the University of Tennessee.

Previously, she was an associate attorney at Grant, Konvalinka & Harrison in Chattanooga from November 1994 to August 1995 after working in a similar capacity at Williams, Kastner & Gibbs in Seattle from September 1990 through November 1994.

Weekly holds memberships in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) and the Academy of Legal Studies in Business. She is a member of the American Bar Association and is admitted to practice law in the states of Tennessee and Washington.

Having traveled all over the nation to spread her knowledge about the sport, Weekly has been a co-owner and director of National Hitting Camps since 1988. She also has been a lead instructor at ASA Elite Hitting Camps in Midland, Texas, and in Oklahoma City, Okla., and has been a featured speaker at several coaching clinics around the country. She has spoken at the "Be the Best You Are" clinic in Cherry Hill, N.J., during each of the last six years, covering such topics as developing power and bat speed, the short game, scouting opponents and developing a rapport between the coach and players.

In December 2007, Weekly released a video entitled "The Tennessee Slap Attack," an instructional tape teaching the fundamentals of slap-hitting.

LADY VOL ASSISTANT COACH

MARTY MCDANIEL Sixth Year at Tennessee

Lauded for his teaching ability and his overall knowledge of the game, Marty McDaniel continues to provide his outgoing personality and boundless enthusiasm to the Lady Vol softball program as a sixth-year assistant coach on the staff of Tennessee Co-Head Coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly. A former head coach at Division II Armstrong Atlantic State University (Ga.), McDaniel's experience as both a coach and as a men's fastpitch veteran has been invaluable to the UT efforts.

During his time on the UT softball staff, McDaniel has been vital to the program's stunning success. His pitching pupils such as standouts Monica Abbott, Megan Rhodes, Ashton Ward and Cat Hosfield have helped extend Tennessee's streak of 40+ win seasons to seven venturing into the 2010 campaign.

During his five years at Tennessee (2005-09) his staffs have led the nation in ERA and strikeouts (2007), set a national record for shutouts (51 in 2005) and helped the Big Orange to 281 total victories, an average of 56 wins-per-season.

Rookie righthander Hosfield led the way for the Lady Vol pitching crew in 2009, posting a 28-13 record with six solo shutouts and 221 strikeouts in 257.1 innings of work. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., product tied for 12th in NCAA Division I in wins, second in the Southeastern Conference in victories, rated fourth in strikeouts (221) and 11th in opposing batting average (.222), while posting high-profile victories over No. 6 Oklahoma (twice), No. 15 Massachusetts, No. 18 LSU (twice), No. 25 Kansas and Auburn (three wins). Included in her SEC All-Freshman campaign was a hard-fought 2-1 defeat to eventual national champion Washington, during which Hosfield allowed just two runs on seven hits in a duel with 2009 USA Softball National Player of the Year Danielle Lavrie. Forced to look further into the staff as the long '09 season wore on, he helped senior Danielle Pieroni to an 8-3 mark over 57 innings of work after she entered the year with all of 22.2 frames of collegiate pitching experience. He even helped freshman Jessica Spigner, who hadn't thrown in a pitch in nearly a year, contribute 16 innings, including a big 6-3 win at No. 8 Georgia.

His charges in the circle helped guide Tennessee to a fifth consecutive 50-win campaign in 2008 while posting 17 shutouts, a 2.10 team ERA and 431 K's in 437.0 innings of work. Freshman righthander Ward spent the season among the SEC win leaders and finished 25th in NCAA Division I in victories by going 27-5 overall with a team-best 1.88 ERA and 187 strikeouts. Senior Rhodes was responsible for 23 triumphs, 213.1 innings of work and 233 K's. The Nashville, Tenn., native concluded her time wearing the Orange & White firmly entrenched in the Lady Vol top four in career wins, K's, shutouts, ERA, appearances, starts and winning percentage. Junior Pieroni demonstrated improvement in the circle during 2008 by working 19.1 frames and highlighting her year with 2.2 innings of scoreless relief in an exhibition contest against the U.S. Olympic Softball Team.

During the 2007 drive to a runner-up national finish at the Women's College World Series, McDaniel helped the Tennessee staff to an NCAA-best 0.88 ERA to go along with 63 wins, 41 shutouts and a national single-season record strikeout-per-seven-inning ratio of 13.55 on 910 combined K's over 470 innings of work. His pupils in the circle, Abbott and Rhodes, finished first (14.1) and fourth (11.7), respectively, in K-per-seven-inning ratio in the country. Senior Abbott led the way in single-season strikeouts with an NCAA record 724. She completed her stay in the Orange & White as the NCAA career leader in wins (189), strikeouts (2,440), shutouts (112), appearances (253) and innings pitched (1,448.0). Rhodes struck out 186 batters over just 111.2 frames of work while going 13-3 with a 1.50 ERA. The duo also combined to hurl eight no-hitters, including three perfect games (two for Abbott, one for Rhodes). For his efforts, he was named as part of Speedline's South Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the second time in three seasons (2005).

His pitching staff continued their stellar work in the circle during UT's run to the WCWS in 2006 by leading the league in ERA at 1.12 with a 61-12 overall record, 37 shutouts and 682 strikeouts. Junior All-American Abbott led the nation in victories with 44 and broke the SEC career records for K's and triumphs during the regular-season after posting a 44-10 mark with 531 K's. Sophomore Rhodes continued her rapid improvement by going 17-2 overall with a 1.40 ERA and 148 strikeouts in just 120 innings of work. The staff hurled three consecutive no-hitters during the title-winning USF adidas Tournament and almost got a fourth straight as a bloop single by UMass in the fifth inning of the championship contest broke up the amazing bid.

Working primarily with the pitching and catching positions during the record-setting 2005 campaign, McDaniel instructed a group of hurlers that broke a long-standing national record for shutouts with 51 blankings while helping guide UT's initial advance into the WCWS. The first-year McDaniel's charges combined for 67 victories in the circle with an overall ERA of 0.79 and 787 strikeouts in 547.0 innings. Sophomore Abbott became the program's first two-time, first-team All-American after leading the nation in victories (50), shutouts (34), strikeouts (603) and innings pitched (392.0). Rookie pitcher Rhodes posted 14 victories and 125 K's on her way to SEC All-Freshman honors.

Granted the responsibility of building the softball program at Armstrong

Atlantic State (Ga.) from its infancy in 1998, McDaniel turned the AASU varsity program into a winning machine that captured its initial Peach Belt Conference championship in 2000, garnered four NCAA Championship berths (2000, 2002, 2003, 2004) and achieved a No. 1 ranking in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) poll during the 2000 campaign. His conference-winning squad in 2000 picked up an impressive 51 victories against just seven losses and registered an 18-2 league mark in PBC play.

With the assistance of four All-Americans, McDaniel's 2004 AASU squad advanced all the way to the South Atlantic Regional. Record-setting senior pitcher Katya Eronina picked up her second-consecutive first-team NFCA All-America honor while a pair of seniors, Stacey Richardson and Kissy Stepanova, garnered second-team All-America awards. Junior second baseman Stacy Oliver was selected as a third-team All-American.

During the 2003 campaign, AASU utilized the pitching of NFCA All-America Eronina, the Division II leader in earned-run-average, to advance to the South Atlantic Region final. The Pirates achieved a final ranking of 16th and completed the season at 41-13 overall.

All-Americans Annie Sells and Richardson helped guide the 2002 version of McDaniel's Pirates to a No. 2-seeding at the South Atlantic Regional and another final ranking of 16th. AASU registered the best won-lost record in Division II with a 40-7 mark while Richardson was the NCAA's DII home run champion with a school-record 16 round-trippers. The squad finished with a 15-2 mark for a second-place finish in the Peach Belt Conference.

The 2000 South Atlantic Coach of the Year, McDaniel has had experience on the Weeklys' staff before as he joined AASU from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. During his two-plus year stint on the staff of then Head Coach Ralph Weekly, also a U.S. Olympic Assistant Coach, Chattanooga won two Southern Conference Championships.

A native of Chattanooga, Tenn., McDaniel received his Bachelor of Science degree from Carson-Newman College in 1989 and also assisted with the baseball team as a coach for two seasons. As a top-rated pitcher, McDaniel has made numerous all-region squads in the sport of men's fastpitch softball.

During 2008 he was honored in a ceremony at Armstrong Atlantic State as a coaching inductee into the softball program's "Wall of Fame."

McDaniel and his wife, the former Kelly Stewart, currently reside in Knoxville, Tenn. The pair have a child, Lindsey Jo, who was born during the 2005 softball campaign.

MARC WEEKLY
Volunteer Assistant Softball Coach
Sixth Year at Tennessee

Marc Weekly begins his sixth season as a member of the University of Tennessee Lady Vol softball staff in the capacity of a volunteer coach after working with Co-Head Coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly in camps and summer clinics for over 15 years. He will work primarily with UT's catchers and outfielders and will also assist with hitting instruction.

Weekly started at quarterback at Pacific Lutheran University for four seasons (1990-93) during which he led the Lutes to four NAIA Division-II national playoff appearances and two national championship games. In 1993, he guided PLU to the program's third NAIA Division-II National Championship and was named the Most Valuable Player in each contest during the squad's playoff run. The 1993 first-team All-American was accountable for six touchdowns in the title tilt, throwing for four scores and running for two more in a 50-20 rout of Westminster, Pa., in Portland, Ore. Weekly continues to hold season and career records at Pacific Lutheran for most passing yards (3,722 in 1993; 9,737 from 1990-93), most touchdown passes (46 in 1993; 115 from 1990-93) and most total offense (4,065 yds. in 1993; 10,977 from 1990-93).

Following his collegiate experience at Pacific Lutheran, Weekly, a former Associated Press Blue Chip Pick in baseball, was offered a minor league contract as a catcher in the Seattle Mariners organization, but turned it down to sign a deal with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian Football League (CFL). After two years with the Eskimos, he enrolled at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga in the master's program and served as a football graduate assistant for two years working with the UTC quarterbacks and kickers.

A 2004 inductee in the Pacific Lutheran University Athletic Hall of Fame, Weekly holds a bachelor's degree from PLU and a master's degree from Chattanooga. He currently resides in Seymour, Tenn., with his wife Cheryl and three children: Jake, Regan and Garrett.

WHAT THE PLAYERS SAY ABOUT RALPH AND KAREN WEEKLY

"Ralph and Karen helped me develop as a player on and off the field. I love their drive and concern for their players. They really want what is best for their players, in life, not just athletically. They are also great at listening to players' opinions and ideas. You know they are going to do everything possible to prepare the team for success." -- Monica Abbott (class of 2007)

"One of the reasons why I enjoyed playing for the Weeklys is because they helped us keep our priorities in order. School always came before softball. If it was crunch time at school and the team needed a little time away from softball to get work done, Ralph and Karen were always understanding. Class, tutors, make-up tests and meetings with teachers were always a priority. At UT, we always had a busy travel schedule so it was very important to our team that our coaches supported us as student-athletes." -- Lindsay Schutzler (class of 2007)

"The thing that I enjoyed most about playing for the Weeklys was how much they cared about us as people before athletes. It was very clear that our success in life was their first priority. They take on an approach as coaches that gears their players towards becoming productive members of society. They pushed us hard and instilled disciplinary practices in us that others admire. They truly respect their players' goals in life as well as in our sport and do everything in their power to help you reach them. The four years I spent with the Weeklys are by far the most memorable ones thus far. Thank you does not say enough for the appreciation I feel towards them!" -- India Chiles (class of 2007)

"The Weeklys strive for perfection. Whether it's offense or defense they know fundamentals inside and out. I love playing for them because they want to win and are very up front with the players and what they expect out of the team. I will always appreciate them for believing in me and giving me an opportunity to show what I can do. I respect them because they have helped me become a better person and player, and I am happy that they consider me a part of their family." -- Kenora Posey (class of 2008)

"The Weeklys have not only taught me lessons on the field, but the life lessons I have learned from them off the field are even more important and something I may never have gained. They have helped me grow so much as both an athlete and a person during my time at Tennessee." -- Tonya Callahan (class of 2008)

"My experience playing for Ralph and Karen is something I will always treasure. I learned so many valuable lessons about commitment, dedication and persevering toward a common goal. They gave me an opportunity to compete at the highest level and believed in me. They were more than coaches on the field . . . they always had time to listen and give me valuable advice off the field. I will always be grateful for their mentoring and lifetime friendship." -- Lauren Mattox (class of 2004)

Her responsibilities with the Lady Vols include soccer, swimming & diving, golf, and rowing. She will also assist with basketball and softball. In addition to her responsibilities with the Lady Vols, Rachel oversees the Tennessee Student Rewards Program.

TYLER SADLER
Manager

Tyler Sadler enters his third season with the Lady Vol softball program as a manager, assisting with all aspects of the Tennessee program. He obtained his bachelor's degree during the fall of 2009 in sport management with a minor in business. He is now pursuing his master's degree in sport management. Sadler is a native of Nashville, Tenn., where he graduated from Nashville Christian High School in 2006.

STEPHANIE SAYNE
Director of Softball Operations

A four-year letterwinner between 2000-03 who earned the distinction of becoming the first Lady Vol softball player from Knoxville on the roster, Stephanie (Humphrey) Sayne begins her first year on the Tennessee staff as the Director of Softball Operations after serving several years for the Weeklys as an volunteer assistant with Lady Vol coaching and development.

The right-hander closed her career in '03 by fashioning an 18-5 mark in the circle and putting together a then school-record 16-game winning streak between Feb. 8 and April 18. Twice chosen as the Southeastern Conference's Pitcher of the Week in 2003, Sayne concluded her career as UT's all-time leader in strikeouts (596), saves (10) and no-hitters (two). She now stands third on the list for career strikeouts with 626, third in total appearances (147), innings pitched (626.2), games started (96) and fourth in wins (57) and solo shutouts (16). The Knoxville, Tenn., native also rates fifth in complete games (52) and ninth in both winning percentage (.588 with a 57-40 mark) and earned run average (2.44).

A two-time Academic All-District IV selection (2002, 2003) and four-time Academic All-SEC and NFCA Scholar-Athlete Team choice, Sayne completed her bachelor's degree in microbiology at Tennessee and in May 2006 finished work on a master's degree in sport management. She is married to UT graduate Shannon Sayne.

AMANDA SHIELDS, ATC/L, EMT-IV
Assistant Athletic Trainer

Amanda Shields is in her seventh year on the Lady Vol athletic training staff and was elevated to full-time status in August 2004. Her primary responsibility will be working with the softball program.

Shields graduated from the College of Charleston in 2003 with degrees in athletic training and physical education & health with an emphasis in exercise science. During the 1998-99 softball season at C of C, she spent time as a pitcher and first baseman for the Cougars.

Shields also has coaching experience after serving as the softball (two years) and volleyball (one year) coach at James Island Christian School in Charleston, S.C., during her collegiate career. In 2000, her softball squad at J.I.C.S. won a state championship, and Shields was honored as the South Carolina High School Coach of the Year.

In addition, she served as an athletic training intern at North Greenville College in Greenville, S.C., during the spring of 2003. The Chesnee, S.C., native graduated from UT in December 2004 with a master's degree in safety with an emphasis in emergency management. Shields is also a fully licensed EMT.

ASHLEY WHEELIS
Thornton Center

Ashley Wheelis began working at the Thornton Center as an intern in the fall of 2003. She also worked as a graduate assistant and is now a full-time counselor. A native of Atlanta, Ga., Ashley holds both a Bachelor of Science in Education (Major: Sport Management) and a Master of Science (Major: College Student Personnel) from the University of Tennessee. Ashley is starting her fourth year with softball, also works with baseball and serves as the tutor coordinator.

JOE WHITNEY, Ph.D.
Director of Mental Training

Now in his 15th year with Lady Vol athletics, Joe Whitney oversees the provision of mental training services to all UT athletes and teams. A 1982 graduate of Springfield College, he coached basketball and football in New York City for 13 years before leaving coaching to pursue graduate study in sport psychology.

Whitney obtained a master's degree from the University of Virginia in 1997 and a Ph.D. from the University of Tennessee in 2000. He served as a graduate assistant and sport psychology consultant at UT before being named director of mental training in January 2002.

Another strong student in this year's Lady Vol freshman class, Taylor was her school's valedictorian, the Beta Club President, a member of Who's Who at Haywood H.S., the recipient of a U.S. Army Reserve National Scholar Athlete Award and was on the Academic Decathlon team...She also participated with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, the French Club, the Biology Club, Youth Leadership and was on the Junior InSouth Bank Board...Taylor was selected as Miss Haywood High School, was chosen as a Tennessee Girls' State representative and served as the junior and senior class vice president.

PERSONAL: Enrolled in the College of Education, Health and Human Sciences at UT...Narrowed her final college choices down to Middle Tennessee, Tennessee Tech and Chattanooga before deciding to become a Lady Vol...Lists hitting a home run as a freshman in her first game at the state tournament as her biggest thrill to date in the sport of softball...Cites current Indianapolis Colts and former Vol quarterback Peyton Manning as her biggest sports influence because of his outstanding character and achievement...Taylor's grandfather Bill Taylor played football for General Robert Neyland at UT, and her father is an alum of the University of Tennessee...Has two brothers, Elliott Hazlerig, 32, and Will Taylor, 16...Leah Elizabeth Taylor was born March 12, 1991, in Jackson, Tenn....Her parents are Barrow and Julie Taylor.

ANDI WILLIAMSON

5-8 -- FRESHMAN -- P
HARTS, W. VA. --
CHAPMANVILLE REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL

THE WEEKLYS ON WILLIAMSON: "A strong, young pitcher who has improved immensely in her few months at Tennessee. Andi is hard-nosed and dedicated and possesses the ability to throw quality innings for us in the future."

HIGH SCHOOL: Williamson participated in softball, basketball and cheer-leading at Chapmanville Regional H.S., in Harts W. Va....A 2009 EA Sports First-Team Softball All-American and the 2009 Gatorade/RISE Magazine West Virginia State Player of the Year, she helped lead her high school softball team to West Virginia State Class AA Championships in 2007 and 2009 and a 2006 runner-up finish while tallying over 1,000 career strikeouts...During her senior campaign, the '09 West Virginia Sports Writers State Player of the Year was 23-1 from the circle with a 0.09 ERA, 356 strikeouts in 153 innings of work and broke a state record by recording 33 K's in a 13-inning victory...She also hit .390 at the plate with four homers and 30 RBIs...Was tabbed as a senior as an ESPN/RISE East Coast Player of the Week...The 5-8 hurler was a four-time First-Team All-State selection and a three-time All-Cardinal Conference choice in softball...On the hardwood Williamson reaped a pair of All-Cardinal Conference nods (2007, 2008)...She also participated in gymnastics...Played ASA Gold summer ball for the West Virginia Diamond Dusters...A terrific student at Chapmanville Regional H.S., Williamson finished her interscholastic career as the school's valedictorian, was a member of the National Honor Society and the senior class vice president...She was honored as the 2008/2009 Chapmanville Regional Homecoming Queen.

PERSONAL: Enrolled in the College of Arts & Sciences at UT...Chose to come to Tennessee out of a group of schools that included Georgia, Virginia Tech and Marshall...Lists making it to the state championship game in softball in three of four years and winning it twice (2007, 2009) as her biggest thrills to date in the sport...Her dad Andy Paul Williamson played basketball collegiately at Marshall...Aspires to become a teacher and a coach after college...Lists Tennessee Lady Vol women's basketball coach Pat Summitt as the famous person she most admires...Has two brothers, Paul, 17, and Drew, 10, and a sister, Ali, 8...Andrea Elizabeth Williamson was born November 20, 1990, in Huntington, W. Va....Her parents are Andy Paul and Beth Williamson.

RETURNEES TO WATCH

52 TIFFANY HUFF

C/1B, 5-7, Senior, Saugus, Calif.

A Top 25 national finalist for the 2009 USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year Trophy, Huff picked up Second-Team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-American honors, a Second-Team ESPN the Magazine Academic All-American selection and nods to the NFCA All-Southeast Region and Second-Team All-SEC squads. She made 2009 her breakout campaign by setting single-season career highs in batting average (.399), runs (48), hits (63), home runs (eight), RBIs (67), total bases (102), slugging (.646) and on-base percentage (.522) and stolen bases (11), while adding 13 doubles and 43 walks...Her 67 RBIs rated her fourth in the SEC and her 1.14 RBI-per-game average placed her fifth in NCAA Division I in that category.

2 KELLY GRIEVE

OF, 5-4, Junior, Asheville, N.C.

Grieve continued to wreak havoc on opponents during her sophomore campaign, adding the UT single-season sophomore record for stolen bases to her resume by going 39-of-42 on theft attempts. That broke the record formerly held by three-time NFCA All-American Lindsay Schutzel. Rated second on the Lady Vol team with a .393 batting average and finished fourth in the SEC in total hits for the year with 79. Also scored 48 runs, delivered four doubles, four triples and knocked in 23 runs despite serving as a slap-hitting specialist. Also registered a squad-high 25 multi-hit games in '09 and equaled the Big Orange single-game record with five base knocks in a perfect 5-for-5, five-RBI effort in a rout of Bowling Green.

9 JESSICA SPIGNER

3B/P, 5-8, Sophomore, Santa Clarita, Calif.

Wasted little time becoming known on a national level by hitting .322 with a team-best 14 doubles, a UT freshman record 14 home runs and 48 RBIs, while leading the squad in total bases (113) and posting a .638 slugging percentage. Her 14 big flies broke former Lady Vol Carrie Swinford's freshman school record of 13 set back in 1996. The HR total rated Spigner sixth in the final SEC statistics and tied for the fourth-most homers by a freshman in all of NCAA Division I. She registered 16 multi-hit and 12 multi-RBI contests and homered in four consecutive games from March 11-18 against Belmont, South Carolina (two games) and Middle Tennessee. Also fired five strong innings at #8 Georgia to pick up her first pitching win, 6-3.

8 CAT HOSFIELD

P, 5-9, Sophomore, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Hosfield opened her UT career as the Lady Vols' workhorse in the circle, firing the second most innings in the SEC in 2009 (257.1). The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native tied for second in the league in victories with 28, rated fourth in strikeouts (221) and 11th in opposing batting average (.222). She was honored as the SEC Freshman of the Week on Feb. 23rd after posting a 4-0 record with a 1.11 ERA and 27 K's in 25.1 innings at the prestigious Cathedral City Classic. During the event, Hosfield fired a complete-game, one-hit shutout over Loyola Marymount, two-hit #15 Massachusetts and relieved in wins over Hawai'i and Cal Poly. During the year she also beat No. 6 Oklahoma (twice), No. 18 LSU, No. 25 Kansas and Auburn (three times).

14 ERINN WEBB

1B, 5-6, Senior, Hemet, Calif.

Hit .274 (46-of-168) over 58 starts at either second, in the outfield or in the designated player's spot in the batting order. She tied for the SEC lead with five triples, tied for eighth in the league with 13 doubles and added six homers and 35 RBIs. Against non-conference opposition, she hit .326 with nine doubles, three triples, three homers and 21 RBIs. Webb recorded 11 multi-hit and 11 multi-RBI match-ups in 2009, while registering a career-long seven-game hitting streak stretching from Feb. 21-March 6. Among her top performances were a 2-for-3, three-RBI effort versus Villanova, a perfect 3-for-3 day with a double and three runs scored during a rout of Bowling Green and a clutch three-run triple that proved the winning margin in a 4-1 triumph at #6 Oklahoma.

00 NICOLE KAJITANI

UTL, 5-3, Senior, San Bernardino, Calif.

Improved her offensive numbers across the board in 2009 by hitting .256 and establishing single-season career-bests in starts (37), hits (31), runs scored (22), RBIs (21), triples (two), home runs (four), stolen bases (11-of-13), total bases (51) and slugging percentage (.421). Received her first career selection as the SEC Player of the Week (4/13) after her finest offensive week as a Lady Vol... Over a five-game stretch including a DH at Kentucky and a three-game series versus Auburn, Kajitani hit .450 with two doubles, a game-winning triple, two HR's and nine RBIs. Included were a 3-for-4, career-high six-RBI game in a win over the Wildcats and a walk-off, two-RBI triple that brought Tennessee back from a 2-1 deficit in the seventh inning to a 3-2 victory and a series sweep versus AU.

22 ASHLEY ANDREWS

SS/C, 5-7, Sophomore, Tumwater, Wash.

Held down the starting shortstop spot for the Lady Vols throughout all 59 contests during her freshman campaign clad in the Orange & White. The Tumwater, Wash., native hit a solid .299 overall with 44 hits, 22 runs scored, three doubles, three triples, seven RBIs and eight stolen bases. She recorded 11 multi-hit games during the 2009 campaign, posted a pair of five-game hitting streaks and then a career-long, eight-game skien that stretched from April 10-22. Posted a perfect 3-for-3 day at the plate with a double and triple in a loss at Ole Miss and hit .625 (5-for-8) during the series with Auburn. In a DH versus AU on April 11th, she tripled and scored the winning run in a 2-1 (11-inn.) win and then plated the deciding tally on a Kajitani walk-off triple in a 3-2 win.

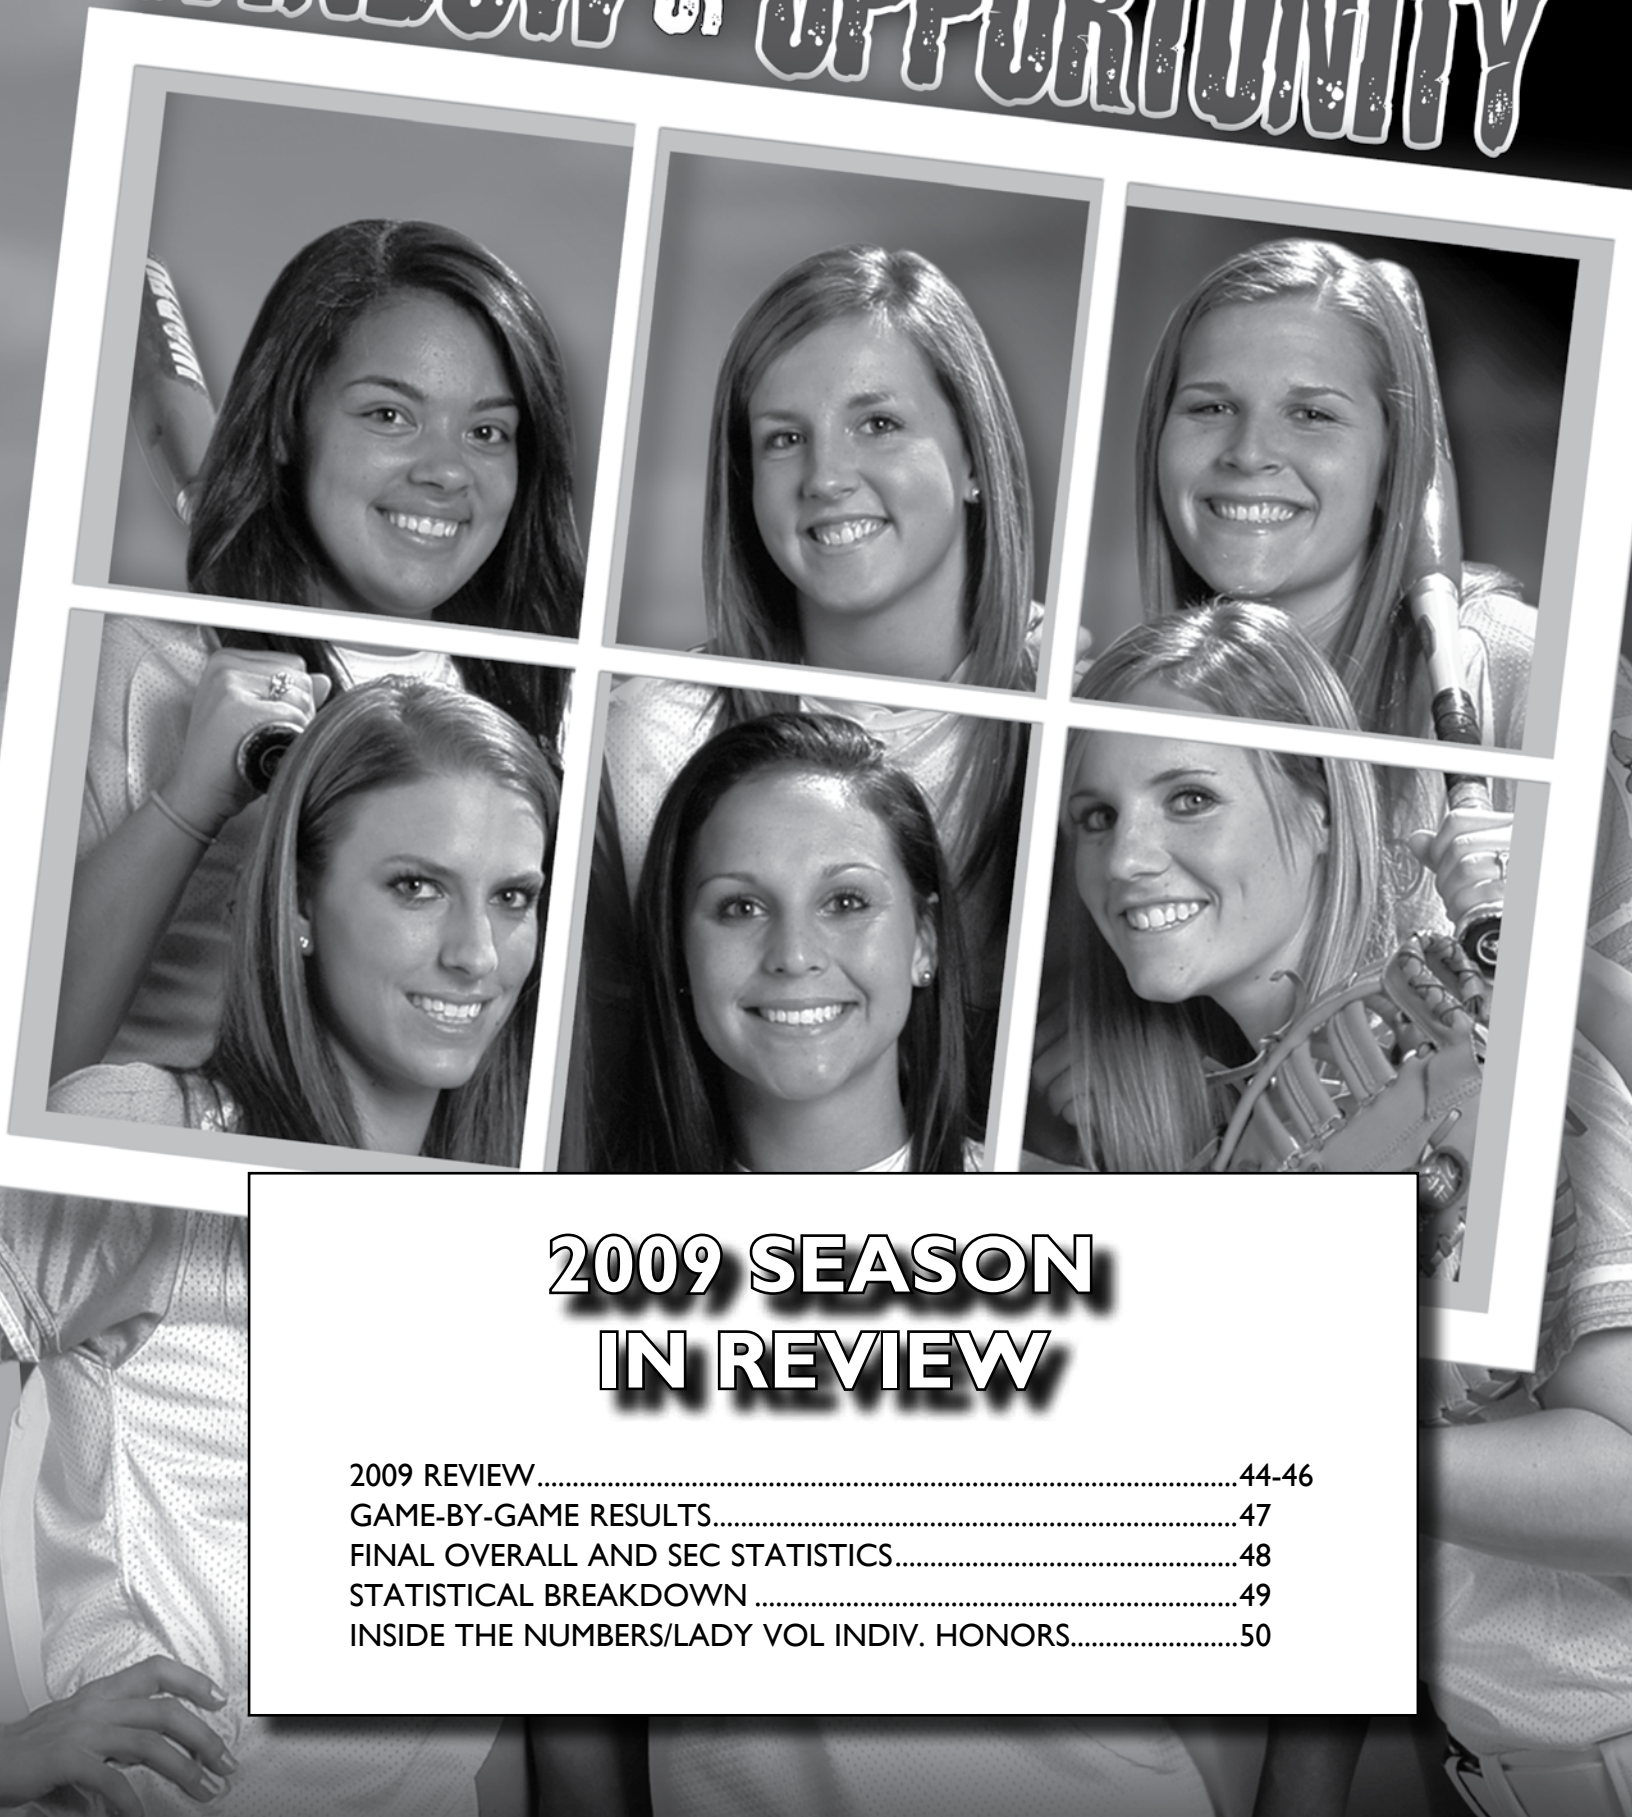

28 SHELBY BURCHELL

C/OF, 5-7, Sophomore, Columbia, Tenn.

Opened her career in the Orange & White by hitting .256 over 56 games played (52 starts) with 18 runs scored, three doubles, five home runs and 25 RBIs. The Columbia, Tenn., product received the majority of her playing time (38 games) in the designated player spot in the line-up, but also played 20 contests in the outfield and got into three match-ups behind the plate. Burchell ignited the Lady Vol offense to a 6-1 victory over #23 Massachusetts at the Cathedral City Classic by going 2-for-3 with a pair of home runs and a career-best three RBIs. She also delivered a clutch two-run single in the 10th inning to help seal a marathon, 4-0 (10 inn.) win over BYU. In a three-game series versus Mississippi State, Burchell hit a staggering .857 (6-for-7).

2009 SEASON IN REVIEW

Entering the 2009 campaign, the Tennessee Lady Vol softball team was hoping that all the pieces were in place to continue its now expected high-level of success. With UT forced to depend perhaps more than ever on a tremendous amount of youth, the season ended a bit prematurely with a second consecutive early exit after a disappointing loss in the championship contest of NCAA Regionals. It's certainly not to say that the 2009 season wasn't a success, far from it in fact. UT continued its long streaks of 40-win seasons and NCAA berths, saw several of its players reap national and league recognition and had both co-head coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly achieve career milestone triumphs as Tennessee demonstrated that it could continue its long-running, efficient output of "Orange Power."

Offensively, the team continued its strong offensive production by hitting .304 as a team to rate 20th in NCAA Division I in that category and ranked 24th in scoring at 5.27 runs-per-game. The Lady Vols also bashed 44 home runs, swiped 118 bases and slugged at a .455 clip. From a defensive standpoint the tradition of solid fielding under the guidance of the Weeklys, UT has now led the NCAA in three of the past six seasons, continued through 2009 as the Lady Vols posted a .978 fielding percentage to finish second in the country.

Individually the Big Orange was led by a number of outstanding performers including junior Tiffany Huff, sophomore Kelly Grieve and freshmen Jessica Spigner and Cat Hosfield.

Huff, a Saugus, Calif., native and Top 25 finalist for the 2009 USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year trophy, recorded a true break-out campaign in 2009 on her way to second-team Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-America and second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors. The catcher/first baseman tallied career highs in batting average (.399 on 63-of-158), runs scored (48), hits (63), home runs (eight), RBIs (67), total bases (102), slugging (.646) and on-base percentage (.522) and stolen bases (11), while adding 13 doubles, a triple and 43 walks. Her 67 RBIs rated her in the top 10 of the SEC and a 1.14 RBI-per-game average placed her fifth in NCAA Division I in that category. Huff started all 59 games for the Big Orange in 2009 at either first base or behind the plate. She registered 14 multi-hit and 14 multi-RBI games and recorded a career-long 17-game hitting streak from Feb. 20-March 21 during which she .556 with four HR's and 27 RBIs.

A product of Asheville, N.C., Grieve wreaked havoc on opposing teams throughout her NFCA All-Southeast Region '09 campaign. The 5-4 slap-hitting center fielder posted a .393 batting average on 79-of-201 at the plate, with four doubles, four triples and 23 RBIs. After breaking the UT freshman single-season stolen base record in 2008, Grieve also added the Lady Vol sophomore single-season theft mark in 2009 with 39 steals in 42 attempts to break the standard held by former All-American Lindsay Schutzler (2005). She ranked among the SEC's top 10 in hits all season long, tallied a team-best 25 multi-hit games and added three multi-RBI contests. Included in her outstanding performances last year was a school-record-tying five-hit effort with five RBIs in a 18-0 (5 inn.) rout of Bowling Green on Feb. 27.

Also tabbed to the 2009 NFCA All-Southeast Region and SEC All-Freshman teams, Spigner displayed staggering power potential in her initial campaign in the Orange & White by bashing 14 home runs to break the UT freshman single season home run record established back in 1996 by former Lady Vol Carrie Swinford. The Santa Clarita, Calif., native hit .322 (57-of-177) with a team-best 14 doubles, 14 home runs and 48 RBIs while leading the squad in total bases (113) and posting a .638 slugging percentage. Her 14 big flies rated her sixth overall in the final SEC statistics, in a deadlock for 35th counting all of NCAA Division I and tied for the fourth-most homers by a freshman in the nation. The 5-8 third baseman/pitcher tallied two or more hits in a match-up on 16 occasions during the 2009 campaign with 12 multi-RBI contests. Spigner blasted two home runs as part of a 3-for-3, career-high six-RBI effort against San Jose State and homered in four consecutive games from March 11-18 (Belmont, South Carolina-twice, Middle Tennessee). During that four-game stretch, she went 8-of-15 (.533) at the dish with 14 RBIs on the way to receiving her first SEC Player of the Week award. She also garnered her initial collegiate pitching win by firing five innings of one hit relief at #8 Georgia to guide UT past the Bulldogs, 6-3.

Hosfield opened her UT career as the Lady Vols' workhorse in the circle, firing the second most innings in the Southeastern Conference (257.1) while posting a 28-13 record with a 2.67 ERA on her way to SEC All-Freshman honors. She tied for 12th in NCAA Division I in pitching victories and rated second in the SEC in victories, fourth in strikeouts (221) and 11th in opposing team batting average (.222). The 5-9 righty was honored as the SEC Freshman of the Week on Feb. 23rd after posting a 4-0 record with a 1.11 ERA and 27 K's in 25.1 innings at the prestigious Cathedral City Classic. During the event, Hosfield fired a complete-game, one-hit shutout over Loyola Marymount, two-hit #15 Massachusetts and relieved in wins over Hawai'i and Cal Poly. During the year she posted high-profile victories over teams such as No. 6 Oklahoma (twice), No. 18 LSU (twice including at the SEC Tournament), No. 25 Kansas and Auburn (three times).

With a preseason No. 12 ranking from the NFCA in tow, the Big Orange ventured out west to St. George, Utah, for the first time in program history to participate in the BYU Red Desert Classic. Despite a tough, one-run loss to the eventual national champion Washington Huskies (2-1) in the second contest of the campaign, Tennessee proved early on it would be a force to be reckoned with, bashing at a .372 clip, posting a 4-1 record and outscoring its five opponents by a staggering 42-5 margin while bashing eight doubles and seven home runs during the event.

Huff guided the way offensively in "the Beehive State" by hitting a staggering .647 (11-of-17) overall with two doubles, two home runs and an amazing 15 RBIs, while slugging 1.118. For her efforts she would be named the USA Softball National Co-Player of the Week and reaped a mention in Sports Illustrated's weekly "Faces in the Crowd" feature. Senior left fielder Lillian Hammond posted a .600 average (9-of-15) with seven runs scored and four stolen bases. Spigner made quite a debut in the Orange with a .471 average (8-of-17), a team-best three homers and seven RBIs. She blasted two homers and knocked in six RBIs in the win over San Jose State. Fellow rookies Shelby Burchell (.417, five RBIs) and Dee Dee Fryer blasted their initial collegiate home runs, and Grieve tallied a .398 average with a team-high nine runs scored and three steals.

Co-head coach Karen Weekly even achieved a milestone, picking up her 600th career win in the season-opening 10-0 (5 inn.) rout of Northern Colorado as Hosfield nailed down her initial collegiate pitching victory with a complete-game, four-hitter. The rookie hurler was 3-1 during the event with a 0.64 ERA and combined with sophomore Ashton Ward to no-hit San Jose State.

The early season travels continued the next weekend in Orlando, Fla., at the UCF Early Bird Tournament. UT advanced its overall record to 9-1, but it wasn't without difficulty as the Big Orange were forced to demonstrate grittiness in a pair of comeback wins.

After defeating North Florida (3-0) and UT-Arlington (6-1) behind gems from Hosfield and Ward, Tennessee battled the host Golden Knights. A program improving each season by leaps and bounds, UCF proved no easy contest as the two squads reached the end of regulation knotted at 0-0. With the international tiebreaker rule in place starting the top of the eighth and junior Erinn Webb standing on second, a sac bunt by sophomore Jen Lapicki and a Golden Knight throwing error pushed the Lady Vols in front 1-0. From there Hosfield kept UCF in check, even getting an outstanding fielder's choice to cut down the potential tying run at the plate on a throw by rookie shortstop Ashley Andrews, as UT prevailed.

Later on Valentine's Day night Tennessee was forced to rally once again as No. 25 Kansas held a 2-0 lead through five frames. A sixth-inning Lapicki solo homer started the comeback, and after a clutch two-out, pinch-hit double from Ward, Lapicki laced the game-tying single to force extra frames for the second time that day. In the top of the eighth, Hammond and Huff registered RBIs, while Hosfield shut the door to improve the Orange & White to a perfect 3-0 in extra frames in 2009.

In the event finale Webb laced a huge three-run triple as part of a six-run third inning and Ward improved to 3-0 from the circle with 3.1 innings of relief as UT clawed out an early 4-0 hole to tally a 9-4 win over Villanova. Grieve wrapped up a staggering performance on the weekend with a 3-for-4 effort against the Wildcats with three stolen bases, two runs scored and a RBI. She hit .611 (11-of-18) overall with two doubles, six steals, and a half dozen runs scored. Huff added six more RBIs during the event to raise her team-best

Tiffany Huff wrapped up a stellar junior season in 2009 by being chosen as a Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-American, a top 25 finalist for the USA Softball National Player of the Year award as well as a NFCA All-Southeast Region and a Second-Team All-Southeastern Conference selection. The Saugus, Calif., native hit .399 while knocking in a career-best 67 RBIs to rate fourth in the SEC.

2009 SEASON IN REVIEW

season total to 21. Andrews tallied a .429 batting average (6-of-14) with two steals, a triple and a RBI. In all Tennessee swiped seven bases against Villanova and were a perfect 14-for-14 on steals during the tournament.

The cross-country travels continued over Feb. 19-21 as Tennessee ventured to the prestigious Cathedral City Classic in Cathedral City, Calif. UT improved its record to 14-1 and upped its winning streak to 12 by recording wins over Loyola Marymount, No. 23 Massachusetts, Hawai'i, Cal Poly and Oregon State.

Hosfield improved to 7-1 for the year by punching out eight LMU hitters as part of a one-hit shutout and Spigner and Burchell bashed homers in a 5-0 win. The latter's power swing continued the next morning in a 6-1 win over UMass as Burchell drove a pair out of the Big League Dreams Sports Park.

Deadlocked at 2-2 in the bottom of the seventh versus the Rainbow Wahine, a one-out single from Andrews, an infield base knock by Grieve and the old standard squeeze play off the bat of the trusty Hammond clinched a 3-2 victory.

The close shaves continued for Tennessee against Cal Poly as the two teams squared off in a slugfest eventually won by the Lady Vols, 8-6 (8 inn.). The Big Orange offense banged out a season-high-tying 15 hits with Hammond guiding the way with a 4-for-5 effort at the dish, two runs scored and a clutch two-run single in the top of the eighth inning that plated the game-winning scores as UT made it 4-0 in extra-inning tilts. Grieve went 3-for-5 at the dish with two runs scored and two steals. She also robbed Cal Poly of a home run while crashing through the temporary fencing after doing so the previous game versus Hawai'i. Huff knocked in three runs to raise her Big Orange season-best total for RBIs to 25. Spigner blasted her team-high fifth homer of the campaign in the top of the seventh, a two-run shot that proved vitally important to back Hosfield's 10th win of the campaign.

A four-run assault in the first inning against Oregon State sealed another perfect weekend for the Orange as Huff and Webb blasted two-run homers and senior pitcher Danielle Pieroni picked up her first career pitching triumph with five innings of three-hit work.

During the prestigious Cathedral City Classic, Tennessee hit .308 as a team with four doubles, seven home runs and 13 stolen bases in 14 attempts. Spigner led the team by hitting a sterling .500 overall (7-of-14) with a pair of doubles and two home runs. Burchell (.333) contributed three big flies at the event to raise her total to four in her initial 15 games played. Hosfield fired 25.1 innings at the event, recording a 4-0 record with a 1.11 ERA, two complete games and 27 K's while opponents hit her at just a .143 clip.

After three straight weekends of traveling, the Lady Vols finally opened the home season at Lee Softball Stadium on Feb. 24th by drilling Liberty, 11-1 (5 inn.), behind a 2-for-2, five RBI effort by Huff.

In a rain-plagued Tennessee Classic, the Orange & White improved to 3-0 on the home season, getting in just two of five scheduled match-ups with victories over Bowling Green (18-0, 5 inn.) and James Madison (3-1). In the epic destruction of BGSU, Grieve tied a UT school single-game record by going a perfect 5-for-5 at the plate with two steals, two runs scored, a three-bagger and five RBIs. Boston College would fall four days later on a 30-degree night in Knoxville by a 7-1 count as Huff was 4-for-4 and Hosfield took a no-hitter into the fifth before eventually settling for a complete-game, three-hitter with six strikeouts while tallying her league-best 13th win.

The Lady Vols next ventured to an old haunt, the ASA Hall of Fame Stadium, site of the annual Women's College World Series, for the final early-season tourney event of the 2009 season by traveling to Norman and Oklahoma City, Okla., for "The Preview" presented by WORTH. During its stay UT faced off twice against No. 6 Oklahoma and No. 16 Northwestern.

Before traveling north to the ASA Stadium, Tennessee faced the powerful Sooners on their home field on March 6th. With Hosfield working her magic to the tune of six strikeouts in a four-hitter, Webb came through with a clutch three-run triple in the fifth inning to provide the winning RBIs in a 4-1 win.

The next morning in a blustery Hall of Fame Stadium, Huff drilled a three-run, sixth-inning HR to dig UT out of a 3-0 hole, but it wasn't enough as Northwestern's Michelle Batts hammered a two-out, walk-off grand slam in a 7-3 Wildcat triumph.

Things looked bleak later that evening in the rematch with Oklahoma as the Sooners jumped all over Pieroni for five runs in the top of the first. The Madison, Tenn., native had been forced into emergency pitching duty because of an illness that had forced Ward to remain behind in Knoxville. The Big Orange had been plenty battle tested to that point in the year and began what would eventually be a staggering comeback with a quiet two-run rally in the bottom half of the first. Spigner doubled in the third to cut the gap to two, Webb drilled a solo home run in the sixth to make it 5-4 and then Pieroni got revenge for the early trouble in the circle by singling to right to score freshman pinch runner Holly Baker and even the contest at 5-5. With Hosfield cruising in relief on the way to win No. 15, Webb again killed OU with a walk-off RBI double as the Lady Vols shocked the Sooners.

Perhaps having used everything they had the night before in the huge comeback, Tennessee battled to a 2-0 lead on Huff and Lapicki solo homers but couldn't hold on as Northwestern took advantage of a depleted UT pitching staff in an eventual 11-3 (6 inn.) triumph. The Orange & White left Oklahoma sitting at 20-3 overall with the rugged SEC slate soon to begin.

After bashing in-state opponent Belmont (15-0, 5 inn.) on the strength of a season-best 13-run inning, it was time for league play as South Carolina ventured to Knoxville for a mid-week doubleheader on March 15th. The Lady Vols got off to a perfect start in the SEC by sweeping a pair of games from the Gamecocks, 8-1 and 9-2. Spigner led the way with six total RBIs including four in the opener and a pair of HR's, Webb blasted a three-run bomb in the first inning of game one and Kajitani drilled a three-run shot in the finale as Hosfield and Pieroni grabbed the wins from the circle. In the second match-up co-head coach Ralph Weekly reached the 900-victory plateau in his long and storied career. Spigner was granted SEC Player of the Week honors after hitting .545 with three HR's and 10 RBIs during the week's action versus Belmont and S.C.

Entering a mid-week match-up against Middle Tennessee, the Lady Vols owned a 60-game winning streak against in-state foes. That nearly came to a screeching halt as the Blue Raiders raced to a 5-0 lead through four innings. For the second time in two weeks, however, UT registered a staggering six-run rally to pull out another clutch win. A Grieve RBI base knock in the fifth and a two-run Spigner blast in the sixth made it 5-3. With Tennessee down to its final out in regulation, Grieve beat out a big infield single to open the floodgates as Andrews and Huff followed with singles, making it 5-4. That brought Spigner to the dish in a huge spot and she came through, ripping a two-run double down the left field line to send the Orange-clad fans home happy, 6-5.

The challenge that awaited the Orange & White next was formidable as Tennessee traveled to Gainesville, Fla., for a three-game set against the top-ranked Florida Gators and superstar hurler Stacey Nelson. Behind strong pitching and powerful hitting, UF proved formidable indeed sweeping the series from the Lady Vols, 7-0, 7-0 and 4-1. UT managed a brief 1-0 lead in the finale on an RBI single from Kajitani in the third but couldn't hold off the eventual national finalist Gators.

Looking to get back on track after the disappointing league weekend, the Lady Vols welcomed in Arkansas for a single contest as a four-hour and 15-minute weather delay forced the cancellation of a second match-up. The Razorbacks proved to be just what the doctor ordered as Spigner hammered her team-best 12th homer and Lapicki knocked in three runs as Hosfield improved to 18-5 overall in a 9-0 (5 inn.) triumph.

Next up was a visit from Western Division foe Mississippi State for a three-game weekend series. The Bulldogs managed to get the best of the Orange & White taking the opener (5-4) and the finale (10-6), while Tennessee managed an 8-0 (5 inn.) victory in the other match-up. In the 10-6 defeat, UT's Webb came up just a double short of joining former

All-American Tonya Callahan as the only Lady Vols ever to hit for the cycle.

Following a close shave against a dangerous, power-hitting UTEP club by pulling out a 3-2 win on a walk-off squeeze bunt from Burchell, it was off to Baton Rouge, La., for a big three-contest set against No. 18 LSU. UT got a five-hit, complete-game effort from Hosfield in the opener and worked around 10 Bayou Bengal base runners left on to nab a 2-1 win. RBIs from Hammond and Grieve granted UT a two-run lead in the top of the seventh, but the Lady Vols had to sweat out an LSU rally in the bottom half as second baseman Ashley Langoni popped up to shortstop with runners occupying first and third.

After riding a three-RBI effort from Huff and solid pitching from Pieroni and Hosfield to a 7-4 win to sweep a Saturday doubleheader from LSU, the two teams went at it one more time in a Sunday afternoon tilt on April 5th. With a Freshman third baseman Jessica Spigner broke a 13-year-old Tennessee rookie record in 2009 by blasting 14 home runs to break a mark of 13 big flies set by Carrie Swinford back in 1996. That occurred the year before the Lady Vols opened play in the Southeastern Conference.

2009 SEASON IN REVIEW

television audience tuning in the squads battled to a 3-3 tie at the end of regulation play. With a drop-dead 4 p.m. deadline in effect because of Tennessee travel concerns, the game entered extra frames. UT managed to score the go-ahead run in the top half of the eighth, but LSU didn't have a chance to have its turn at the plate before the cut-off time. That sent everyone home disappointed, as for the first time in SEC softball history, a conference contest ended in a deadlock.

Still rated No. 12 in the nation and boasting a 29-8-1 overall and 6-5-1 mark in league action, Tennessee headed up 1-75 for a mid-week double-dip at Kentucky. Despite cloudy and cold conditions, things got off to a rousing start for the Big Orange in Bluegrass territory as Lapicki (4-for-4) and Kajitani (3-for-4) each drove in a career-best six RBIs as UT drilled the Wildcats, 14-2 (5 inn.). Unfortunately in the day's second meeting a theme that would become all too familiar down the stretch reared its ugly head as the Lady Vols watched helplessly as UK rallied in the seventh inning from 5-3 down to post a shocking 6-5 triumph on the strength of a pair of homers, including a solo walk-off from second baseman Natalie Smith.

Looking to bounce back from a disappointing finale in Lexington, Ky., UT welcomed always tough Auburn to Lee Stadium for a trio of weekend tilts. In the opener the Orange & White rode a complete-game effort from Hosfield to a 5-2 victory as Tennessee wasted no time in jumping out to a quick 5-0 lead through three innings. Lapicki had the big blow in a three-run first with a two-RBI triple down the right-field line.

With weather again having interrupted the normal schedule, the two teams moved their usual Saturday doubleheader to Sunday. That set both squads up for a long day of softball, but entering the day no one could have guessed how long. On Pieroni's "Senior Day" the Madison, Tenn., native followed a huge Andrews triple with a walk-off base knock in the bottom of the 11th inning as Tennessee secured a series win, 2-1 (11 inn.), and improved to a staggering 6-0 on the year in extra-inning contests. The marathon equaled the longest contest in Lady Vol history, tying the mark set in a loss to No. 3 Florida on May 3, 2008, and a win over No. 1 Michigan at the WCWS in 2005.

Trailing 2-1 heading into the bottom of the seventh inning in the finale versus AU, Kajitani proved the heroine of a series sweep, following a Burchell lead-off walk and an Andrews single with a one-out, walk-off three-bagger down the right field line into the corner. Andrews raced around all the way around from first on the play to secure yet another exciting victory for Hosfield (24-8) and the Big Orange. For her efforts at Kentucky and against Auburn where she hit .450 with two doubles, a game-winning triple, two home runs and nine RBIs, Kajitani was awarded her first career SEC Player of the Week award.

Following a mid-week 5-0 triumph over ETSU, Tennessee headed to Oxford, Miss., to battle Ole Miss. The weekend got off to a solid start as Hosfield (26-8) struck out a career-high 10 Rebel hitters and Kajitani continued her strong production as UT nabbed the series opener, 5-2. Unfortunately things went downhill from there as UM got to Ward for three runs in six innings of work in a 4-1 triumph in the nightcap, and then Ole Miss rallied from a 6-5 deficit in the bottom of the seventh inning during the finale on a pair of solo home runs as UT dropped to 35-11-1 and 11-8-1 in the SEC.

The Orange & White continued their mid-week mastery on April 22nd by blasting Appalachian State, 8-0 (5 inn.) before marching on Georgia to battle the No. 8 Bulldogs. In the series lid-lifter despite a combined two-hit effort from a trio of UT hurlers, a solo home run by UGA's Kristin Schnake in the third frame was enough as hurler Christie Hamilton limited the Lady Vols to one hit in a 1-0 win. The Bulldogs secured the series win in the nightcap as Georgia raced to a 6-0 lead through five innings before a Webb two-run homer cut the final gap to 6-2.

After Hamilton's dominance in the opener, the Lady Vols solved the senior pitcher in the finale, reaching her six earned runs in a huge, 6-3 victory. An RBI single from Webb in the first and solo HR's by Kajitani and Burchell in the second kept Tennessee in the tilt tied 3-3 heading to the final frame. Grieve posted the big blow in the top of the seventh with a clutch, two-out triple into the left field corner.

Down to the final SEC regular-season weekend, it seemed fitting that weather, a factor throughout the entire year, would again cause problems for the Big Orange. In a contest that took portions of two days to complete because of periods of heavy rain at the Lee Softball Stadium, No. 3 Alabama rallied from a 2-0 deficit after two innings to post a 5-2 victory over No. 15 Tennessee in the opener of a Saturday doubleheader. UT had nabbed its two-run lead on Friday night and seemingly had all the momentum before rain pushed the contest to Saturday. The Crimson Tide rolled in Sunday's second match-up, dropping Tennessee to an even 12-12-1 in league action and securing the fifth seed in the SEC Tournament to be hosted in the friendly confines of Lee Softball Stadium.

Up first in the league's annual showcase event was an old rival in fourth-seeded LSU. UT raced to a quick 5-0 lead through two-and-a-half innings against Tiger pitcher Cody Trahan before the Bayou Bengals rang up a four-spot in the bottom of the third to claw right back into the contest. A Grieve RBI single expanded the lead back to two runs in the fourth, and that proved valuable as LSU plated one score in the fifth and left the bases loaded in the bottom of the seventh of an eventual 6-5 Tennessee win.

That set up the fourth meeting of the year against No. 1 Florida, this time in the SEC semifinals. Unlike the series in Gainesville earlier in the year, UT raced to a quick 3-0 lead in the top of the first on an RBI single from Lapicki and a two-RBI Webb double. Unfortunately, the Gators were just too strong, bouncing right back in the bottom half of the first with four runs on the way to an 11-3 (5 inn.) win.

When the NCAA bracket was announced, Tennessee was selected as the No. 13 national seed and found out it would host NCAA Regionals for the fifth straight season. Included in the four-team field for Knoxville were James Madison, Nebraska and Jacksonville State.

After fighting off JMU earlier in the year during the Tennessee Classic, 3-1, the Lady Vols again found themselves in a tough match with the Dukes in their NCAA opener. Huff and Pieroni delivered RBIs in the opening two innings to grant UT a quick 2-0 lead. James Madison responded, however, by nabbing a 3-2 advantage in the top of the sixth putting all the heat on the Orange & White to respond. Thankfully UT had reaped plenty of rally experience during the year and put that to quick use versus JMU. A Webb RBI-double in the sixth tied things up and then Spigner drove in the game-winner on a base hit to right in the bottom of the seventh to send Tennessee through via the winner's bracket. With 1.1 innings of relief Pieroni picked up her seventh victory of the year.

The run to the Knoxville Regional championship continued against Nebraska on May 16th. After spotting the Cornhuskers a 1-0 advantage through one inning, UT saw Webb, Lapicki, Burchell and Andrews reach consecutively to tie the count at 1-1. Ward entered in a rare hitting role and came through in a huge way, busting the contest open with a three-RBI double to left center as Tennessee made it 4-1. From there Pieroni controlled the 'Huskers, allowing one run on just two hits in 5.2 frames, and Webb added an insurance tally in the fifth on a two-bagger as the Big Orange advanced on to battle upstart Jacksonville State for a berth in the NCAA Super Regionals.

The Gamecocks faced an uphill climb, having to win three times in May 17th to pull off a stunning championship run. Amazingly, JSU proved up to the task, downing Nebraska 6-1 and then outlasting Tennessee in a pair of match-ups to stun the hosts.

After nabbing a stunning 6-1 win against the Lady Vols in the first game, the winner-take-all match-up proved a tighter affair. Tennessee plated a quick run in the bottom of the first frame on a sacrifice fly by Huff, but left runners on the base paths that would come back to haunt the Big Orange. The Gamecocks managed single tallies in the fourth and fifth inning off reliever Pieroni, giving them a 2-1 lead with time running very short. Unfortunately there would be no UT rally this time, going down in order in the sixth and seeing the potential tying score in the form of Grieve cut down at second on a routine fielder's choice at second to end the campaign and send Jacksonville State on to the Super Regionals for the first time in its program history. The Lady Vols wrapped up their year at 40-18-1, in the process extending its run of 40-win seasons to seven years.

Though the season ended sooner than desired, the 2009 Tennessee Lady Vol softball team showed determination, grit and the ability to overcome virtually any obstacle no matter how large. With many high-profile victories, award-winning efforts and personal achievements along the way, it is obvious that the proper pieces were in place to keep the "Orange Power" flowing.

Kelly Grieve erupted for 39 stolen bases during her 2009 junior campaign to break the Tennessee sophomore theft record previously held by former Lady Vol All-American Lindsay Schutzler. The Asheville, N.C., product also hit .393 overall, posted 79 hits, to rate fourth in the Southeastern Conference, and added 48 runs scored, four triples, 23 RBIs and a team-high 25 multi-hit games.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

"The Standard For Excellence"

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 77-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2008-09 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC, as conference teams captured five national titles and posted six national runner-up finishes. The SEC won consecutive national championships in football and gymnastics. Since 1990, the SEC has won 131 national team championships for an average of nearly seven per year.

Florida won the SEC's first national title of the year with its win in the BCS National Championship Game in football. It was the league's third consecutive football national title. Georgia's Gym Dogs won their fifth straight gymnastics championship. Auburn captured its eighth men's swimming and diving national championship. Tennessee won its second national track & field championship since 2005, when the women's indoor squad won the NCAA title. LSU claimed its sixth national championship in the sport of baseball. Florida finished first among Southeastern Conference schools and third overall in the NACDA Director's Cup final standings.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in 10 of its 20 sponsored sports and in the top five in 13 of the 20 sports. Eight SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls, with Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt winning the BCS National Title Game, Capital One, Liberty, Chick-fil-A, Cotton and Music City bowls, respectively. Three men's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament, and seven women's basketball teams were also invited to the "Big Dance."

The SEC had a eight teams advance to postseason play in baseball, with four hosting four super regionals and Arkansas and LSU advancing to the College World Series. With 150 teams advancing to NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the four team championships, 53 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 323 individuals were awarded with first-team All-America honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom, as well, with more than 2,300 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, the SEC placed nine teams in the top 40 of the NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Florida led the league with a third-place finish. LSU placed ninth, while Georgia (18th), Tennessee (23rd), Arkansas (25th), Auburn (26th), Alabama (30th), Kentucky (34th) and South Carolina (39th) rounded out the league's top-40 finishes.

SOFTBALL IN THE SEC

SEC Softball will celebrate its 14th year of existence in 2010 and has established itself as one of the leading conferences in the sport.

The Southeastern Conference qualified a record nine teams for the 2009 NCAA Tournament - Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi State and Tennessee, as the conference made its 12th overall and seventh consecutive, Women's College World Series appearance. For the second straight year, Florida received the No. 1 national seed, while the SEC grabbed four total national seeds: No. 4 Alabama, No. 6 Georgia and No. 13 Tennessee.

The highlight of the season was when the SEC advanced a league record, three of the final four teams, to the WCWS: Florida, Alabama and Georgia.

Florida claimed its second consecutive SEC title and tournament title with a 26-1 record. The Gators posted a 63-5 overall record. Florida's Tim Walton was named Coach of the Year while Stacey Nelson earned Pitcher of the Year honors. Alabama's Charlotte Morgan was named Player of the Year and the Tide's Amanda Locke captured Freshman of the Year accolades. Tennessee's Lillian Hammond was selected as Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Softball came under the auspices of the Southeastern Conference in the 1996-97 season. Since that time, 10 different conference teams have made appearances in the NCAA Championship, including six teams earning Women's College World Series berths - one by South Carolina in the inaugural season, Alabama in 2000, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2008 and 2009, Florida in 2008 and 2009, Georgia in 2009, LSU in 2001 and 2004 and Tennessee in 2005, 2006 and 2007.

Eight teams (Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee) have made Top 25 appearances and six teams have climbed into the Top 10 (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU, South Carolina and Tennessee) of the NFCA/USA Today Poll. At least one SEC team has been ranked in the poll each week since the inception of SEC Softball.

South Carolina is the flagship team of the league with a rich history in softball dating back 35 seasons. The Gamecocks have made 15 NCAA Regional and three Women's College World Series appearances.

Mississippi State played softball for five seasons during the 1980's before resuming the sport when it was added to the SEC. Tennessee added softball in 1995-96, one year before its inception in the SEC. Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU and Ole Miss began softball programs in 1996-97 to give the league 11 representatives (Vanderbilt does not sponsor softball).

The 1999 season was the first in which the conference was eligible for an automatic berth to the NCAA Championships.

As the sport continues to grow in competitiveness and popularity, the SEC has had six different regular season champions and five different conference tournament champions.

SOFTBALL AND THE NCAA

THE TOURNAMENT: The NCAA will select 64 out of the over 260 schools which sponsor Division I softball to compete in the 2010 NCAA Tournament. NCAA Regionals will take place May 21-23 at campus sites to gain 16 berths into the Super Regional round from May 28-29. Eight Super Regional winners will advance to the Women's College World Series from June 3-9 at the ASA Don E. Porter Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City, Okla. The College World Series will be a double-elimination format with the two remaining squads facing off in a best-of-three format for the national championship.

THE FIELD: The champions of 30 NCAA Division I conferences will automatically qualify for the 2010 championship. The remaining 34 teams will be selected at-large based on upon win-loss record and strength of schedule. In addition, the committee will utilize the Ratings Percentage Index (RPI) as a tool to evaluate teams. Representatives from the America East, Atlantic-10, Atlantic Coast, Atlantic Sun, Big 12, BIG EAST, Big South, Big Ten, Big West, Colonial Athletic Association, Conference USA, Horizon League, Ivy League, Metro Atlantic Athletic, Mid-American, Mid-Eastern Athletic, Missouri Valley, Mountain West, Northeast, Ohio Valley, Pacific-10, Pacific Coast Softball, Patriot League, Southeastern, Southern, Southland, Southwestern Athletic, Summit League, Sun Belt and Western Athletic Conferences each qualify by winning their leagues. This season will mark the 12th year that the SEC Tournament Champion will receive an automatic bid.

UT AGAINST 2009 NCAA/RANKED TEAMS: The Lady Vols are guaranteed to play 32 contests during the upcoming 2010 slate against 17 opponents that competed in last year's NCAA Tournament. Included in the Big Orange's rugged schedule are four of the eight participants from the 2009 Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla., Florida, Alabama and Georgia. Tennessee will also play 12 games this season against squads rated in the top 10 of the final 2009 National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).

TENNESSEE'S SIXTH STRAIGHT VISIT TO NCAA'S: The 2009 Tennessee Lady Vol softball team secured the program's sixth consecutive trip to NCAA Regionals as the nation's No. 13 seed for the second straight year. Hosting the regional round for the fifth consecutive season, UT advanced to the championship round of the event at Lee Stadium before dropping back-to-back match-ups to upstart Jacksonville State and ending its season at 40-18-1 overall. A clutch RBI single in the bottom of the seventh inning from freshman third baseman Jessica Spigner backed 1.1 frames of scoreless relief by senior hurler Danielle Pieroni as Tennessee outlasted James Madison in its regional opener, 4-3. A 5-2 triumph over Nebraska on the strength of a clutch three-run, second-inning double by pinch hitter Ashton Ward sent the Big Orange through to face JSU for a place in NCAA Super Regionals. Jacksonville State wasted little time in getting to UT for a pair of runs in the second frame and four more in the sixth on the way to a 6-1 victory to force a championship-deciding game. Despite jumping in front 1-0 during the opening inning on a sacrifice fly from junior catcher Tiffany Huff, Tennessee watched the Gamecocks rally for single tallies in the top of the fourth and fifth innings versus Pieroni to eventually prevail, 2-1, and advance through to the best-of-three Super Regionals.

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

1999 NCAA REGIONAL NO. 3 (0-2)

Seattle, Wash.
May 20-21, 1999

When the NCAA Selection Committee announced the 48-team field for the 1999 NCAA Softball Tournament, the Lady Vol softball squad heard the news it had been awaiting since the inception of its program in the fall of 1995. With a 44-25 overall record and a first-ever Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title on its resume, Jim Beitia's club earned an at-large bid to one of the eight, six-team regional sites.

As a third seed, Tennessee traveled to Seattle, Wash., for a first round meeting with number four seed Cal-State Fullerton. Host Washington, ranked sixth nationally, drew the top seed in the double-elimination event on its home field. While the Orange & White dropped both of its contests in the Pacific Northwest, the results failed to lessen the achievement of participating in the nation's premier event after recording the program's most successful campaign to date.

2004 NCAA REGIONAL NO. 6 (2-2)

Ann Arbor, Mich.
May 20-22, 2004

After recording a program-record 55 victories and picking up its first Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title since the 1999 season, the Tennessee Lady Vol softball team, under the direction of SEC Co-Head Coaches of the Year Ralph and Karen Weekly, continued its successful run by nabbing its first NCAA bid in five years. As the second seed in NCAA Regional No. 6, the Orange & White would travel to Ann Arbor, Mich., to participate in a double-elimination format.

The Lady Vols opened the event by downing Illinois-Chicago to register the program's initial NCAA Tournament victory and added another with a 4-0 defeat of the DePaul Blue Demons. Tennessee would be eliminated, however, from the rain-plagued event by suffering defeats to No. 18 Oregon State (4-0) and Illinois-Chicago (6-5).

Following a stellar 59-13 regular-season, the Tennessee Lady Vol softball team was chosen to the NCAA Tournament field of 64 for the second consecutive season. As a bonus for their No. 11 national seeding, the Orange & White were allowed to host the NCAA Regional round at Tennessee's Tyson Park.

UT opened its tournament run with a dominating 9-0, five-inning victory behind a two-hitter from hurler Monica Abbott. After a 4-0 throttling of College of Charleston advanced the Lady Vols to the regional title game, Abbott no-hit the Cougars in a rematch as sophomore shortstop Lindsay Schutzler delivered a crucial two-run home run in UT's 2-0 win. With the triumph, the Big Orange advanced to the NCAA Super Regional in Palo Alto, Calif.

2005 NCAA SUPER REGIONAL NO. 6 (2-0)

Palo Alto, Calif.

May 27-28, 2005

With the program's first NCAA Regional title in its back pocket, UT was summoned to wing its way across the country to battle No. 4-ranked Stanford at the Smith Family Stadium in Palo Alto, Calif. Down to a best two-of-three game format, Tennessee made the most of its opportunity with consecutive shutout victories to take the crown and advance to the program's initial berth in the Women's College World Series.

While Monica Abbott was in the process of striking out 12 Stanford hitters in a two-hit, 2-0 victory in game one, junior utility player Katherine Card was busy delivering an RBI single in the first and a solo home run in the sixth to give UT all the runs necessary to take a 1-0 series lead.

Another solid pitching performance in game two by Abbott (one-hitter) was backed up by a five-run third inning outburst as the Orange downed SU 6-0. Three Cardinal errors led to three UT unearned runs.

2005 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES (3-2)

Oklahoma City, Okla.

June 2-6, 2005

Tennessee's first-ever trip to the Women's College World Series was just about everything that the squad and co-head coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly could have desired. Three stirring victories, late-inning heroics, national television coverage and big-game experience on the largest national stage in softball made UT's visit to Oklahoma City, Okla., a memorable one. In the end, the Lady Vols finished third and came up just short of a berth in the NCAA Championship series.

Another dominating regular season and the first Southeastern Conference Tournament title in program history granted UT a ton of confidence heading into its third straight NCAA Tournament. For the second straight season, Tennessee's Tyson Park would serve as host for the NCAA Regionals.

In the regional opener the Big Orange found themselves down 4-2 to upstart Tennessee Tech after 3.5 innings and without Monica Abbott who had been lifted from the contest. UT rallied with a four-run fourth keyed by a two-RBI single by Sarah Fekete to survive 6-4. Waiting next for the Lady Vols was ACC Pitcher of the Year Angela Tincher and Virginia Tech. A first inning grand slam by clutch postseason performer Katherine Card set the tone as Tennessee rolled 9-1 (five inn.). With a berth in the NCAA Super Regionals hanging in the balance, #18 Louisville sent BIG EAST Pitcher of the Year Catherine Bishop to the circle to oppose Abbott. UT's 6-3 lefty struck out 12 in a two-hitter and the Orange & White rang up eight runs on 10 hits in an 8-1 rout.

2006 NCAA SUPER REGIONAL NO. 8 (2-1)

Knoxville, Tenn.

May 27-28, 2006

The NCAA draw made sure that Tennessee's initial stint hosting the Super Regional round would be a challenge as defending national champion Michigan ventured to Knoxville for a best-of-three game set. UT and the Maize & Blue had split a pair of epic contests at the WCWS in 2005 to eliminate the Lady Vols from title contention.

Tennessee jumped on top 2-0 in the opener as a Tonya Callahan single and a Katherine Card sac fly plated a pair in the fourth. Michigan rallied to knot the score, but a three-run sixth from the Lady Vols keyed a 5-3 win. Abbott struck out 11 in the complete game.

After UM's Jennie Ritter got the measure of the Big Orange in game two by a 5-1 count, Tennessee sent Abbott back to the circle with an all-or-nothing game three waiting. She didn't disappoint by twirling a five-hit, nine-K shutout as the Lady Vols prevailed 1-0. Clutch Card laced an RBI single to right center in the sixth to score the game's only run. UM loaded the bases in the bottom of the seventh with two down, but Abbott struck out Rebekah Milian to end the series.

2006 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES (3-2)

Oklahoma City, Okla.

June 1-4, 2006

The Tennessee Lady Vols fought their way to another third-place national finish in their second straight trip to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla., from June 1-4, 2006. Along the way, UT upset #1 UCLA (4-3), outlasted #9 Arizona State (3-1, nine inn.) and defeated eventual national champion #3 Arizona (1-0) before falling just a single game short of the WCWS Championship Series. For their efforts junior pitcher Monica Abbott and senior designated player Kristi Durant were named WCWS All-Tournament.

The Lady Vols wasted little time in pulling off the first stunner of the 2006 Women's College World Series, as UT rallied past #1 UCLA in a contest that didn't end until 2:01 a.m. local time. Down 2-0 heading into the sixth frame, Tonya Callahan singled and the Bruins committed a crucial error to tie the contest at 2-2. Kristi Durant drove in Lillian Hammond for a one-run lead. Durant came through again with an insurance tally in the seventh. It proved a good thing as UCLA scored one, but left two stranded to end it.

Perhaps dealing with a little late night fatigue from the evening before, Tennessee was one-hit by Northwestern hurler Eileen Canney as the Wildcats advanced through the winner's bracket with a 2-0 victory. Monica Abbott struck out 15 and permitted just two earned runs on five hits, but an RBI single in the sixth and a solo home run by Darcy Sengewald in the seventh proved more than enough against UT's anemic offense.

Facing elimination for the first time in the 2006 Women's College World Series, the Lady Vols proved they were up to the task ahead by outlasting a game Arizona State squad, 3-1 (nine inn.). An ASU fielding error in the fifth provided UT with the game's initial run, but the Sun Devils' Heidi Knabe homered off Abbott to deadlock the contest at 1-1. Neither team could race in front until the ninth when freshman Jennifer Griffin delivered a clutch two-run homer to right center to seal the 3-1 win.

The orange-clad partisans in attendance as well as the national television audience watched UT stave off elimination behind the efforts of WCWS and UT rookie Jennifer Griffin. The Whittier, Calif., native drove a pitch over the right center field wall in the ninth for a two-run, game-winning home run in UT's 3-1 triumph. The above picture is from the moment of contact.

Tennessee enjoyed an enthusiastic fan following at the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla. With constant chants and cheering, the orange-clad partisans in attendance helped lead the Lady Vols past #1 UCLA, #9 Arizona State and #3 Arizona. They even showed true determination by lasting until the end of the opener against the Bruins that concluded at 2:01 a.m. local time.

The task was outlined...defeat #3 Arizona twice in a day to advance to the WCWS Championship Series. UT took care of business in the opener by downing the Wildcats, 1-0. Abbott and UA's Alicia Hollowell duelled through four scoreless frames before the clutch Katherine Card drove a Hollowell offering to deep center. Arizona's Caitlin Lowe raced back and actually dove over the wall trying to make the catch. She didn't come up with the ball as UT took the one-run lead. Abbott made it count in a two-hitter.

For the second straight season, the Lady Vols came up just a win short of the WCWS Championship Series falling to #3 Arizona, 6-0. The Wildcats wasted no time jumping on Abbott by plating a pair of runs in both the first and second. Three uncharacteristic UT errors opened the door for three unearned runs as UA added single tallies in the third and sixth frames. Tennessee completed the 2006 campaign third nationally and with 61 victories against 12 losses for a program-best .836 win percentage.

Despite suffering through a back injury for the majority of the 2006 campaign, senior designated player Kristi Durant demonstrated her grit and toughness by returning with a vengeance in the WCWS. The Placentia, Calif., native hit at a team-best .333 clip on her way to WCWS All-Tournament honors. She went 2-for-4 with two RBI in the upset of #1 UCLA.

2007 NCAA REGIONAL NO. 5 (3-0)

Knoxville, Tenn.

May 18-20, 2007

A 63-8 overall record and having spent a record 11 consecutive weeks atop the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll helped the national fifth-seeded Tennessee Lady Vol softball team again draw hosting position for an NCAA Regional. For the third straight season, UT swept its three match-ups to advance on to the best-of-three Super Regional.

In the opener, Tennessee senior pitcher Monica Abbott (5 IP, 0 H, 13 K) and junior hurler Megan Rhodes (1 IP, 0 H, 0 K) combined on a perfect game by facing the minimum of 18 Furman hitters over six frames. Up 2-0 heading to the fifth, a three-run blast by Shannon Doepping helped the Orange roll to an 8-0 (6 inn.) win. In a rematch of an early season match-up, UT plated a pair of runs in the first frame against North Carolina via a Tonya Callahan RBI single and a Doepping sacrifice fly. Abbott struck out 17 in a complete-game six-hitter. Unfortunately India Chiles also suffered a torn ACL on a play between first and second. In the regional title contest Tennessee bested Winthrop 7-0 behind RBIs from Anita Manuma, Alexia Clay and Kenora Posey. Abbott struck out 12 in a three-hit shutout.

2007 NCAA SUPER REGIONAL NO. 5 (2-1)

Knoxville, Tenn.

May 25-26, 2007

The NCAA Super Regionals brought Tennessee a surprise, as No. 12 Hawai'i and its powerful offense roared into Knoxville after having taken down perennial power UCLA in the regionals. For freshman Anita Manuma, the visit had special significance, as her sister Valana Manuma played shortstop for the Rainbow Wahine.

Having been on the mainland for weeks for conference and NCAA play, Hawai'i looked overwhelmed in the first game of the series as Abbott no-hit the Wahine and struck out 10 in a 9-0 (5 inn.) blowout. Freshman Tiffany Huff knocked in a career high five runs in the match-up.

Hawai'i's powerful bats got uncorked in the second contest by blasting three home runs and outlasting the Lady Vols, 9-6. UT plated four runs in the top of the seventh, but the rally proved fruitless.

Staring elimination squarely in the eye, down 1-0 in the fourth frame, UT rookie put together a three-run fourth on a big two-RBI double from Erinn Webb and a four-run fifth to win 7-1 and advance on to the WCWS.

2007 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES (4-2)

Oklahoma City, Okla.

May 31-June 6, 2007

Back at the Women's College World Series for the third straight campaign, Tennessee took another major step by becoming the first team from the Southeastern Conference to reach the WCWS best-of-three Championship Series. After sweeping three games to reach the title set, UT nabbed the opener over No. 4 Arizona, 3-0. Unfortunately for the Big Orange, the Lady Vols dropped the final two games to the Wildcats to suffer heartbreak but still finished as the NCAA Division I runner-up for 2007.

UT downed No. 7 Texas A&M, 2-0, to advance on in the winner's bracket. Lady Vol senior pitcher Monica Abbott struck out 16 to break the NCAA single-season strikeout record (665 K's) and threw her third career postseason and 23rd overall no-hitter. Even with all that, the story of the game proved to be injured senior India Chiles singling in the eventual game-winning run in a crucial seventh-inning rally. The Big Orange also broke the WCWS single-game record for stolen bases by swiping five in the match-up with two steals each by Lindsay Schutzler and Kenora Posey and one from Erinn Webb.

No. 1 Tennessee scratched out a run in the bottom of the sixth to back a complete game shutout by senior pitcher Monica Abbott as the Lady Vols downed No. 4 Arizona, 1-0, to improve to 2-0 and move within one victory of making the best-of-three WCWS Championship Series. Due to a lengthy rain delay, the match-up against the Wildcats started at 11:23 p.m. CT, three hours and 23 minutes after the originally scheduled start time of 8 p.m. CT. By finishing at 1:28 a.m. CT, the contest marked the second latest foray into the night for the Lady Vols in their three-year history at the WCWS.

No. 1 and fifth-seeded Tennessee's perfect roll through the Women's College World Series continued in front of 6,949 fans at the ASA Hall of Fame Stadium, as the Lady Vols defeated No. 6 and second-seeded Northwestern, 3-0, to secure the program's first-ever berth in the WCWS Championship Series. Big Orange pitcher Monica Abbott continued her outstanding efforts in the circle by striking out 17 Wildcats in a two-hit shutout. India Chiles continued her impressive contributions for the Lady Vol offense with a 1-for-3 effort at the plate, a run scored and her 44th stolen base.

Lady Vol autographs were in high demand after each game by the huge crowds that swarmed Oklahoma City throughout the Women's College World Series.

Junior catcher Shannon Doepping's solo blast off Arizona hurler Taryne Mowatt helped guide the Lady Vols to a 3-0 victory in the opening game of the best-of-three NCAA Championship Series against the Wildcats. Here, as has become a habit for Tennessee in WCWS play, her teammates wait at the plate to give her a Big Orange "Standing O."

With the national title in reach, No. 1 Tennessee stranded 14 base runners in a difficult 1-0 (10 inn.) loss to No. 4 Arizona at the ASA Hall of Fame Stadium to force a third and decisive contest for the NCAA title. The Lady Vols out-hit the Wildcats 7-4 but couldn't come up with the one clutch hit needed to tally that vital run to back Abbott's 11-strikeout, four-hitter in the circle. India Chiles (2-for-5) and Kenora Posey (2-for-4) each recorded a pair of hits to lead the offense, while Lindsay Schutzler (1-for-4), Shannon Doepping (1-for-3) and freshman designated player Alexia Clay (1-for-5) were each responsible for one of UT's seven total base knocks.

The 2007 campaign will go down as the most successful in program history for Tennessee for a variety of reasons after a second-place finish at the Women's College World Series, the program's first Southeastern Conference regular season title and the initial No. 1 ranking in school and league history. The season also will be remembered as one of disappointment after coming so very close to UT's first softball national title before falling short in a 5-0 loss to No. 4 Arizona in Oklahoma City, Okla. UA erupted for five runs in the fifth to back a Taryne Mowatt shutout to win its eighth title.

2008 NCAA REGIONAL NO. 13 (3-2)

Knoxville, Tenn.

The Tennessee Lady Vol softball team received its fifth consecutive bid to the NCAA Field of 64 and played host to its fourth consecutive NCAA Regional in 2008. UT managed a 3-2 overall record in the event, being eliminated in the championship contest by eventual Women's College World Series participant Virginia Tech and its All-American hurler Angela Tinchier by a 4-2 count.

The Big Orange rode a combined one-hit shutout from Megan Rhodes and Ashton Ward to a 3-0 victory over Winthrop in both teams' opener, marking UT's 10 straight NCAA Regional victory dating back to 2004. Va. Tech utilized 14 strikeouts from Tinchier and a surprise grand slam from No. 9 hitter Caroline Stolle to race past Tennessee 4-0 and drop the Lady Vols into the loser's bracket. Forced into action again later that day, UT blew out Louisville, 8-1, as freshman Jen Lapicki blasted a homer and knocked in four runs.

With only two teams remaining with a chance at NCAA Super Regionals, Tennessee would have to beat Tech twice in the same day to advance. The Big Orange used the Erinn Webb power show to drop the Hokies 7-1 in the opener as the Hemet, Calif., native hammered two home runs in the triumph. Up 1-0 after three innings and in possession of the momentum, UT was undone by a 50-minute rain delay. Following the break, Tech responded with a four-run top of the fourth to eventually prevail 4-2 and send UT home early.

The 2009 Tennessee Lady Vol softball team secured the program's sixth consecutive trip to NCAA Regionals as the nation's No. 13 seed for the second straight year. Hosting the regional round for the fifth consecutive season, UT advanced to the championship round of the event at Lee Stadium before dropping back-to-back match-ups to upstart Jacksonville State and ending its season at 40-18-1 overall.

A clutch RBI single in the bottom of the seventh inning from freshman third baseman Jessica Spigner backed 1.1 frames of scoreless relief by senior hurler Danielle Pieroni as Tennessee outlasted James Madison in its regional opener, 4-3. A 5-2 triumph over Nebraska on the strength of a clutch three-run, second-inning double by pinch hitter Ashton Ward sent the Big Orange through to face JSU for a place in NCAA Super Regionals.

Jacksonville State wasted little time in getting to UT for a pair of runs in the second frame and four more in the sixth on the way to a 6-1 victory to force a championship-deciding game. Despite jumping in front 1-0 during the opening inning on a sacrifice fly from junior catcher Tiffany Huff, Tennessee watched the Gamecocks rally for single tallies in the top of the fourth and fifth innings versus Pieroni to eventually prevail, 2-1, and advance through to the best-of-three Super Regionals.

LEGEND - MONICA ABBOTT

MONICA ABBOTT

6-3 -- Pitcher
Salinas, Calif.

NCAA Career Records

Wins -- 189
Appearances -- 253
Shutouts -- 112
Strikeouts -- 2,440
Innings Pitched --- 1,448.0

The scream of delight from Abbott in the background tells the whole story. On May 6 at Tyson Park in Knoxville, Tenn., the 6-3 lefthander struck out Alabama's Charlotte Morgan to end the first inning. The K was number 2,266 in her illustrious career to break the record of former Texas and current U.S. pitcher Cat Osterman who was in attendance working for ESPN.

On the night of her receiving the prestigious Women's Sports Foundation's "Team Sport Athlete of the Year" trophy, Abbott stopped to pose for a picture with Carol, the wife of UT President John Petersen, tennis legend Billie Jean King and Tennessee Women's Athletics Director Joan Cronan.

At the annual Women's College World Series, Abbott was presented with the prestigious USA Softball National Player of the Year award after a season during which she won 50 games and struck out 724.

OLYMPIAN - MONICA ABBOTT

Former Tennessee LadyVol pitcher Monica Abbott was selected to represent her country as part of the prestigious United States Softball Team at the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, the People's Republic of China. During her stay at the international competition, the Salinas, Calif., native performed superbly from the circle in helping guide Team USA to a silver medal. Her stat line was staggering: a squad-best 3-0 record, a 0.29 ERA, 32 strikeouts in just 24 innings of work while allowing the opposition to hit at just a .076 clip. The 6-3 lefthander also became the first American pitcher in Olympic history to fire a perfect game by blanking the Netherlands. Unfortunately a shocking defeat in the championship game to world power Japan cost Team USA the gold, but Abbott made the most of the experience. The pagentry of the opening and closing ceremonies, the Olympic Village, visiting with athletes from all over the world, the heart-pounding competition. In her own words, it was something she will never forget.

Monica Abbott in the circle, a face of utter concentration as she prepares to throw a pitch during the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, China.

Abbott made her triumphant homecoming to Lee Softball Stadium and the University of Tennessee in front of a packed house of 1,622 fans on April 12, 2008, as the hurler and the U.S. Olympic Softball Team defeated the Lady Vols, 4-2. The 6-3 lefthander fired a complete game two-hitter with 11 strikeouts. Her former team did manage a pair of solo homers to nab a 2-0 lead and led the prestigious squad into the fifth inning before succumbing.

One of the best parts of the Olympic experience and attending the University of Tennessee is the impressive number of fellow Lady Vols who also make the trip in various sports. Here Abbott catches up with former Tennessee basketball players Candace Parker and Kara Lawson before opening ceremonies.

A moment that Abbott had long dreamed about, receiving her Olympic medal at the medal ceremony at Fengtai Softball Stadium.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE

Founded as Blount College in 1794, the University of Tennessee became the state's first public university and its comprehensive land-grant research institution in 1879. Tennessee's only public Carnegie Doctoral/Research-Extensive University, UT ranked 51st among U.S. News and World Report's Top Public Universities in the country.

The University's colleges and schools offer more than 300 degree programs to its 26,400 students, who come from every county in Tennessee, every state in the nation and more than 108 foreign countries. Females account for 51 percent of the student body and the university has a 16 percent total minority enrollment.

- The Princeton Review ranked UT as one of the top 50 universities in the nation in 2009 for "best value," based on the quality of academics and amount of financial aid compared to costs.

- The class of 2013 is the best and brightest to ever come to UT. The class boasts a 3.8 high school GPA, a 26.5 average ACT and 41 percent graduated high school with a 4.0 GPA.

- The Princeton Review named UT as a "Best Southeastern College" for its high standards and outstanding reputation among higher education institutions in the Southeast.

- Forbes Magazine ranks the UT MBA program 24th among all national programs.

- The U.S. News and World Report placed the College of Law's clinical training program in 15th place among national public institutions.

- The UT nuclear engineering program ranks 12th in the country, according to U.S. News & World Report.

- UT has been named a Top 100 degree producer for African-American doctorate degrees, according to DIVERSE: Issues in Higher Education magazine.

Dr. Jan Simek became interim president of the University of Tennessee on July 1, 2009.

Dr. Jimmy Cheek became chancellor of the University of Tennessee on Feb. 1, 2009.

Dr. Dan Murphy assumed the role of the NCAA faculty athletics representative for UT in 2010.

KNOXVILLE

When Tennessee became a state on June 1, 1796, Knoxville was distinguished as its first capital. The capital has since moved to Nashville, but the Blount Mansion and James White's Fort still stand as gentle reminders of Knoxville's historic past.

The city of Knoxville has grown into a cosmopolitan area with numerous attractions and more than 500 restaurants. It serves as the headquarters to the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA), the nation's largest public utility, and is known as a technology corridor of the Southeast.

Knoxville is located in the geographical center of the eastern United States and is within a day's drive of half of the nation's population. Knox County is situated at the crossroads of three major interstates, I-75, I-40 and I-81.

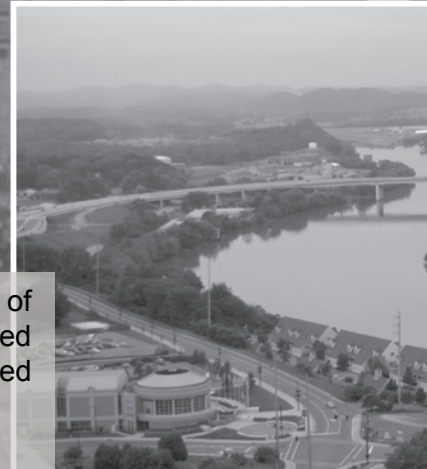

Knoxville's city population is 180,130 with a metropolitan area population of approximately 667,384, which includes Knox, Anderson, Blount, Loudon, Sevier and Union counties.

Knoxville is located in a temperate climate zone 936 feet above sea level, with an annual average temperature of 69 degrees. The annual average precipitation is 47 inches

Knoxville's McGhee Tyson Airport serves the East Tennessee region with more than 120 flights daily.

The Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, the only museum devoted to women's basketball, is located in downtown Knoxville.

The University of Tennessee

Knoxville was ranked the “best place to live in the United States and Canada” by the Places Rated Almanac among cities with a population of fewer than one million.

The Sunsphere, built for the 1982 World's Fair, is 266 feet tall. The actual ball itself houses five levels.

Famous Knoxvilleians or UT graduates include the late James Agee, Ralph Boston, Dixie Carter, Tamika Catchings, Kenny Chesney, Mary Costa, Phil Garner, the late William Henry Hastie, Todd Helton, Chamique Holdsclaw, Allan Houston, David Keith, Johnny Knoxville, Peyton Manning, the late Lindsey Nelson, Dolly Parton, Quentin Tarantino, and Tina Wesson.

Several companies have gotten their start or keep a headquarters in Knoxville, including ALCOA, Clayton Homes, IPIX, Pilot Oil, Regal Cinemas, Ruby Tuesday, Scripps Networks (HGTV, Food Network, DIY, Great American Country and Fine Living), Sea Ray Boats and the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA).

The 13-foot statue of Alex Haley in Morningside Park is thought to be the largest bronze statue of an African-American in the country.

ACADEMICS

THORNTON CENTER MISSION STATEMENT

"The University of Tennessee and its Athletic Departments are fully committed to the academic success of each student-athlete. The mission of the Thornton Center and its staff is to provide the academic support, the educational programs and the learning environment in which all student-athletes have the opportunity to achieve their academic and personal goals. The Center also will encourage the student-athletes' participation in the many enriching opportunities available at the University and in the surrounding community."

THORNTON ATHLETICS STUDENT LIFE CENTER

THORNTON CENTER QUICK FACTS

The Thornton Athletics Student Life Center, completed in the spring of 2001, is the hub for all academic support and student life activities for Lady Volunteer and Volunteer student-athletes.

The Thornton Center houses two study rooms: the Peyton Manning Study Area, located on the main level, and the Lyle Finley Study Area, located on the second floor. Each comfortably accommodates 60 students.

The David L. Howard & Family Computer Lab provides up-to-date technological facilities for University of Tennessee student-athletes. The computer lab houses 48 computers, three laser printers and five scanners.

CHAMPS

"Program of Excellence"

CHALLENGING ATHLETES' MINDS FOR PERSONAL SUCCESS

The CHAMPS program helps student-athletes realize higher academic achievement and increases the likelihood of retention. Student-athletes graduate and enter a chosen profession with a higher level of vision, maturity, knowledge, motivation and greater overall success. The Tennessee/CHAMPS LifeSkills program has also been honored with the Program of Excellence Award by the Division I (DIA) Athletic Directors Association. The award is given annually to a school that displays excellence in meeting the five components of a student-athlete's total development: academics, athletics, career and professional development and community service.

DURING THE 2008-09 SCHOOL YEAR...

- 138 Lady Vol student-athletes earned academic honors
- 61 percent of Lady Vol student-athletes earned a 3.0 GPA or higher
- Six Lady Vols earned various Academic All-America honors including Sarah Bowman being named both the United States Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association Indoor and SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year for the second consecutive season.
- The Lady Vol academic honorees sported nearly 50 different majors including accounting, advertising, animal sciences, audiology and speech pathology, biological sciences, business, civil engineering, exercise science, finance, graphic design, international business, journalism and electronic media, psychology, retail and consumer science, secondary education, sociology, special education, sport management and tourism.

EXCELLENCE IN ATHLETICS

The winningest coach in the game, Pat Summitt finished the 2008-09 season with 1,005 career wins, becoming the first collegiate coach, men's or women's, to win 1,000 games. Additionally, she has directed the Lady Vols to eight national titles, 14 Southeastern Conference titles and 13 conference tournament championships.

Eight former Lady Vols competed in the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games. The trio of Tamika Catchings, Kara Lawson and Candace Parker helped lead USA Basketball, while Monica Abbott pitched for USA Softball.

Christine Magnuson won the silver medal for the USA in the 100m butterfly and Fabiola Molina swam in the 100m backstroke for her native Brazil. Dee Dee Trotter ran in the 400m for the second consecutive Olympic Games as a member of Team USA and Rhian Wilkinson was a member of Team Canada's soccer team.

In 2008, former Lady Vol Candace Parker was awarded the Honda Cup as the NCAA female athlete of the year.

Tennessee's Director of Track & Field, J.J. Clark, served as an assistant coach for the U.S. women in Beijing. In 2009, Clark was named the NCAA Indoor National Coach of the Year.

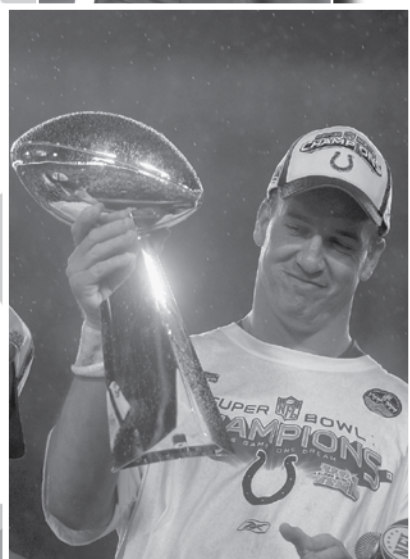

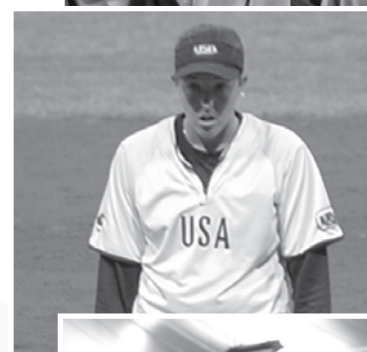

The Lady Vol doubles team of Caitlin Whoriskey and Natalie Pluskota earned ITA All-America honors after reaching the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament in 2009.

In 2008, former Lady Vol basketball player Nicky Anosike was named the NCAA Woman of the Year, which honors outstanding female student-athletes who have excelled in academics, athletics, community service and leadership. Anosike posted a 3.74 GPA in a triple major and won back-to-back national titles.

In 2007, former Vol Peyton Manning led his Indianapolis Colts to victory in the Super Bowl. In 2004, he set the then-NFL record with 49 touchdown passes.

Phillip Fulmer led the Vol football team to the 1998 National Championship and coached 18 first-team All-Americans during his career.

The Lady Vol distance medley relay team set a world record in claiming the NCAA Indoor title, while the outdoor 4x1500m squad broke the world record in a three-win weekend at the Penn Relays.

unters

- In 2009, the Lady Vol indoor track and field team won its second national title in the past five seasons. Senior Sarah Bowman captured the NCAA Indoor mile title in meet record time, in addition to being named the USTFCCA Division I Indoor Scholar-Athlete of the Year for the second straight season.

- The women's basketball team has won eight NCAA Titles and has had 19 players earn Kodak All-America status. In 2008, Candace Parker earned her second consecutive John R. Wooden Award to go with the 2008 Naismith Player of the Year and AP Player of the Year awards.

HISTORY OF LADY VOL ATHLETICS

Though female athletes have competed at UT since 1903, they have been managed by a separate administration only since 1976. For over 30 years, athletics for women at Tennessee have enjoyed an enormous amount of growth and success. The department has been a model for other women's programs across the country because of its competitive teams, outstanding facilities, quality staff members and excellent graduation rates among student-athletes.

Intercollegiate athletics for women at the University of Tennessee officially began during the 1976-77 academic year. The UT women's department had nine intercollegiate sports at that time, including basketball, cross country, field hockey, gymnastics, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball. In the inaugural year, the staff numbered 17 and a budget of $120,000 serviced approximately 75 athletes.

Despite the fact that field hockey and gymnastics are no longer a part of the department, growth in staff, budget and sports continually increased through the 1970s and into the 21st century. Under current athletics director Joan Cronan, nearly 85 staff members are on hand to support around 235 student-athletes. Cronan directs a department that posts an operating budget of nearly $11 million.

With the passage of the Restoration Act of 1988, the original mandates of Title IX have been met at Tennessee with the annexation of four sports. Golf was the first added to UT's plate in 1992. Rowing and softball joined the family during the 1995-96 season, and soccer, the 11th women's intercollegiate sport at Tennessee, began play in the fall of 1996.

The 2008-09 academic and athletic campaigns for the University of Tennessee Lady Volunteers culminated with 128 of 226 student-athletes earning academic honors (an amazing 61 percent) while the Orange and White teams placed second in the Southeastern Conference All-Sports standings. In the field of competition, the overall winning percentage for all Lady Vol teams during the 2008-09 season was an outstanding 66.1 percent. A total of 45 All-American citations were earned by 24 Tennessee student-athletes.

UT claimed the SEC and NCAA indoor track & field championships, the second national title for the Lady Vol indoor track & field team in the past five seasons. Ten of the 11 squads donning the Orange and White advanced to their respective NCAA Championships. The Lady Vol soccer team claimed the SEC Tournament title to earn its eighth straight NCAA tournament bid, while the doubles team of Caitlin Whoriskey and Natalie Pluskota reached the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament.

TOP-NOTCH FACILITIES

The University of Tennessee women's athletics training room is a state-of-the-art, 5,600 square-foot sports care center for female athletes that stacks up as one of the nation's best facilities devoted solely to women. It features a modality area and adequate space for functional rehabilitation, aerobic training, hydrotherapy and practice preparation (taping). Additionally, there are administrative areas, a private exam room and a private bathroom for drug testing.

The Lady Vol weight room is approximately 4,500 square feet and equipped primarily with free weights, which allow for optimal functional training and athletic enhancement. The Lady Vol weight room environment is one of both camaraderie and competition at the highest levels. This facility and its staff are dedicated to meet the unique needs of Tennessee's female student-athletes.

Fox Den Country Club is home to the Lady Vols' Mercedes-Benz Collegiate Championships. The par-72, 6,000-yard course presents players with numerous challenges. The fairways are narrow, tree-lined and well-bunkered. Additionally, three greens (#13, 16 and 18) are almost completely surrounded by water. The course received a million-dollar renovation in 2004 and hosts the Nationwide Tour's Knoxville Open.

Thompson-Boling Arena is one of the largest on-campus arenas in the country and has been one of the hardest places for visiting opponents to play since its opening in 1987. During the summer of 2007, the arena underwent major renovations including the addition of luxury suites, a center-court suspended scoreboard with video screens and remodeled concourses to make the facility more fan-friendly.

After 10 years in Stokely Athletics Center, the University of Tennessee volleyball team made the move to Thompson-Boling Arena for the 2008 campaign, where they posted an 11-3 mark in the first season in their new home. The Lady Vols hope to continue the home-court dominance they displayed in Stokely, where they amassed an impressive 98-34 record during their decade-long stay in the facility. The volleyball configuration at Thompson-Boling Arena will provide seating for up to 7,500 Rocky Top faithful.

Directly connected to the arena is the new Pratt Pavilion which opened in October 2007. The state-of-the-art practice facility houses two full-size gymnasiums, one for each of the men's and women's varsity basketball teams, an athletic training room, a weight room, a film study room and space to host recruits. The facility is a 70,000-square-foot structure with four short courts within each of the two full size courts, secured practice facilities and spacious locker rooms.

Tom Black Track at LaPorte Stadium is an eight-lane Olympic-style oval situated in the heart of campus. The venue, which has a Rekortan track that will be resurfaced prior to the 2010 SEC Championships, previously has been the site for several league meets, USA Track & Field Youth National Championships, the 1995 NCAA Championships, the 2006 NCAA Mideast Regional and the 2007 AAU Junior Olympics.

Lambert Acres Golf Club in Maryville, Tenn., serves as the cross country home for the Lady Vols. The 27-hole golf course is nestled in the foothills of the Great Smoky Mountains and boasts 9,525 yards of rolling hills with sloping grades throughout the entire layout. UT hosts the Tennessee Invitational and was home to the 2002 and 2006 NCAA South Regional, in addition to the 1998 SEC Championships.

The new Sherri Parker Lee Softball Stadium features a state-of-the-art press box, private boxes and VIP suites, a digital scoreboard with video playback capabilities, 1,581 seats and three locker rooms. The Lady Vols have a 6,900 square-foot training facility directly adjacent with a locker room, film room, player lounge, training room, kitchen and meeting rooms plus coaches offices. The dimensions are 220' to center field and 200' to left and right field.

The new Regal Soccer Stadium includes seating for approximately 3,000 fans, with player support facilities below the bleachers and a media area on the upper deck. Included are home and visiting team locker rooms and team meeting areas, a players' lounge for the Lady Vols, a video room with theater seating and concession areas on both the lower level and upper deck.

The $24.3 million Allan Jones Aquatic Center is the new home of the swimming and diving teams. Highlighted by an eight-lane, 50-meter-by-25-yard competition pool with a depth of eight feet from end to end, it will be one of the fastest collegiate pools in the country. A separate competition diving well features five platforms varying in height from 1/2-meter to 10 meters, and two one-meter and two three-meter springboards on the main competition end of the well. In addition, five three-meter and five one-meter auxiliary springboards will surround the diving pool. The facility hosted USA Diving's 2008 Olympic Team Selection prior to the Beijing Games.

The Varsity Courts at the UT Tennis Stadium feature a 2,500-seat stadium, six Lykold surface courts and overhead lights. The Goodfriend Tennis Center features four Decoturf surface courts, permanent seating for 500 spectators and men's and women's locker rooms. A new team building with a spacious team room, a large film study room and a display area for various awards will be included in upcoming renovations.

LADY VOL FACTS

- UT's softball team has made trips to the Women's College World Series in three of the past five years, including a second-place finish in 2007. In 2006, five women earned first-team All-America status and in 2007, Monica Abbott earned the prestigious Honda Sports Award for softball.
- The women's basketball team has won eight NCAA Titles and has had 19 players earn Kodak All-America status. In 2009, Head Coach Pat Summitt won her 1,000th career game, becoming the first collegiate coach, men's or women's, to win at least 1,000 games.
- In 2009, hoopster Shekinna Stricklen was named the U.S. Basketball Writers Association National Freshman of the Year.

JOAN CRONAN WOMEN'S ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Triumphant collegiate programs are able to distinguish themselves from their counterparts because of superiority on the field of competition and within the classroom.

Under the vision and direction of Women's Athletics Director Joan Cronan, a heavily-requested speaker on leadership and motivation on the national and local levels, the University of Tennessee Lady Vols have garnered a reputation as one of the most visible and respected programs throughout the nation.

UT's success in both the athletic and academic realms speak volumes to her decision-making and leadership ability, as demonstrated by her peers at the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) as they named her as president of their organization for 2008-09. Cronan is also a former president of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA).

Both organizations have also honored Cronan as well. She was selected by NACWAA to receive their 2005 Athletic Director of the Year award. In 2004, Cronan was honored by NACDA with their Southeast Region

Athletic Director of the Year award. In 2009, the United States Sports Academy elected Cronan to its Board of Trustee and she was presented with the Women of Achievement Award: "Women Who Make a Difference" by the International Women's Forum.

Now entering her 27th year at Tennessee, Cronan's continued admiration by her peers and the community is well deserved because of her efforts in facilitating the operation of a first-class program, which has finished in the top two in the Southeastern Conference Women's All-Sports Award from The New York Times Regional Newspaper Group for five of the past six years, including three first-place finishes. In three of the past five years, all 11 Lady Vol teams participated in postseason play. The UT women's athletics department achieved a seventh place finish in the 2007 Director's Cup - Tennessee's highest finish ever. She strives not only to keep UT as one of the premier women's athletics departments in the nation but also to improve women's athletics on a local, regional and national level.

Cronan joined UT from the College of Charleston in South Carolina, where she served as the athletics director for 10 years and was later inducted into that institution's hall of fame. Under Cronan, the school was selected as the No. 1 women's athletics program in the country in 1980 by the American Women's Sports Foundation.

Closer to home, Cronan is a past president of the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, is active on the boards of First Tennessee Bank and the YMCA, and has served as vice chair of the Leadership Knoxville board. She also works closely with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Athletes in Action, having served as a board member for the local FCA chapter and as a national trustee. In 2003, Cronan was inducted into the FCA Hall of Champions. Additionally, she finds time to be a deacon at Central Baptist Church-Bearden.

In 1998, Cronan's work earned her accord from the Knoxville Sports Hall of Fame, as she was named its Administrator of the Year. Other honors include chairing the 1991 Knoxville area United Way Fund Drive, serving as president of the Executive Women's Association, receiving the 1994 Toastmaster's International Communication and Leadership Award and earning the 1994 AOPi Citizen of the Year Award. In March of 1987, the Women's Basketball Coaches Association honored her hard work, dedication and success by presenting her with its leadership award. She also won the 1995 regional award for the National Association of Collegiate Women's Athletic Administrators.

Cronan has served on the NCAA's Executive Committee, Management Council, as well as the NCAA's Council, and is a member of the NCAA Championship Cabinet. She also has been a member of the Southeastern Conference Executive Committee.

As a former coach, Cronan served a two-year stint at Tennessee from 1968 to 1970. In 1969, she led the women's basketball team to an alternate berth in the first-ever National Invitational Collegiate Basketball Tournament. While at Charleston, she continued her success, not only as a basketball coach but in tennis as well. In 1981, she gave up coaching to devote her full-time attention to her duties as teacher and athletics director.

A graduate of LSU, Cronan earned her B.S. in 1966 and her M.S. in 1968, both in physical education. She was a fall 1995 inductee into LSU's Alumni Hall of Distinction. Currently an avid golfer and tennis player, Cronan was ranked as high as second in the South in doubles and is a former state and Southern doubles champion.

Cronan makes her home in Gettysville. She and her late husband Tom, who passed away on Aug. 18, 2006, after a valiant battle with pancreatic cancer, have two daughters; Kristi (Mrs. Rhett Benner) and Stacey (Mrs. Kent Bristow), both 1994 graduates of UT; three grandsons, Chase Thomas and Reed Kent Bristow, and Quinn Leighton Benner; and two granddaughters, Reese Lauren Benner and Larkin Ann Bristow.

ALL-SPORTS AWARDS

For three of the past six years, the University of Tennessee Women's Athletics Department, the Lady Vols, have claimed the Southeastern Conference women's all-sports award as presented by The New York Times Regional Newspaper Group. In 2009, the Lady Vols placed second with 72.50 points, an average of 9.06 across UT's eight sports.

In 2008-09, 10 of 11 teams sponsored by the UT women's athletics department (basketball, cross country, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball) participated in postseason play. Tennessee finished fourth overall, with 119.50 points.

The New York Times Regional Newspaper Group, which includes 14 newspapers throughout the Southeastern United States, awards trophies to the league school that captures each of the three all-sports titles. A first-place SEC finish is worth 12 points, second is given 11 points, and so on. A school's point total is divided by the number of sports it fields to arrive at the average. The New York Times Regional Newspaper Group took over coordination of the SEC All-Sports rankings in 1994-95. Prior to that, the league office tabulated the SEC All-Sports totals from 1973-94 and it was given out annually as the Bernie Moore Trophy.

UT WOMEN'S ATHLETICS DEPARTMENT MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Women's Athletics Department at the University of Tennessee is to provide opportunities for intercollegiate athletic participation and academic excellence at the highest possible level. Our goal is to enable outstanding student-athletes to maximize their potential both athletically and academically, while maintaining an environment which fosters sportsmanship and integrity.

UT ATHLETICS DEPARTMENT COMPLIANCE STATEMENT

Compliance with NCAA rules is one of the highest priorities for the University of Tennessee and our athletics department. As a member of the NCAA, the University of Tennessee is responsible for the actions of its boosters and fans. Even the best intentions may violate NCAA rules. We need your help in observing all SEC and NCAA regulations. Boosters and fans must be careful of their interaction with prospective and current student-athletes. Therefore, we encourage our boosters and fans to "Ask Before You Act" by contacting the Compliance Office staff: Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance Todd Dooley or Senior Associate Athletics Director Donna Thomas (865-974-4275).

REPRESENTATIVES OF ATHLETICS INTERESTS, BOOSTERS

There are many ways an individual can be classified as a representative of Tennessee's athletics interests. You are a "representative of The University of Tennessee's athletics interests," if you have been involved in a booster club, made financial contributions to the athletics program or booster organizations; provided benefits to an enrolled student-athlete; assisted in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes, or been involved in the promotion of UT athletics. Please note that once you have been identified as a representative of University of Tennessee athletics interests, you retain that identity indefinitely.

RECRUITING, EXTRA BENEFITS AND INDUCEMENTS

Only coaches and athletics department staff members can be involved in the recruiting process. All "athletics representatives" who are not employees of UT are prohibited from contacting a prospect by telephone, letter or in-person, on- or off-campus, for the purpose of encouraging participation in athletics at UT. It is not permissible for prospects, student-athletes or their relatives and friends to receive any extra benefits or special arrangements from a booster. Extra benefits include, but are not limited to: cash or loans in any amount; co-signing or arranging a loan; providing gifts of any kind (e.g. clothing, airline tickets, or holiday cards); providing special discounts for goods and services; use of an automobile.

If you are an established friend or neighbor of a prospect, you may have contact with the prospect provided you do not try to recruit the prospect on behalf of UT, and that such contacts are not made at the direction of UT's coaching staff. Please note that a prospect is a person who has started classes for the ninth grade.

EMPLOYMENT

The Compliance Office must keep written records verifying all student-athlete employment. NCAA rules stipulate that compensation may be paid to a student-athlete only for work actually performed and at a rate commensurate with the going rate in that locality for similar service. NCAA rules also prohibit employers from using the name or picture of a student-athlete to directly or indirectly advertise, recommend or promote the sale or use of a commercial product or service of any kind. Do not provide an honorarium to a student-athlete for a speaking engagement. Compensation may not include any remuneration for value or utility that the student-athlete may have for the employer because of publicity, reputation, fame or personal following that he or she has obtained because of athletics ability.

Hundreds of Lady Vol supporters, adorned in black tie and tennis shoes, gather at the Knoxville Convention Center for the annual Salute to Excellence. The event features a sit-down dinner, live and silent auctions, music and dancing. Salute is the biggest fundraising event of the year for the women's athletics department.

Friends of the Lady Vol program may bid on a large variety of items during the silent and live auctions.

Lady Vol fans that attend Salute get the chance to interact with some of the athletes and coaches from various teams, such as these two ladies with Pat Summitt.

LADY VOL HALL OF FAME

The five inductees in the Class of 2009 represent former student-athletes from three Lady Vol teams and an administrator. The honorees include Jane Anthony (Diving), Rosemarie Hauch (Track & Field), Kellie Jolly (Basketball), Dr. Nancy Lay (Administrator) and Tonya Lee (Track & Field). Each of these outstanding individuals exemplifies the true spirit of the Tennessee Lady Volunteers.

Enshrinement activities took place Friday evening (Oct. 2) at the Downtown Hilton, where a private induction ceremony was held at 6 p.m. A full day followed on Sat., Oct. 3, when the Hall of Famers met with the current athletes and staff of their respective former Lady Vol teams. Later that day, the celebration moved to Neyland Stadium, where the honorees were saluted during the Tennessee versus Auburn football game.

The new group of inductees joins eight prior classes of Lady Vol Hall of Famers. The Nov. 7, 2008, inductees included Heather Burgess Moore (swimming), Dr. Dedra Davis Wallace (track & field), Manisha Malhotra (tennis) and basketball players Dena Head and Jill Rankin Schneider. The Nov. 2, 2007, honorees included Shelia Collins (basketball), Carla McGhee (basketball), Bridget Jackson (softball), Nicole deMan (swimming), Dianne Shoemaker (volleyball) and the late Dr. Helen B. Watson (administrator).

The Sept. 22, 2006 honorees included Tracy Bonner (diving), Karla Driesler McQuain (swimming), Alisa Harvey (track & field/cross country), Bonnie Kenny (volleyball), Tonya Edwards (basketball) and Mary Ostrowski (basketball). The Sept. 30, 2005, class consisted of Missy Alston Kane Bemiller (track & field/cross country), Angie Boyd Keck (golf), Tanya Haave (basketball) and Lea Henry Manning (basketball). In 2004, the Oct. 22 honorees included former UT President Dr. Joseph E. "Joe" Johnson and athletes Jasmin Jones Keller (track & field/cross country, 1987-91), Robin Maine Bugg (volleyball, 1980-84), Nikki McCray Pinson (basketball, 1991-95), Jenny McGrath Weaver (swimming, 1988-92) and the late Ilrey Oliver Sparks (track & field, 1983-87). The Class of 2003 recipients included former UT Vice-Chancellor, the late Dr. Howard Aldmon and athletes Cindy Brogdon (basketball, 1977-79), April Chapple (volleyball, 1981-84), Elizabeth Brown Jarvis (swimming, 1981-84), Cathy Rattray (track & field, 1981-84) and Patricia Roberts (basketball, 1976-77). The Class of 2002's six Oct. 4 inductees were former Head Track & Field/Cross Country Coach Terry Crawford (1974-84) and athletes Catherine Byrne Maloney (swimming, 1989-92), LaVonna Martin Floreal (track & field, 1984-88), Cindy Noble Hauserman (basketball, 1978-81), Holly Warlick (basketball, 1976-80) and Patty Wiegand Pitcher (track & field/cross country, 1987-91).

The inaugural class selected for the Lady Volunteer Hall of Fame was inducted on Oct. 26, 2001. The 10 original members were former UT President Edward J. Boling, first-ever Lady Vol Athletics Director Gloria Ray (1976-83) and athletes Daedra Charles-Furlow (basketball, 1988-91), Joetta Clark Diggs (track & field, 1981-84), Benita Fitzgerald Mosely (track & field, 1980-83), Bridgette Gordon (basketball, 1985-89), Tracy Ignatosky Long (swimming, 1987-89), Peta and Paula Kelly (tennis, 1978-82) and Beverly Robinson Buffini (volleyball, 1981-83).

A selection committee, chaired by UT Lady Vol Senior Associate Athletics Director Donna Thomas, chose each of the hall of fame classes. For consideration of induction into the Lady Vol Hall of Fame, eligible athletes must have graduated from UT and exhausted their collegiate eligibility at least 10 years ago, while administrators and coaches are eligible for induction five years after their last service to UT.

The 2009 Inductees at the Lady Vol Hall of Fame Banquet (l-r): Dr. Mac McCorkle on behalf of his late aunt Dr. Nancy Lay, Jane Anthony, Tonya Lee, Rosemarie Hauch and Kellie Jolly.

TENNESSEE TRADITIONS

NICKNAME

The formation of the Women's Intercollegiate Athletics Department for the 1976-77 academic year prompted much discussion concerning a proper nickname for the distaff athletes. After long consideration and debate, it was decided the female student-athletes would be known as "Lady Volunteers" or "Lady Vols."

The University of Tennessee, as the state's land grant university, draws the nickname of its athletic teams (Volunteers) from the name most associated with the state. Tennessee acquired the name "The Volunteer State" in the early days of the 19th Century when General Andrew Jackson mustered large armies from his home state to fight the Indians and later the British at the Battle of New Orleans.

The name became even more prominent in the Mexican War when Governor Aaron V. Brown issued a call for 2,800 men to battle Santa Anna, and some 30,000 volunteered. The name "Volunteers" or "Lady Volunteers" is frequently shortened to "Vols" or "Lady Vols" for the men's and women's athletic teams.

MASCOT

The official mascot is Smokey, a rather pleasant blue tick coon hound that has been on the job since 1953. The dog is a native breed of Tennessee and is in a line of canines used for hunting raccoons. The present Smokey, the ninth in a line of such dogs provided by the family of the late Rev. W.C. Brooks of Knoxville, is appropriately called Smokey IX.

Smokey was chosen as a result of the 1953 Pep Club contest to select a mascot. At Lady Vol events, a human version of Smokey accompanies the cheerleaders.

CHEERLEADERS

Tennessee is one of a handful of women's athletics programs that sponsors its own varsity cheerleading squad complete with full grant-in-aid. The Lady Vol cheerleaders and mascot Smokey are chosen from a large try-out group in the spring.

SCHOOL COLORS

The colors Orange and White were selected by Charles Moore, a member of the first football team in 1891, and were later approved by a vote of the student body. The colors were those of the common American daisy which grew in profusion on "The Hill."

GRADUATION RATE

The Women's Athletics Department at the University of Tennessee is fully committed to the academic progress of each student-athlete in the Lady Vol program. When coaches recruit, they look for talented athletes who will work as hard in the classroom as they do during competition.

In fact, nearly all Lady Vol student-athletes who have remained with the program through their senior years have earned, or are in the process of earning, their degrees. In addition, 620 Lady Vols have been awarded a sum of 1,211 Academic All-Southeastern Conference citations after 47 student-athletes joined the ranks in 2007-08.

SPORTSMANSHIP

Good sportsmanship is a necessary ingredient for wholesome athletic competition. The University of Tennessee cherishes the reputation its fans, students and athletes have earned for sportsmanship and for extending hospitality to our visitors. The Athletics Department urges Lady Vols fans to conduct themselves in such a way that will enhance the University's reputation for providing a cordial atmosphere at sporting events.

ROCKY TOP

Over 40 years ago, a husband-wife song writing team, Boudleaux and Felice Bryant from Gatlinburg, Tenn., penned the song "Rocky Top." Since that time, the tune has emerged as the unofficial fight song for UT athletic teams.

Rocky Top

Wish that I was on ol' ROCKY TOP,
Down in the Tennessee hills;
Ain't no smoggy smoke on ROCKY TOP,
Ain't no telephone bills.
Once I had a girl on ROCKY TOP,
Half bear, other half cat;
Wild as mink, but sweet as soda pop,
I still dream about that.

[CHORUS]

ROCKY TOP, you'll always be
Home sweet home to me;
Good ol' ROCKY TOP--
ROCKY TOP Tennessee.

Once two strangers climbed ol' ROCKY TOP
Looking for a moonshine still;
Strangers ain't come down from ROCKY TOP,
Reckon they never will.
Corn won't grow at all on ROCKY TOP,
Dirt's too rocky by far;
That's why all the folks on ROCKY TOP
Get their corn from a jar.

[CHORUS]

Louisville Slugger/NFCA Second-Team All-American Tiffany Huff set new career single-season bests in 2009 for average (.399), runs (48), hits (63), home runs (eight) and RBIs (67) while helping Tennessee to a 40-18-1 mark and its sixth straight NCAA Regional berth. For her efforts she was chosen as one of the Top 25 Finalists for USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year.

LEE SOFTBALL STADIUM

In its continuing effort to enhance and upgrade the quality of the facilities available to its women's athletics teams, the University of Tennessee officially opened the Sherri Parker Lee Softball Stadium by handing the BYU Cougars an 8-2 defeat in the first-annual Tennessee Classic on February 5, 2008. The brand new venue also hosted a record 1,622 fans on April 12, for a high-profile exhibition against the U.S. Olympic Softball Team and the homecoming of former Lady Vol hurler Monica Abbott.

The Lee Softball Stadium features a state-of-the-art press box, a digital scoreboard with video playback capabilities, 1,614 seats and three locker rooms. Each team also has its own locker room facility under the stadium complex.

The stadium itself contains 600 reserved chair-back seats, as well as bleachers with back railings to provide a more comfortable viewing experience for fans of the Orange and White. The press box area includes two private hospitality suites and four VIP suites, with three separate rooms for TV and radio to utilize. The top floor of the complex includes an observatory, accessible by elevator, that is used primarily by TV crews.

Situated beside the stadium, the Lady Vol clubhouse is approximately 7,000-square feet with a team room, whirlpools, training area and conference room. It also includes a kitchen, 30-seat theater, trophy room and a recreation room that contains a big screen television, pool table, video games and comfortable furniture for the student-athletes. The locker room also has full laundry facilities, a mud room, 24 large lockers, shower and bathroom facilities. The staff also has access to a private office with a separate locker room and shower and bath area.

Connected to the clubhouse is one of the largest batting cage facilities in the nation. It contains four separate cages with each standing approximately 16 feet wide by 60 feet long. The cages are designed to provide plenty of room to walk or film between each, allowing the coaching staff room to stand nearby to provide any necessary instruction. All four cages are covered from the weather and possess high-quality Astroturf.
