TENNESSEE SOFTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

PREVIEW

2018 SEASON PREVIEW

Expectations are high for Tennessee softball heading into the 2018 season, and not just because the Lady Vols finished 2017 with 48 wins, a pair of top-15 national rankings and their fifth NCAA Super Regional appearance in the last six seasons. As Tennessee gears up for the new campaign, co-head coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly – a combined five decades of collegiate coaching experience between them – welcome the nation's No. 2 recruiting class (according to FloSoftball) and are coming off a fall slate that saw them go undefeated.

The Lady Vols have just four seniors on this year's squad, but with seven juniors and six sophomores returning, Tennessee will not be without experience. In all, 13 players with significant Div. I softball and NCAA postseason experience are on this roster. Tennessee has 17 returners and four newcomers on its 2018 squad.

RETURNERS

That recruiting class joins a cast of returners that is as stout as it is deep. The Lady Vols welcome back Meghan Gregg, the 2017 SEC Player of the Year and a National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) First Team All-American, who was a staple of the SEC's individual rankings. She led the conference and ranked top 15 nationally in batting average (.437), slugging (.838), on-base (.557), RBIs (79) and total bases (140) last season, while tying for second in doubles (18) and ranking third in home runs (15).

Gregg is the program's single-season leader in RBIs, having set that mark last season.

Joining Gregg among the returners will be reigning SEC Rookie of the Year Caylan Arnold, who had 20 wins last season – nine against ranked opponents – and her .141 opponents' batting average ranked seventh in the SEC. She was also a Top 25 finalist for the NFCA's Freshman of the Year award.

Aubrey Leach, who tied for the conference lead with 60 runs scored, also racked up 22 stolen bases last season en route to being named Second Team All-Southeast Region by the NFCA. Brooke Vines – who led the SEC with seven sac flies and was a Second Team All-SEC selection – was also named to the All-Southeast Region Second Team after ranking fourth in the SEC with 59 RBIs.

CJ McClain was fourth in stolen bases (30) last season, and she'll bring both speed and experience as one of just four seniors on the roster. Her .362 batting average was fourth-best on the team and ranked 12th in the SEC.

In the circle, Matty Moss had an SEC-high 45 appearances and she was second in the SEC with 26 wins. Her 193 strikeouts were fourth-most in the conference, and she was named Second Team All-SEC by the league's head coaches. Her 1.76 ERA was the best on the team and ranked 10th in the SEC.

She went 26-3 last season, and her three losses are the third fewest in a single season in program history.

Jenna Holcomb ended the 2017 campaign with a nine-game hitting streak – this after beginning the season with a 10-game hitting streak, the longest such streak for a freshman in program history. Her .365 batting average was third on the team and 11th in the SEC.

Chelsea Seggern was named to the SEC's All-Freshman Team last season after driving in 30 runs.

Among Tennessee's other returners: seniors Scarlet McSwain (UTL) and Sheridan Allen (OF); juniors Haley Bearden (INF/C), Savannah Huffstetler (INF), Katie Weimer (C/INF) and Abby Lockman (C); and sophomores Tianna Batts (OF), Cailin Hannon (INF/OF) and Treasury Poindexter (OF).

NEWCOMERS

Tennessee's crop of newcomers has plenty of hype surrounding it – FloSoftball declared the Lady Vols' recruiting class to be the second best in the nation. Of the four freshmen making their debut for Big Orange this season, three come to Rocky Top with All-America accolades. Infielder Brooke Langston headlines the group, as she was a four-time All-American and four-time OnDeck National Elite Player for American Heritage Plantation in Sunrise, Fla. She was also ranked among the top 100 players in the Class of 2017.

Pitcher Gabby Sprang was a two-time PGF All-American at Rosemount High in Rosemount, Minn., where she played both softball and basketball. Ranked No. 3 in FloSoftball's Hot 100, Sprang won the ASA Georgia State Tournament, the 2017 SoCal A's Invitational and was a 2017 runner-up at the USSSA Nationals.

Amanda Ayala, who played infield and at catcher, was also a four-time PGF All-American at DePaul Catholic in Bloomfield, N.J., where she also played in the All-America Game and played two seasons of basketball. She was also a member of the National Honor Society and played on the New Jersey Intensity travel team.

Ashley Morgan was the 2015 Gatorade Georgia Softball Player of the Year at Chapel Hill High School in Douglasville, Ga., where she led the team to its first-ever state championship. On top of being her graduating class' salutatorian, Morgan played softball and tennis.

SCHEDULE

The Lady Vols open the season with the Kajikawa Classic in Tempe, Ariz., Feb. 8-10, in a tournament field that includes Boise State, Arizona State, Western Michigan, San Jose State, UC Davis and Utah. The Michele Smith Tournament then awaits in Clearwater, Fla., on Feb. 16-18, where Tennessee will be joined by Oklahoma State, UMass, Florida Atlantic, USF and Marshall.

A trip to Cathedral City, Calif., follows on Feb. 22-24, when Tennessee will compete in the Mary Nutter Classic taking on BYU, Bethune-Cookman, UC Davis, Oregon State, Oregon and Northwestern.

Tennessee's home debut will be on March 2-4, when the Lady Vols host the Tennessee Invitational. The tournament field is set to include Charleston Southern, Toledo and South Alabama.

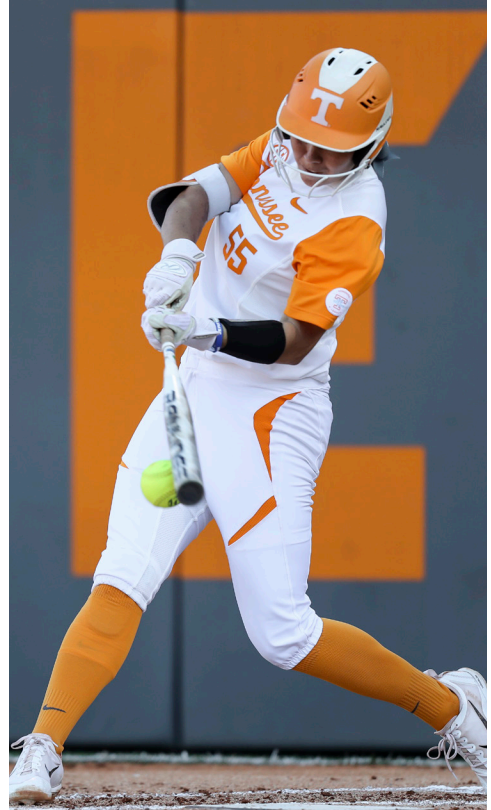

SEC play starts May 9-10 with a home series against Missouri.

March 14-17 will see the Lady Vols head all the way to Hawaii for the Bank of Hawaii Wahine Classic in a field that includes Cleveland State, North Dakota, Maryland and the host Rainbow Warriors.

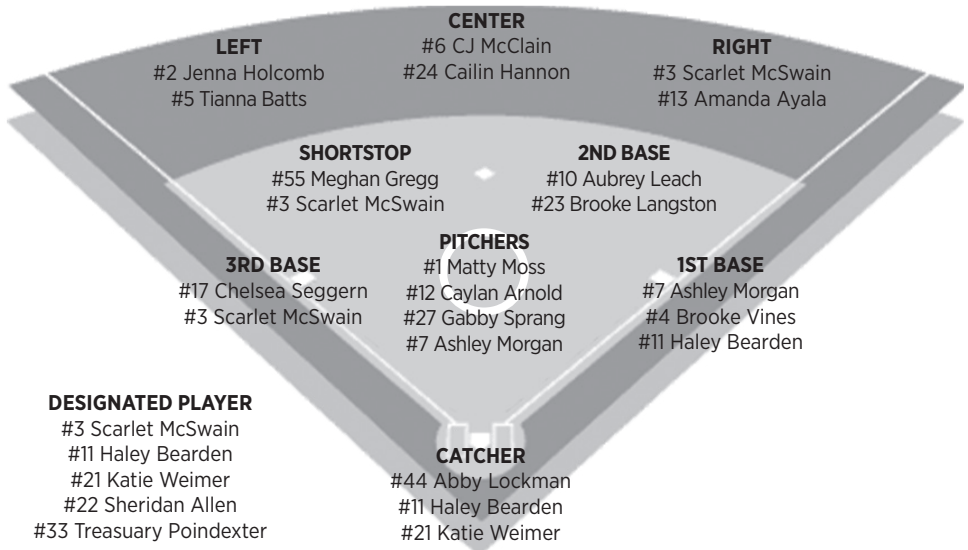

SEC play begins in earnest after that tournament, as the Lady Vols will host series against Georgia, LSU and Kentucky – while hitting the road for three-game stretches against South Carolina, Auburn, Alabama and Mississippi State.

Tennessee will also have non-conference home games against Tennessee State and East Tennessee State, while hitting the road on April 10 to take on Memphis.

The 2018 SEC Tournament will be May 9-12 in Columbia, Mo.

Senior shortstop Meghan Gregg has started all 183 games for UT over the past three seasons and was SEC Player of the year in 2017.

RALPH WEEKLY

CO-HEAD COACH, 17TH SEASON AT TENNESSEE

2011 NFCA HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

31st SEASON AS A HEAD COACH

CAREER RECORD: 1,303-426-2

CAREER RECORD AT UT: 802-245-2

At 1,303 career victories through 30 years as a collegiate head coach, Ralph Weekly continues to set the standard for success that his teams have championed through the years. The 2011 NFCA Hall of Fame inductee completed his 16th season as Tennessee's co-head coach in 2017.

The National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) honored his efforts throughout a distinguished, three-decade career that has spanned from his time in the U.S. Air Force through stops at Pacific Lutheran, Chattanooga and now Tennessee, with a 2011 induction into the NFCA Hall of Fame. Voted in by his coaching peers and with the organization consisting of just 49 previous inclusions, Weekly joined Ithaca Head Coach Deb Pallozzi in ceremonies at the annual NFCA Convention in Las Vegas, Nev., in Dec. of 2011.

Looking at his career from just a Tennessee standpoint, the honor would certainly appear well deserved. During their first 16 seasons at the University of Tennessee, Weekly and his wife, Karen, have transformed the Vols from a program searching for an identity into a formidable Southeastern Conference and national contender.

Taking over the reins at UT following a 24-35 campaign in 2001, the Weeklys have long since improved the Orange & White's fortunes. They guided the Vols through a three-year span from 2005-07 that saw the Big Orange top the 60-win plateau all three times and post both a runner-up finish (2007) and consecutive third-place national finishes at the Women's College World Series (2005, 2006). Tennessee enjoyed another impressive six-year stretch that featured four trips to the WCWS (2010, 2012, 2013, 2015) with another national runner-up finish (2013). Under the Weeklys' direction, UT has been to seven Women's College World Series in the last 13 years (2005, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2012, 2013, 2015) and made 14 NCAA Regional and nine NCAA Super Regional appearances.

The Lady Vols continued their streak of postseason appearances in 2017, reaching the NCAA Tournament for the 14th straight year after a third-place finish in the SEC for the second season in a row. UT's impressive regular season, which included a 20-game win streak, earned it the No. 8 national seed, marking the sixth time in program history that the Vols were a top-eight seed. The Big Orange went 3-0 in the Knoxville Regional to advance to the NCAA Super Regionals for the fifth time in six years and the ninth time overall. Tennessee's season ended one victory short of a trip to Oklahoma City as the Vols were defeated by Texas A&M in the Super Regionals, two games to one.

The 2017 season was full of milestone victories for Weekly, as he moved into sole possession of fourth place on the NCAA Division I all-time wins list with a 6-1 victory over NC State on April 2, passing longtime Louisiana-Lafayette and LSU head coach Yvette Girouard with his 1,286th career win. Weekly also became just the fourth coach in Division I history to reach the 1,300-win mark with a 5-0 victory over Longwood in UT's opening game of the NCAA Tournament on May 19.

Weekly helped coach junior shortstop Meghan Gregg to an historic season in 2017. Gregg broke the UT single-season RBI record with 79 and became the fifth player in program history to earn SEC Player of the Year honors. The Georgia native was also a top-three finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year award, just the fourth Volunteer to earn that distinction.

Under Weekly's watch, Tennessee advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 13th consecutive season and 14th time overall in program history in 2016, earning the No. 13 national seed. The Vols finished in a tie for third in the SEC regular-season standings thanks in large part to a high-powered offense that ranked among the national leaders in runs per game, batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage and triples. UT's 426 runs scored were the most since the 2006 team scored 437. UT also set a new program record with a .446 on-base percentage and blasted 57 home runs, marking the fourth straight year eclipsing the 50-homer plateau.

The Vols were nearly unbeatable at home, posting the top home record in the country during the regular season at 22-1. They finished the season 24-3 at Sherri Parker Lee Stadium with 16 of those wins coming via run rule. Senior pitcher/utility player Rainey Gaffin was named an NFCA All-American for the second straight season, becoming the 10th player in program history to earn All-America status multiple times. Tennessee tied a program record with five players earning NFCA All-Southeast Region honors (Gaffin, Meghan Gregg, Megan Geer, Lexi Overstreet, Brooke Vines). UT also had five players earn SEC postseason recognition as Gregg was an All-SEC first-team pick, Gaffin earned second-team honors, and Matty Moss, Aubrey Leach and Vines garnered All-Freshman team accolades.

Tennessee powered its way to its seventh Women's College World Series appearance in 2015. The team smashed a program-record 100 home runs with five players hitting 10 home runs or more. Fueled by power hitting and a balanced pitching staff, UT went 47-17 and made an impressive late-season run that included a runner-up finish in the 2015 SEC Tournament and a 5-1 record in NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals to punch its ticket to Oklahoma City. Rainey Gaffin became Tennessee's 14th NFCA All-American (31st selection) and Erin Gabriel became UT's 13th Academic All-American (23rd selection). Ralph Weekly became the ninth head coach to reach 1,200 wins when Tennessee crushed Mississippi State, 16-8 (6), on April 19.

The Vols enjoyed another strong season in 2014 with a roster comprised of accomplished seniors and a slew of young rising stars. UT went 46-12 in 2014 and made its seventh trip to the NCAA Super Regionals. Tennessee went 17-7 in SEC play to finish second in the conference in the regular season.

Senior Madison Shipman was named the Honda Sports Award Winner for Softball and capped off her Tennessee career with a banner senior season, earning SEC Player of the Year, NFCA Division I All-America first-team honors and Capital One Academic All-America first-team accolades. Shipman also became the first Tennessee student-athlete in any sport to win the prestigious Senior CLASS Award. Ellen Renfro shouldered the load as the team's ace in the circle and concluded her storied Tennessee career with another impressive season. Renfro was named the Capital One Academic All-American of the Year and also earned NFCA All-Southeast Region and Second Team All-SEC honors while posting some of UT's greatest career pitching numbers since Monica Abbott. Annie Aldrete broke onto the scene as a freshman sensation, earning NFCA Division I All-America second-team honors and co-winning the inaugural NFCA Division I National Freshman of the Year trophy. Senior Melissa Davin enjoyed her finest season as a Vol, hitting 14 homers, earning First Team All-SEC honors and NFCA Division I All-Southeast Region second-team honors.

The Tennessee softball team's 2013 season was truly one for the ages. The national runner-up Volunteers can be proud of a long list of individual, team and program accomplishments that highlighted one of the finest seasons in Tennessee history.

The team finished the year at 52-12, marking the eighth season with 50 or more wins in program history. The Vols made their sixth appearance in the Women's College World Series, all of which came in the last nine years (2005, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2012, 2013), and their second appearance in the Championship Series (2007, 2013). Tennessee went 16-6 in SEC play, finishing with the second-best regular-season record in the conference.

The Vols finished the season as the national runner-up and were ranked at No. 5 in the final regular season USA Today/NFCA Coaches Poll and the ESPN.com/USA Softball Poll.

Seniors Raven Chavanne and Lauren Gibson and junior Madison Shipman were all named to the 2013 NFCA Division I All-American first team. UT has had at least one NFCA All-American in 13 consecutive years (2004-16) with multiple All-Americans in eight of those years (2006, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014). The Tennessee coaching staff was named the 2013 NFCA Southeast Region Staff of the Year.

In an outstanding 2012 season, Tennessee made its fifth trip in eight years to the Women's College World Series. After a strong regular season which featured a 19-game winning streak into the SEC Tournament, The Vols hosted both the NCAA Regionals and the NCAA Super Regionals and thanks to a loaded lineup and a stellar pitching duo of sisters Ivy Renfroe and Ellen Renfroe, UT punched its ticket to Oklahoma City once again.

The 2012 squad boasted four Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Americans in first-team picks Lauren Gibson and Ellen Renfroe and second-team selections Raven Chavanne and Madison Shipman. Chavanne became just the third Vol to earn three All-American nods and she was also a top-10 finalist for the USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year for the second straight season.

In 2012, Tennessee featured the top defense in the nation -- a group that lead all NCAA Division I schools with a .982 fielding percentage. UT pitchers also combined for the 11th-best ERA in the country (1.58) and the team's winning percentage ranked eighth.

Starting off the 2011 season with a preseason rating of No. 4 in the USA Today/NFCA Coaches poll, boasting 13 returning letter-winners from the '10 WCWS squad and bringing in the ESPN/Rise No. 1-rated recruiting class, Weekly helped guide the Vols to a 49-12 overall record, the program's second SEC Tournament crown and an eighth consecutive berth to NCAA Regionals. The 2011 Tennessee squad set a new program record for single-season HR's with a staggering 69 to crush the previous high of 52 that was set back in 1996 and equaled in both 2002 & 2005. The Big Orange also led all of NCAA Division I in hitting with a .348 team batting average, was seventh in the country in scoring at 6.87 runs per game and 11th in fielding percentage (.974).

While the UT squad ultimately fell in the title round of the 2011 Knoxville Regional, a site that many experts deemed the toughest in the country, to eventual WCWS team Oklahoma State, Tennessee still boasted numerous accolades. Weekly picked up his incredible 1,000th career victory on April 10 with a 9-0 (5 inn.) win at Ole Miss. Sophomores Lauren Gibson (.420 avg., eight HR's, 63 RBI's) and Raven Chavanne (.455 avg., 32 RBI's, 33 stolen bases) as well as freshman Ellen Renfroe (26-7 record, 1.50 ERA, 259 K's in 201 innings) reaped Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-American honors, while Chavanne was also selected as a Capital One Academic All-American. Sophomore Kat Dotson (.401 avg., 10 HR's, 64 RBI's) joined that trio in receiving a Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Southeast Region selection, and Renfroe was tabbed as the SEC Freshman of the Year. Chavanne ended the year as the SEC's batting average champion counting all contests at .455 while Gibson won the SEC batting title counting league match-ups only at .451. Ellen Renfroe was the SEC ERA champion counting just league contests with a 1.42 ERA.

Following the season Chavanne, Dotson, Gibson and Kelly Grieve (.376 avg., 37 RBI's, 21 stolen bases) were each invited to try out for the 2011 USA Softball Women's Senior National Team, although Dotson was forced to withdraw prior to the selection camp because of an injury. By being chosen to the final team, Gibson and Grieve became the second and third Vols all-time (Monica Abbott) to join the prestigious squad.

The 2010 slate proved a magical ride for an incredibly young squad made up of 19 players, including a total of 15 freshmen and sophomores. The Vols registered a 49-15 overall record (making it eight straight 40+ win seasons) and truly peaked at the right time, rolling through their first seven games of the NCAA Tournament on the way to the program's fourth WCWS berth and another third place national finish. Along the way in NCAA action, Tennessee swept Ball State, Virginia and Louisville during the Knoxville Regional, ended No. 2 Michigan's two-year, 36-game home winning streak by sweeping two consecutive contests in the NCAA Ann Arbor Super Regionals and opened the WCWS with consecutive victories over No. 3 Arizona (9-0, 5 inn.) and No. 9 Georgia (7-5) before being eliminated by the Wildcats just one win from a berth in the best-of-three championship series.

The youthful 2010 squad was guided by a quartet of upperclassmen, including senior catcher Tiffany Huff (NFCA All-South Region choice, .312 avg., seven HR's, 45 RBIs), first baseman Erinn Webb (.318 NCAA Tourney avg., nine total HR's, 34 RBIs) and designated player Nicole Kajitani (three doubles, three HR's, 22 RBIs) as well as junior center field speedster Kelly Grieve (.373 avg., 12 doubles, 30 RBIs, 26 thefts). The team was bolstered, however, by a myriad of high-profile freshmen including Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-American outfielders Raven Chavanne (.455 avg., 64 runs, 95 hits, 26 RBIs, 37 steals) and Kat Dotson (SEC First-Team selection and Co-Freshman of the Year, .391 avg. 54 runs, 66 hits, 37 RBIs, 29 thefts), NFCA All-Southeast Region choices -- pitcher Ivy Renfro (31-6 record, 2.41 ERA, 15 complete games, 235 K's in 232.1 IP) and third baseman Jessica Spigner (.350 avg., 14 doubles, eight HR's, 58 RBIs) and SEC All-Freshman second baseman Lauren Gibson (.297 avg., eight doubles, six HR's, 39 RBIs).

During the 2009 season, Tennessee continued its seven-year string of 40+ win campaigns by putting up a 40-18-1 overall record. Once again the Big Orange earned a berth into the NCAA Tournament, the program's sixth straight, falling in the NCAA Regionals. Led by the offensive production of Second Team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-American Huff (.399 avg., 13 doubles, eight HR's and 67 RBIs), freshman All-Southeast region selection Spigner (UT freshman record 14 HR's) and sophomore All-Southeast Region choice Grieve (.393 avg., 79 hits, 39 stolen bases) as well as 28 victories in the circle from rookie right-hander Cat Hosfield, UT downed such foes as No. 21 Massachusetts, No. 6 Oklahoma, No. 18 LSU and No. 8 Georgia during the year.

The 2008 campaign was a success as the Weeklys guided the Big Orange to a fifth consecutive 50-win season at 50-16 overall and a fifth straight berth into the NCAA Tournament Field of 64. UT advanced to the championship game of its home-hosted NCAA Regional but dropped a 4-2 decision to eventual WCWS-participant Virginia Tech.

Under their tutelage, senior third baseman Tonya Callahan (.465 avg., 62 RBIs) broke the school record for single-season home runs with 16 in 2008 on the way to being chosen as Tennessee's second consecutive SEC Player of the Year and a finalist for both the USA Softball National Player of the Year trophy and the Honda Award for Softball while reaping UT's 15th Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America honor since 2004.

The 2007 season was the benchmark by which all future Vol teams will be compared as the squad finished 63-8 for a new program-best winning percentage of .887. A third-straight trip to the WCWS ended with Tennessee becoming the first Southeastern Conference program to reach the best-of-three NCAA Championship Series, eventually finishing as national runner-up with two wins over No. 4 Arizona and triumphs against No. 6 Northwestern and No. 7 Texas A&M. UT spent a record 11 consecutive weeks at No. 1 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll, becoming the first SEC school to reach the lofty top ranking in the league's softball history.

Four players were chosen as Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Americans in 2007 as Monica Abbott, Lindsay Schutzler, India Chiles and Callahan each garnered national honors. Abbott also picked up the prestigious USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year award and the Women's Sports Foundation's "Team Sport Athlete of the Year" trophy after registering a 50-5 record with a 0.68 ERA on the year. Chiles was the SEC's Player of the Year after hitting .459 with 44 stolen bases, while Abbott was the SEC's Pitcher of the Year. The Vols led NCAA Division I in fielding percentage, winning percentage and team ERA in 2007, while picking up its first SEC regular-season title with a 23-4 league mark. For their efforts the Weeklys were chosen as the South Division Speedline Coaches of the Year, for the second time in three seasons, and as the SEC Coaches of the Year.

In 2006, the Weeklys guided the Vols to a then-program-best single-season winning percentage of .836 after tallying a 61-12 record, UT's initial SEC Tournament title and WCWS victories over #1 UCLA, eventual national champion No. 3 Arizona and No. 9 Arizona State. Tennessee also led NCAA Division I in hitting by posting a staggering .342 team batting average. Pupils Sarah Fekete and Abbott led the country in batting average and pitching victories, respectively, while five Vols were chosen first-team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Americans.

The tools and chemistry were thought to be in place for success heading into the 2005 campaign, but youth abounded for UT with a roster completely devoid of a single senior. However, the 2005 season saw Tennessee reap its initial NCAA Regional and Super Regional titles and WCWS berth, tie a then-national record with 67 wins, finish third in the nation in both national polls, garner an impressive four Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America selections and break a long-standing national mark for single-season shutouts with 51. A Super Regional sweep over No. 4 Stanford in Palo Alto, Calif., and WCWS victories over perennial national stalwarts Arizona, Alabama and eventual national champion Michigan proved that Tennessee, under the direction of the Weeklys, was officially a power to be reckoned with in the softball world. For their efforts the UT coaches were chosen as the 2005 Speedline South Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

In 2004, the club notched a then school-record 55 victories on its way to its first Eastern Division title in five years and its initial trip to NCAA Regionals since 1999. Ralph and Karen were honored as the SEC Co-Coaches of the Year as UT finished with a final ranking of 16th from ESPN.com/USA Softball and boasted its first All-American in freshman hurler Abbott. The 6-3 lefthander registered a staggering 582 K's and 45 victories in her initial campaign at Rocky Top.

On March 3, 2014, Ralph Weekly and Karen Weekly were inducted into the Greater Chattanooga Sports Hall of Fame at the Chattanooga Convention Center.

The Weeklys and Kelly were part of a group of 19 inductees that included eight former athletes and coaches, past or present, at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga.

"Karen and I were very humbled to be recognized with so many great sports figures in Chattanooga this evening," Ralph Weekly said. "We spent seven wonderful years at UTC and are grateful for the support we received while coaching Lady Mocs softball. It was special to be inducted with Andy Kelly, a great VFL who has meant so much to the University of Tennessee. Honors such as this are not possible without tremendous players, coaches and administrators and we have worked with some of the best at both UTC and Tennessee."

The Weeklys were co-head coaches at Chattanooga from 1997-2001, going 223-97 in that span. Ralph Weekly was Chattanooga's head coach from 1995-96, leading UTC to a 63-36 record over those two seasons. Ralph Weekly led Chattanooga to its first Southern Conference title in 1996 and the Weeklys led the Mocs to SoCon titles in 1997, 1998, 2000 and 2001. UTC also captured five-straight regular-season championships from 1997-2001 under the direction of Ralph Weekly and Karen Weekly.

standings in 2003 and notched then the second-most victories in school history with a 45-25 mark. Despite being overlooked for a spot in the 64-team NCAA field, the Vols made their first appearance at the SEC Tournament in four years and eliminated top-seeded and seventh-ranked Georgia and Auburn before being ousted by WCWS participant Alabama. Year one of the Weeklys' rebuilding effort proved to be a preview of better things to come for the Big Orange, as the tandem directed the squad to a 35-25-1 overall record in 2002 and the club's first winning season since 1999. Having lost the squad's top four hitters from the previous campaign and with their projected pitching ace facing a reduced schedule in the circle due to a torn ligament in her elbow, expectations were minimal. After being picked last in the Eastern Division, Tennessee responded with the best start in the program's seven-year existence at 21-6-1.

Under Ralph's watchful eye in the batting cages, Adrianna Wilson capped off an outstanding senior campaign by being named to the 2002 NFCA All-South Region team. Chosen to the organization's second unit as a rookie in '99, the Cypress, Calif., native joined Carrie Swinford (1997, 1999) as the lone UT players to reap all-region accolades twice in her career. A first-team choice in her final season, Wilson became UT's initial all-region honoree since 1999.

On June 19, 2001, University of Tennessee Women's Athletics Director Joan Cronan charted a new course for the Vol softball program when she announced the Weeklys as the program's co-head coaches. Since that day, the duo has worked tirelessly toward building UT's reputation on the diamond. "What they accomplished during their tenure at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, including five regular-season Southern Conference championships and five SoCon Tournament titles, speaks for itself," said Cronan. "They have a passion for the sport of softball and a love for the state of Tennessee that will be an asset as they attempt to turn things around. This combination should help take our program to the next level in collegiate softball."

The Weeklys arrived in Knoxville after shaping Chattanooga's softball team into one of the top programs in the South upon their arrival in 1995. The tandem piloted the Lady Mocs to consecutive NCAA appearances in 2000 and 2001, the first two automatic NCAA Regional berths ever offered to the Southern Conference champion. In 2001, UTC sported an overall record of 49-18 and was an impressive 4-1 against SEC programs.

After accepting the co-head coaching position at UT, Ralph Weekly announced in August 2001 that he would be stepping down from his post as USA Softball National Teams Director, a position he had held since 1999. Weekly began his administrative stint with USA Softball in August 1998 after taking a leave of absence as head coach at Chattanooga.

Weekly, who is nationally and internationally recognized for his skills as a hitting clinician, was responsible for a variety of national team duties, including the general management of USA Softball's elite level international programs for both men and women. He also served as a liaison to the ASA National Team Selection Committee that is responsible for the elite level selection process for Olympic, Pan American Games and other USA Softball National Teams. In the summer of 2009, Weekly accepted a position on the USA Softball Women's National Teams Selection Committee where he will again assist in choosing the members to the prestigious U.S. softball squads from 2010-12.

Between 1998 and 2001, Weekly worked closely with the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC) to ensure that USA Softball received adequate funding for its programs and was fully equipped with the technical assistance it needed. He was also instrumental in securing the funding for the development of a state-of-the-art practice facility at the ARCO Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, Calif. This facility has been used by all of the USA Softball National Teams and will continue to be an integral part of USA Softball's success.

Success has followed Weekly throughout his career, especially as a coach for USA Softball Women's National Teams. Weekly served as the hitting coach and Team Leader for the 2000 U.S. Olympic team that claimed its second-consecutive gold medal in Sydney, Australia. Earlier, he served as the hitting and third-base coach for the U.S. contingent that brought home the gold at the '96 Summer Games in Atlanta. Under his direction, USA Softball captured the gold medal at the 1994 Pan American Games qualifier in Guatemala. He was an assistant on teams that won additional gold medals at the 1994 World Games in Nova Scotia, the 1995 Pan American Games in Argentina, the 1996 South Pacific Classic in Australia, the 1997 Canada Cup, the 1999 Pan American Games in Winnipeg, Canada, the inaugural 1999 America Cup in San Diego, the 2000 European Championship in Rome, Italy, and the 2001 Hawaii Cup in Honolulu.

As a coach and National Teams Director for USA Softball, Weekly has appeared in 13 international tournaments, winning a gold medal every time. His international coaching record is a sterling 130-15 (.897). He is the only person in collegiate softball to have served on a pair of Olympic gold-medal-winning coaching staffs and to have claimed two national championships as a head coach. He also directed all facets of the USA Men's National Team from 1999-2001.

He has developed High Performance Seminars funded by the USOC to establish consistent coaching philosophies for youth coaches throughout the world. In addition, Weekly has produced several instructional tapes through USA Softball, including "Fundamentals for Future Champions." In December of 2006, Ralph and co-head coach Karen Weekly released a new instructional video entitled "Hitting the Tennessee Way." In April 2012 the Weeklys will issue a new book entitled "High-Scoring Softball," the definitive guide to offensive play.

He guided the women's East team to a gold medal at the 1994 U.S. Olympic Festival in St. Louis, Mo., one year after taking the North team to a bronze medal in the Festival held in San Antonio, Texas.

Previously, Weekly was the head coach at Pacific Lutheran in Tacoma, Wash., from 1986-94, where he compiled a 310-93 (.769) record and became one of the most successful coaches in NAIA history. In his nine years at PLU, his teams made eight trips to the NAIA Tournament, returning with national championships in 1988 and 1992, and a second-place finish in 1990. His 1991 team was ranked first in the country throughout the season.

Weekly was named the National Softball Coaches Association (NSCA) Small College Coach of the Year in 1993 and was a two-time NAIA National Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1992. Incredibly, he was chosen as the NAIA West Region Coach of the Year eight times in a nine-year span, covering the 1986, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1993 and 1994 campaigns.

During the fall, he also served as an assistant football coach at PLU from 1986-93 under legendary head coach Frosty Westerling. During his time spent working on the gridiron, he helped the Lutes to three national title games and a pair of NAIA national championships (1987 & 1993). In his last year he was able to share the title-winning experience with his son Marc Weekly, an All-American quarterback and a player responsible for 10,977 yards of career total offense.

Weekly began his coaching career in the United States Air Force, where he accumulated many championships at a variety of levels. He piloted squads to three All-Armed Forces World Titles, seven state titles at the United States Softball Association (USSA) level and three USSA Western World Championships.

He has served as the chairperson of the Gatorade High School Player of the Year Selection Committee and has published numerous articles in softball magazines and journals. In addition, Weekly has been a featured speaker at the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) national convention and at various national baseball and softball clinics around the nation. He currently serves as the co-director of the Cherry Hill, N.J., Coaches Clinic which is the largest such event in the country. Weekly is the founder and director of National Hitting Camps, where he has taught thousands of youths in all 48 of the contiguous states and throughout Canada over the past 20+ years. He was also the Director of ASA Gold Medal Camps that featured hands-on training from U.S. Olympic staff and players from 1996-2001. Well-respected internationally as a clinician, he has represented the USA in clinics in Argentina, Australia, Canada, China, Italy, New Zealand and Taiwan.

Having retired from the United States Air Force in 1986, Weekly was the commander of the Air Force Office of Special Investigations at McChord Air Force Base in Washington state in his last duty assignment. He was awarded the Bronze Star and Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry for outstanding service in the Vietnam War. Weekly is a 1973 graduate of Arizona State University and has completed course work for a master's degree in international relations from Pacific Lutheran.

CO-HEAD COACH, 17TH SEASON AT TENNESSEE

FORMER USA SENIOR NATIONAL TEAM ASSISTANT COACH

22nd SEASON AS A HEAD COACH

CAREER RECORD: 1,025-342-2

CAREER RECORD AT UT: 802-245-2

A 21-year collegiate softball head coaching veteran boasting 1,025 career wins, Karen Weekly and her husband Ralph completed their 16th season at the helm of the Tennessee softball program. Having guided UT to a staggering 802 victories and five top three national finishes (2005, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2013) and seven appearances (2005, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2012, 2013, 2015) in the Women's College World Series since arriving to resuscitate the program prior to the 2002 season, Karen and Ralph have made it evident that tireless recruiting and solid coaching by the experienced Weeklys and their staff can produce huge dividends to the UT softball program.

The Lady Vols continued their streak of postseason appearances in 2017, reaching the NCAA Tournament for the 14th straight year after a third-place finish in the SEC for the second season in a row. UT's impressive regular season, which included a 20-game win streak, earned it the No. 8 national seed, marking the sixth time in program history that the Vols were a top-eight seed. The Big Orange went 3-0 in the Knoxville Regional to advance to the NCAA Super Regionals for the fifth time in six years and the ninth time overall. Tennessee's season ended one victory short of a trip to Oklahoma City as the Vols were defeated by Texas A&M in the Super Regionals, two games to one.

Weekly reached milestone win No. 1,000 in 2017 with a 9-2 victory over North Carolina on March 22. She became just the 33rd head coach in Division I history to accomplish that feat.

Weekly helped coach junior shortstop Meghan Gregg to an historic season in 2017. Gregg broke the UT single-season RBI record with 79 and became the fifth player in program history to earn SEC Player of the Year honors. The Georgia native was also a top-three finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year award, just the fourth Volunteer to earn that distinction.

She also helped guide the Vols' young pitching staff, which finished 22nd nationally with a 1.98 ERA despite relying primarily on a sophomore and a freshman. Sophomore Matty Moss posted career highs with 26 wins, 14 complete games, seven shutouts and 193 strikeouts en route earning All-SEC second team honors. Freshman Caylan Arnold became just the fourth player in program history to be named SEC Freshman of the Year, doing so by recording 20 wins and 144 strikeouts, both the most by a Vol freshman since Ellen Renfroe in 2011.

Arnold also had a staggering nine wins over ranked opponents, including victories over Oklahoma, Alabama and Florida, who have combined to win the past six national titles.

Under Weekly's watch, Tennessee advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 13th consecutive season and 14th time overall in program history in 2016, earning the No. 13 national seed. The Vols finished in a tie for third in the SEC regular-season standings thanks in large part to a high-powered offense that ranked among the national leaders in runs per game, batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage and triples. UT's 426 runs scored were the most since the 2006 team scored 437. UT also set a new program record with a .446 on-base percentage and blasted 57 home runs, marking the fourth straight year eclipsing the 50-homer plateau.

The Vols were nearly unbeatable at home, posting the top home record in the country during the regular season at 22-1. They finished the season 24-3 at Sherri Parker Lee Stadium with 16 of those wins coming via run rule. Senior pitcher/utility player Rainey Gaffin was named an NFCA All-American for the second straight season, becoming the 10th player in program history to earn All-America status multiple times. Tennessee tied a program record with five players earning NFCA All-Southeast Region honors (Gaffin, Meghan Gregg, Megan Geer, Lexi Overstreet, Brooke Vines). UT also had five players earn SEC postseason recognition as Gregg was an All-SEC first-team pick, Gaffin earned second-team honors, and Matty Moss, Aubrey Leach and Vines garnered All-Freshman team accolades.

Tennessee powered its way to its seventh Women's College World Series appearance in 2015. The team smashed a program-record 100 home runs with five players hitting 10 home runs or more. Fueled by power hitting and a balanced pitching staff, UT went 47-17 and made an impressive late-season run that included a runner-up finish in the 2015 SEC Tournament and a 5-1 record in NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals to punch its ticket to Oklahoma City. Rainey Gaffin became Tennessee's 14th NFCA All-American (31st selection) and Erin Gabriel became UT's 13th Academic All-American (23rd selection). Karen Weekly became the 42nd head coach in NCAA history to reach 900 career wins with in a 14-3 (5) triumph over North Dakota State on March 7, 2015.

The Vols enjoyed another strong season in 2014 with a roster comprised of accomplished seniors and a slew of young rising stars. UT went 46-12 in 2014 and made its seventh trip to the NCAA Super Regionals. Tennessee went 17-7 in SEC play to finish second in the conference in the regular season.

Senior Madison Shipman was named the Honda Sports Award Winner for Softball and capped off her Tennessee career with a banner senior season, earning SEC Player of the Year, NFCA Division I All-America first-team honors and Capital One Academic All-America first-team accolades. Shipman also became the first Tennessee student-athlete in any sport to win the prestigious Senior CLASS Award. Ellen Renfro shouldered the load as the team's ace in the circle and concluded her storied Tennessee career with another impressive season. Renfro was named the Capital One Academic All-American of the Year and also earned NFCA All-Southeast Region and Second Team All-SEC honors while posting some of UT's greatest career pitching numbers since Monica Abbott. Annie Aldrete broke onto the scene as a freshman sensation, earning NFCA Division I All-America second-team honors and co-winning the inaugural NFCA Division I National Freshman of the Year trophy. Senior Melissa Davin enjoyed her finest season as a Vol, hitting 14 homers, earning First Team All-SEC honors and NFCA Division I All-Southeast Region second-team honors.

The Tennessee softball team's 2013 season was truly one for the ages. The national runner-up Vols can be proud of a long list of individual, team and program accomplishments that highlighted one of the finest seasons in Tennessee history.

The team finished the year at 52-12, marking the eighth season with 50 or more wins in program history. The Vols made their sixth appearance in the Women's College World Series, all of which came in the last nine years (2005, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2012, 2013), and their second appearance in the Championship Series (2007, 2013). Tennessee went 16-6 in SEC play, finishing with the second-best regular-season record in the conference.

The Vols finished the season as the national runner-up and were ranked at No. 2 in the final USA Today/NFCA Coaches Poll and the ESPN.com/USA Softball Poll.

Seniors Raven Chavanne and Lauren Gibson and junior Madison Shipman were all named to the 2013 NFCA Division I All-American first team. UT has had at least one NFCA All-American in 13 consecutive years (2004-16) with multiple All-Americans in eight of those years (2006, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014). The Tennessee coaching staff was named

Was selected to the U.S. Women's National and Junior Women's National coaching pool for 2011-12. Helped the U.S. Senior National Team to the World Cup of Softball VII title and a silver medal in the ISF Fastpitch World Championships. She also served as the coach of the USA Elite team.

the 2013 NFCA Southeast Region Staff of the Year.

In an outstanding 2012 season, Tennessee made its fifth trip in eight years to the Women's College World Series. After a strong regular season which featured a 19-game winning streak into the SEC Tournament, The Vols hosted both the NCAA Regionals and the NCAA Super Regionals and thanks to a loaded lineup and a stellar pitching duo of sisters Ivy Renfroe and Ellen Renfroe, UT punched its ticket to Oklahoma City once again.

The 2012 squad boasted four Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Americans in first-team picks Lauren Gibson and Ellen Renfroe and second-team selections Raven Chavanne and Madison Shipman. Chavanne became just the third Vol to earn three All-American nods and she was also a top-10 finalist for the USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year for the second straight season.

In 2012, Tennessee featured the top defense in the nation -- a group that lead all NCAA Division I schools with a .982 fielding percentage. UT pitchers also combined for the 11th-best ERA in the country (1.58) and the team's winning percentage ranked eighth.

Starting off the 2011 season with a preseason rating of No. 4 in the USA Today/NFCA Coaches poll, boasting 13 returning letter-winners from the '10 WCWS squad and bringing in the ESPN/Rise No. 1-rated recruiting class, Weekly helped guide the Vols to a 49-12 overall record, the program's second Southeastern Conference Tournament crown and an eighth consecutive berth to NCAA Regionals. The 2011 Tennessee squad set a new program record for single-season HR's with a staggering 69 to crush the previous high of 52 that was set back in 1996 and equaled in both 2002 & 2005. The Big Orange also led all of NCAA Division I in hitting with a .348 team batting average, was seventh in the country in scoring at 6.87 runs per game and 11th in fielding percentage (.974).

While the UT squad ultimately fell in the title round of the 2011 Knoxville Regional, a site that many experts deemed the toughest in the country, to eventual WCWS team Oklahoma State, Tennessee still boasted numerous accolades. Sophomores Lauren Gibson (.420 avg., eight HR's, 63 RBI's) and Raven Chavanne (.455 avg., 32 RBI's, 33 stolen bases) as well as freshman Ellen Renfroe (26-7 record, 1.50 ERA, 259 K's in 201 innings) reaped Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-American honors, while Chavanne was also selected as a Capital One Academic All-American. Sophomore Kat Dotson (.401 avg., 10 HR's, 64 RBI's) joined that trio in receiving a Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Southeast Region selection, and Renfroe was tabbed as the SEC Freshman of the Year. Chavanne ended up as the SEC's batting average champion counting all contests at .455 while Gibson won the SEC batting title counting league match-ups only at .451. Ellen Renfroe was the SEC ERA champion counting just league contests with a 1.42 ERA.

Following the season Chavanne, Dotson, Gibson and Kelly Grieve (.376 avg., 37 RBI's, 21 stolen bases) were each invited to try out for the 2011 USA Softball Women's Senior National Team, although Dotson was forced to withdraw prior to the selection camp because of an injury. By being chosen to the final team, Gibson and Grieve became the second and third Vols all-time (Monica Abbott) to join the prestigious squad.

The 2010 campaign proved a magical ride for an incredibly young Tennessee squad made up of 19 players, including a total of 15 freshmen and sophomores. The Vols registered a 49-15 overall record (making it eight straight 40+ win seasons) and truly peaked at the right time, rolling through their first seven games of the NCAA Tournament on the way to the program's fourth WCWS berth and another third place national finish. Along the way in NCAA action, Tennessee swept Ball State, Virginia and Louisville during the Knoxville Regional, ended No. 2 Michigan's two-year, 36-game home winning streak by sweeping two consecutive contests in the NCAA Ann Arbor Super Regionals and opened the WCWS with consecutive victories over No. 3 Arizona (9-0, 5 inn.) and No. 9 Georgia (7-5) before being eliminated by the Wildcats just one win from a berth in the best-of-three championship series.

The youthful 2010 squad was guided by a quartet of upperclassmen, including senior catcher Tiffany Huff (NFCA All-South Region choice, .312 avg., seven HR's, 45 RBIs), first baseman Erinn Webb (.318 NCAA Tourney avg., nine total HR's, 34 RBIs) and designated player Nicole Kajitani (three doubles, three HR's, 22 RBIs) as well as junior center field speedster Kelly Grieve (.373 avg., 12 doubles, 30 RBIs, 26 thefts). The team was bolstered, however, by a myriad of high-profile freshmen including Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-American outfielders Raven Chavanne (.455 avg., 64 runs, 95 hits, 26 RBIs, 37 steals) and Kat Dotson (SEC First-Team selection and Co-Freshman of the Year, .391 avg., 54 runs, 66 hits, 37 RBIs, 29 thefts), All-Southeast Region choices -- pitcher Ivy Renfroe (31-6 record, 2.41 ERA, 15 complete games, 235 K's in 232.1

IP) and third baseman Jessica Spigner (.350 avg., 14 doubles, eight HR's, 58 RBIs) and SEC All-Freshman second baseman Lauren Gibson (.297 avg., eight doubles, six HR's, 39 RBIs).

As a team the powerful Tennessee offense recorded a .321 batting average, scored 6.4 runs-per-game, tied the program record for triples with 19 and blasted 51 HR's, coming up just one big fly short of tying the school single-season mark.

During the 2009 season, Tennessee continued its string of 40+ win campaigns by putting up a 40-18-1 overall record. Once again the Big Orange earned a berth into the NCAA Tournament, the program's sixth straight, falling in the NCAA Regionals. Led by the offensive production of Second Team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-American Tiffany Huff (.399 avg., 13 doubles, eight HR's and 67 RBIs), freshman All-Southeast region selection Jessica Spigner (UT freshman record 14 HR's) and sophomore All-Southeast Region choice Kelly Grieve (.393 avg., 79 hits, 39 stolen bases) as well as 28 victories in the circle from rookie right-hander Cat Hosfield, UT downed such foes as No. 21 Massachusetts, No. 6 Oklahoma, No. 18 LSU and No. 8 Georgia during the year.

The 2008 campaign was a success as the Weeklys guided the Big Orange to a fifth consecutive 50-win season and a fifth straight berth into the NCAA Tournament Field of 64. UT advanced to the championship game of its home-hosted NCAA Regional but dropped a 4-2 decision to eventual WCWS-participant Virginia Tech.

Under their tutelage, senior third baseman Tonya Callahan (.465 avg., 62 RBIs) broke the school record for single-season home runs with 16 on the way to being chosen as Tennessee's second consecutive SEC Player of the Year and a finalist for both the 2008 USA Softball National Player of the Year trophy and the Honda Award for Softball while reaping UT's 15th Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-America honor since 2004. Senior shortstop Kenora Posey and freshman infielder Jen Lapicki each earned All-SEC accolades. Karen's slap-hitting standouts, Lillian Hammond and Kenora Posey, were responsible for .362 and .349 averages, respectively, 96 total runs scored and 67 combined stolen bases.

The 2007 season was the benchmark by which all future Vol teams will be compared as the squad finished at 63-8 for a new program-best win percentage of .887. A third-straight trip to the Women's College World Series ended with Tennessee becoming the first Southeastern Conference program to reach the best-of-three NCAA Championship Series, eventually finishing as national runner-up with two wins over No. 4 Arizona and single triumphs against No. 6 Northwestern and No. 7 Texas A&M. UT spent a record 11 consecutive weeks at No. 1 in the

ESPN.com/USA Softball poll, becoming the first SEC school to reach the lofty top ranking in the league's softball history.

Four players were chosen as Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Americans in 2007 as Monica Abbott, Lindsay Schutlzler, India Chiles and Callahan each garnered national honors. Abbott also picked up the prestigious USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year award and the Women's Sports Foundation's Team Sport Athlete of the Year trophy after going 50-5 with a 0.68 ERA on the year. Chiles was the SEC's Player of the Year after hitting .459 with 44 stolen bases. The Vols led NCAA Division I in fielding percentage, winning percentage and team ERA in 2007 while picking up its first SEC regular-season title. For their efforts the Weeklys were South Division Speedline Coaches of the Year, for the second time in three seasons, and as the SEC Coaches of the Year. Karen Weekly also presided over her 500th career coaching victory on February 24, 2007, when UT downed Michigan State, 3-0, at the Palm Springs Classic in Cathedral City, Calif.

Weekly's tutelage helped guide Tennessee to a then-program-best .836 winning percentage in 2006 at 61-12 overall, a No. 2 national ranking during the regular season and a second consecutive trip to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla., where UT finished third nationally and downed #1 UCLA, #3 Arizona and #9 Arizona State. One of her slap-hitting pupils, senior outfielder Sarah Fekete, led NCAA Division I in batting average at a staggering .500 (110-of-220) as the UT squad combined to lead the country in team hitting at .342. In all three of the top five hitters in the Southeastern Conference by average in 2006 learned under the watchful eye of Karen and co-head coach Ralph Weekly, as Fekete, Chiles (.437) and Schutzler (.409) gave the league statistics a definitive orange tint. Five members of Weekly's team also were selected as first-team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-Americans to lead NCAA Division I in that category.

UT also achieved another program-first in '06 as the Orange & White raced through the field at the annual SEC Tournament to pick up its first league tournament title with a 3-0 victory over #12 LSU at the UGA Softball Stadium in Athens, Ga. UT hosted the NCAA Regional round at home for the second straight year and added the Super Regionals to the Tyson Park slate after roaring through the opening round a perfect 3-0. The Big Orange faced a serious challenge as defending national champion Michigan ventured to Knoxville for the best-of-three Super Regional series. After downing UM 5-3 and then dropping a tough 5-1 decision to the Wolverines in game two, UT prevailed 1-0 in the finale to send the Orange and White back to the WCWS.

Throughout the Weeklys tenure at Tennessee, the Big Orange have been known for tremendous speed, skyrocketing batting averages and outstanding fielding percentages, as UT led the nation in the latter category in both 2004, 2005 and 2007.

The Orange's and White rapid climb from a 24-win program in 2001 to a national power reached a new peak during a stunning 2005 run to a third-place finish at the Women's College World Series and a national record-tying 67 victories. UT led the nation in fielding percentage (.982), shutouts (51), strikeouts (787) and victories (67) while setting program marks for runs scored (404), hits (678) and stolen bases (127) and tying the single-season record for home runs (52). Tennessee's regular-season efforts permitted the program the opportunity to host the NCAA Regionals at Tyson Park for the first time in UT history. The home field advantage paid dividends as the Vols went 3-0 to advance to NCAA Super Regionals in Palo Alto, Calif., against Stanford. A two-game road sweep over the powerful Pac-10's Cardinal granted Tennessee its first trip to the WCWS. For their efforts the coaches were chosen as the Speedline South Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

The Weeklys were honored as the SEC Coaches of the Year by their peers after directing UT to its first Eastern Division championship since 1999 during the 2004 campaign. The Orange was awarded the second seed at NCAA Regional No. 6 in Ann Arbor, Mich., and collected its first two victories in just the program's second trip to NAAs. The Vols sported an overall mark of 55-16 and captured tournament titles at their own Lady Vol Classic, the New Mexico State Kick-Off Invitational, the Paradise Classic hosted by the University of Hawaii and the State-Line Classic. Tennessee also reached the semifinal round of the SEC Tournament for the second straight time.

UT continued to climb the ladder of success in 2003, capturing three tournaments and posting several victories over ranked opponents, including league rivals Alabama, Georgia, LSU and South Carolina. Perhaps the most impressive breakthrough occurred as the Vols secured the sixth seed for the Southeastern Conference Tournament and matched their top performance at the event with a couple of triumphs while facing elimination. The Orange were involved in a record four extra-inning tilts during their journey to Plant City, Fla., and managed to oust Auburn and the league's number-one team, Georgia, after dropping regular-season series to the Tigers and Bulldogs.

Continued evidence of the team's progress was shown by a 34-point increase in batting average from 2002 to 2003 under the Weekly regime and a healthy boost to the squad's power numbers, including the most total bases (787), hits (543), runs batted in (280), runs (310) and doubles (102) since the 1999 edition slugged its way to the Eastern Division crown and NCAA Regional No. 3 in Seattle, Wash.

In their debut campaign, the Weeklys presided over the biggest turnaround in UT's softball history, as the team rebounded from a lackluster 24-35 effort to finish 35-25-1 in 2002. The Vols showed marked improvement in every area - offensively, defensively and in the pitching circle. Despite just one returning starter in her natural position, the rest of the orange-clad players enjoyed a tremendous upswing under the Weeklys' tutelage. In fact, UT registered a team batting average that was 40 points higher than the previous season and recorded a school-record fielding percentage of .965 after shaving a massive 44 errors off its '01 figure. In addition, the club's offensive statistics jumped across the board, including a school-record-tying 52 home runs.

Upon arriving in Knoxville, Weekly brought a wealth of experience gained from being an All-America softball player at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Wash., a national title-winning assistant coach at PLU in 1988 and 1992, and a championship head coach at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga for five seasons. During her tenure, the Lady Mocs claimed five straight Southern Conference regular-season trophies, four SoCon Tournament plaques and the team made successive appearances at the 2000 and 2001 NCAA Regionals.

After Karen served as an assistant coach at UTC in 1995 and 1996, the Weeklys combined their efforts to direct the Lady Mocs to the top of the SoCon in their first two campaigns in charge of the program together. The 1997 season featured an overall record of 32-19, while the '98 edition registered a school-record 47 victories and three players earned first-team All-South Region accolades.

While Ralph was on a leave of absence from Chattanooga to handle his Olympic duties in 1999 and 2000, the Lady Mocs' program continued to make steady improvement under Karen's tutelage. In her initial season as head coach in '99, UTC led the SoCon with a .303 batting average and a 1.47 earned run average en route to a school-best 48-18 overall record to go along with a spotless 16-0 mark in regular-season conference play. Weekly guided a record six individuals to first-team All-SoCon accolades that season and Chattanooga became the inaugural team to sweep all of the postseason honors issued by the conference office.

In 2000, the Lady Mocs were 47-27 and earned the program's first NCAA Regional berth by winning three-straight games after a loss to Furman to take the SoCon Tourney and secure the initial automatic bid for the conference into the 48-team regional field. Sent to the No. 1 Regional held in Seattle, Wash., the Mocs fell to Mississippi State, 6-1, before bouncing back to knock out Army, 6-4, in nine innings. The squad would later be eliminated at the event after suffering a 2-1 defeat to nationally-ranked Utah. UTC's pitching staff was the key to its success, sporting an impressive 1.58 earned run average with every hurler having an ERA of 1.80 or lower.

In rolling to a 49-18 overall mark in 2001, including four wins in five outings against SEC competition and a triumph over then-third-ranked Alabama in Tuscaloosa, the Weeklys helped the Mocs to another NCAA appearance following Southern Conference regular-season and post-season crowns. Six more Lady Mocs etched their names on the first-team all-league list after UTC racked up an 18-2 ledger in SoCon play and the Weeklys were selected as league Coaches of the Year.

Karen was Ralph's top assistant at Pacific Lutheran from 1987-94 after earning her bachelor's degree in history and political science magna cum laude from the University in 1987. The duo spearheaded the Lutes to NAIA national championships in 1988 and 1992 and a runner-up finish in 1990.

At PLU, where she was known as Karen Kvale, Weekly excelled as a student-athlete. She was named Female Athlete of the Year and led NAIA hitters with a .440 batting average during her All-America senior season. Her skills were not limited to the diamond either, as she was a three-year starter on the basketball team.

With a 3.8 grade point average, Weekly was a two-time Academic All-American, garnering honors in 1986 and 1987. In both '85 and '86, she was the recipient of the prestigious Pacific Lutheran University Undergraduate Fellow/Division of Social Sciences Award.

She later earned her juris doctor degree from the University of Washington's School of Law in 1990. At Chattanooga, Weekly was an assistant professor in the College of Business Administration from August 1995 until May 2001, where she taught a course entitled the "Legal Environment of Business." Between 1996-99, she served on the UTC Faculty Committee on Student Rating of Faculty Instruction. In addition, Weekly was an administrative law judge and a member of the school's Gender Equity Committee from 1996 until her departure from Chattanooga. She remains an administrative law judge at the University of Tennessee.

Previously, she was an associate attorney at Grant, Konvalinka & Harrison in Chattanooga from November 1994 to August 1995 after working in a similar capacity at Williams, Kastner & Gibbs in Seattle from September 1990 through November 1994.

Weekly holds memberships in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA), where she has held several committee positions, and the Academy of Legal Studies in Business. She is a member of the American Bar Association and is permitted to practice law in the states of Tennessee and Washington.

Having traveled all over the nation to spread her knowledge about the sport, Weekly has been a co-owner and director of National Hitting Camps since 1988. She also has been a lead instructor at ASA Elite Hitting Camps in Midland, Texas, and in Oklahoma City, Okla., and has been a featured speaker at several coaching clinics around the country. She has spoken at the "Be the Best You Are" clinic in Cherry Hill, N.J., during each of the last six years, covering such topics as developing power and bat speed, the short game, scouting opponents and developing a rapport between the coach and players.

In December 2007, Weekly released a video entitled "The Tennessee Slap Attack," an instructional tape teaching the fundamentals of slap-hitting. In April 2012 the Weeklys will issue a new book entitled "High-Scoring Softball," the definitive guide to offensive play.

Weekly is currently serving as a member of the coaching pool for the various teams associated with the prestigious USA Softball program. She traveled to the Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, Calif., in June 2011 to help with the USA Softball Women's Senior National Team Selection Camp.

MARTY MCDANIEL

ASSISTANT COACH, 14TH SEASON AT TENNESSEE

23rd SEASON AS A COLLEGIATE COACH

16th SEASON AS A COLLEGIATE ASSISTANT COACH

CAREER RECORD (HEAD AND ASSISTANT): 1,009-295-1

CAREER RECORD AT UT: 667-179-1

Lauded for his teaching ability and his overall knowledge of the game, Marty McDaniel continues to provide his outgoing personality and boundless enthusiasm to the Vol softball program. McDaniel completed his 13th season as assistant coach on the staff of Tennessee co-head coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly. A former head coach at Division II Armstrong Atlantic State University (Ga.), McDaniel's experience as both a coach and as a men's fastpitch veteran has been invaluable to the UT efforts.

During his time on the UT softball staff, McDaniel has been vital to the program's stunning success. His pitching pupils such as standouts Monica Abbott, Megan Rhodes, Ashton Ward, Cat Hosfield, Ivy Renfroe, Ellen Renfroe, Erin Gabriel and Rainey Gaffin have helped extend Tennessee's streak of 40+ win seasons to 15 following the 2017 campaign. During his 13 years at Tennessee (2005-17) his pitching staffs have led the nation in ERA and strikeouts (2007), set a national record for shutouts (51 in 2005) and helped the Big Orange to 710 total victories, an average of 54 wins-per-season.

McDaniel helped mold a young pitching staff into one of the best in the country in 2017. The Vols finished 22nd nationally with a 1.98 ERA despite relying primarily on a sophomore and a freshman. Sophomore Matty Moss posted career highs with 26 wins, 14 complete games, seven shutouts and 193 strikeouts en route earning All-SEC second team honors. Freshman Caylan Arnold became just the fourth player in program history to be named SEC Freshman of the Year, doing so by recording 20 wins and 144 strikeouts, both the most by a Vol freshman since Ellen Renfroe in 2011. Arnold also had a staggering nine wins over ranked opponents, including victories over Oklahoma, Alabama and Florida, who have combined to win the past six national titles.

The Lady Vols pitching staff ranked among the top 25 nationally throughout most of the 2016 season and finished the year with a 2.25 team ERA, marking the 16th straight season that they have had a team ERA under 3.00. Under McDaniel's watch, senior Erin Gabriel had the best season of her career, setting career highs in wins (21), ERA (2.36), games started (30), appearances (38), innings pitched (145.1), complete games (eight) and strikeouts (178). Fellow senior Rainey Gaffin also had another stellar campaign in the circle, ranking among the national leaders with five saves while posting a 9-3 record and a 2.32 ERA. McDaniel also played a large role in developing freshman standout Matty Moss, who led the pitching staff with a 1.68 ERA and seven wins in SEC play.

Tennessee thrived with its by-committee pitching approach in 2015, making its seventh Women's College World Series appearance behind the quartet of Rainey Gaffin, Erin Gabriel, Gretchen Aucoin and Cheyanne Tarango. Gabriel enjoyed the best season of her career, going 17-8 with team highs of six shutouts, 140.0 innings and 158 strikeouts. Gabriel threw a 16-strikeout, seven-inning no-hitter against Illinois State on March 10 and tossed a five-strikeouts, five-inning perfect game against ETSU on March 24. She also played a major role in UT's late-season run to the SEC Tournament title game and the WCWS. Gaffin was named Tennessee's 14th NFCA All-American and 31st All-America selection after going 17-4 with a 2.17 ERA and 121 strikeouts over 125.2 frames. Gaffin was outstanding as both a starting pitcher and a reliever, peaking at the end of the season to lead UT to the WCWS.

In 2014, senior Ellen Renfroe shouldered the load as UT's ace, becoming just the third pitcher in program history to record 30 wins in a season while helping lead Tennessee to the NCAA Super Regionals for the seventh time. The pitching staff of Renfroe, Erin Gabriel, Rainey Gaffin and Cheyanne Tarango combined for 21 shutouts and 382 strikeouts over 376.2 innings. Gaffin, a sophomore in her first season as a collegiate pitcher, threw the 45th no-hitter in Tennessee history, shutting down Wright State over six hitless frames with six strikeouts on March 5, 2014. Renfroe finished her career ranked second in several Tennessee career pitching categories, including ERA (1.65), starts (129), wins (102), shutouts (41), innings pitched (872.0) and strikeouts (1,005).

Sisters Ivy Renfroe and Ellen Renfroe were outstanding in the circle once again in 2013, leading Tennessee back to the Women's College World Series for the sixth time in nine years. UT posted 22 shutouts in 2013 and limited opponents just two runs per game. The team's ERA of 1.84 ranked 13th in the nation. Ellen Renfroe shined in the WCWS, earning All-Tournament honors after dominating complete-game performances against Florida and Washington and a courageous 13-strikeout, 11-inning duel with Oklahoma's Keilani Ricketts in the Championship Series. Powered by the 1-2 punch of sisters Ivy Renfroe and Ellen Renfroe in 2012, the Tennessee pitching staff posted the 11th-best ERA in the nation (1.58). Ellen Renfroe went on to earn her second Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America honors after another stellar year in the circle. Ivy Renfroe raised her game to another level in the NCAA Tournament, compiling a 6-2 record with a 1.29 ERA and 39 strikeouts in 48.2 innings of work to carry UT to the Women's College World Series.

With the addition of freshman Ellen Renfroe to a Vol staff already made up of returning sister Ivy and Hosfield, the UT pitching staff registered a standout 2011 campaign. The trio combined to rate second in the league in team ERA (1.86) and 23rd in the category over all of NCAA Division I. Ellen Renfroe led the Southeastern Conference in ERA (counting league contests only) with a sterling 1.42 mark on her way to SEC Freshman of the Year accolades and posted a 26-7 overall mark (fourth in the SEC in wins) to go along with a 1.50 ERA and 259 strikeouts over 201 innings. Included in her efforts were a 20-strikeout effort during a 2-1 (10 inn.) victory over #22 Auburn and seven total 10+K contests. Ivy Renfroe finished seventh in the league in triumphs, as part of her 19-4 record, and ninth in ERA (counting all games) at 2.07 while posting 157 K's in 152.1 frames of effort. The Jackson, Tenn., native also twirled her second (vs. Mississippi State - April 22) and third (vs. Liberty - May 20) career no-hitters during her sophomore campaign. As a junior Hosfield added a 4-1 mark with a 2.92 ERA over 38.1 innings of work with 24 strikeouts.

Faced with an young and inexperienced staff consisting of returning sophomores Cat Hosfield and Jessica Spigner and two incoming freshmen, Ivy Renfroe and Andi Williamson, McDaniel helped the 2010 group settle in to post 49 wins, the league's fifth-best ERA at 2.78 and 12 shutouts. His new pupil Renfroe truly thrived under his direction, posting a 31-6 mark with a 2.41 ERA, 15 complete games and 235 strikeouts over 232.1 innings of work. She became the first Vol pitcher not named Monica Abbott to win 30 or more games in a single season and post a victory at the annual Women's College World Series. The 6-0 right hander registered perhaps her finest effort during NCAA Super Regionals at No. 2 Michigan, flirting with a no-hitter for 6.1 frames before settling for a two-hit shutout to end the powerful Wolverines two-year, 36-game home winning streak. Renfroe also three-hit eventual national finalist No. 3 Arizona in UT's WCWS opener as Tennessee rolled past the Wildcats, 9-0 (5 inn.). Hosfield was solid from the circle in support in 2010, registering a 17-8 overall mark with a 3.27 ERA with six complete games and 130 K's in 171.1 innings. During her campaign, the Murfreesboro, Tenn., product posted victories over high-profile foes including No. 15 Texas, Illinois State, Ole Miss, Auburn, No. 4 Florida, Louisville and No. 2 Michigan. Typically a third baseman, Spigner recorded a pitching win over Austin Peay and picked up a crucial save during a 5-4 home triumph over No. 9 Georgia, while Williamson allowed just a single tally in five innings of work over three appearances.

Rookie righthander Hosfield led the way for the Vol pitching crew in 2009, posting a 28-13 record with six solo shutouts and 221 strikeouts in 257.1 innings of work. She tied for 12th in NCAA Division I in wins, second in the Southeastern Conference in victories, rated fourth in strikeouts (221) and 11th in opposing batting average (.222), while posting high-profile victories over No. 6 Oklahoma (twice), No. 15 Massachusetts, No. 18 LSU (twice), No. 25 Kansas and Auburn (three wins). Included in her SEC All-Freshman campaign was a hard-fought 2-1 defeat to eventual national champion Washington, during which Hosfield allowed just two runs on seven hits in a duel with 2009 USA Softball National Player of the Year Danielle Lawrie. Forced to look further into the staff as the long '09 season wore on, he helped senior Danielle Pieroni to an 8-3 mark over 57 innings of work after she entered the year with all of 22.2 frames of collegiate pitching experience. He even helped freshman Spigner, who hadn't thrown in a pitch in nearly a year, contribute 16 innings, including a big 6-3 win at No. 8 Georgia.

His charges in the circle helped guide Tennessee to a fifth consecutive 50-win campaign in 2008 while posting 17 shutouts, a 2.10 team ERA and 431 K's in 437.0 innings of work. Freshman righthander Ward spent the season among the SEC win leaders and finished 25th in NCAA Division I in victories by going 27-5 overall with a team-best 1.88 ERA and 187 strikeouts. Senior Rhodes was responsible for 23 triumphs, 213.1 innings of work and 233 K's. The Nashville, Tenn., native concluded her time wearing the Orange & White firmly entrenched in UT's top four in career wins, K's, shutouts, ERA, appearances, starts and winning percentage. Junior Pieroni demonstrated improvement in the circle during 2008 by working 19.1 frames and highlighting her year with 2.2 innings of scoreless relief in an exhibition contest against the U.S. Olympic Softball Team.

During the 2007 drive to a runner-up national finish at the Women's College World Series, McDaniel helped the Tennessee staff to an NCAA-best 0.88 ERA to go along with 63 wins, 41 shutouts and a national single-season record strikeout-per-seven-inning ratio of 13.55 on 910 combined K's over 470 innings of work. His pupils in the circle, Abbott and Rhodes, finished first (14.1) and fourth (11.7), respectively, in K-per-seven-inning ratio in the country. Senior Abbott led the way in single-season strikeouts with an NCAA record 724. She completed her stay in the Orange & White as the NCAA career leader in wins (189), strikeouts (2,440), shutouts (112), appearances (253) and innings pitched (1,448.0). Rhodes struck out 186 batters over just 111.2 frames of work while going 13-3 with a 1.50 ERA. The duo also combined to hurl eight no-hitters, including three perfect games (two for Abbott, one for Rhodes). For his efforts, he was named as part of Speedline's South Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the second time in three seasons (2005).

His pitching staff continued their stellar work in the circle during UT's run to the WCWS in 2006 by leading the league in ERA at 1.12 with a 61-12 overall record, 37 shutouts and 682 strikeouts. Junior All-American Abbott led the nation in victories with 44 and broke the SEC career records for K's and triumphs during the regular-season after posting a 44-10 mark with 531 K's. Sophomore Rhodes continued her rapid improvement by going 17-2 overall with a 1.40 ERA and 148 strikeouts in just 120 innings of work. The staff hurled three consecutive no-hitters during the title-winning USF adidas Tournament and almost got a fourth straight as a bloop single by UMass in the fifth inning of the championship contest broke up the amazing bid.

Working primarily with the pitching and catching positions during the record-setting 2005 campaign, McDaniel instructed a group of hurlers that broke a long-standing national record for shutouts with 51 blankings while helping guide UT's initial advance into the WCWS. The first-year McDaniel's charges combined for 67 victories in the circle with an overall ERA of 0.79 and 787 strikeouts in 547.0 innings. Sophomore Abbott became the program's first two-time, first-team All-American after leading the nation in victories (50), shutouts (34), strikeouts (603) and innings pitched (392.0). Rookie pitcher Rhodes posted 14 victories and 125 K's on her way to SEC All-Freshman honors.

Granted the responsibility of building the softball program at Armstrong Atlantic State (Ga.) from its infancy in 1998, McDaniel turned the AASU varsity program into a winning machine that captured its initial Peach Belt Conference championship in 2000, garnered four NCAA Championship berths (2000, 2002, 2003, 2004) and achieved a No. 1 ranking in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) poll during the 2000 campaign. His conference-winning squad in 2000 picked up an impressive 51 victories against just seven losses and registered an 18-2 league mark in PBC play.

With the assistance of four All-Americans, McDaniel's 2004 AASU squad advanced all the way to the South Atlantic Regional. Record-setting senior pitcher Katya Eronina picked up her second-consecutive first-team NFCA All-America honor while a pair of seniors, Stacey Richardson and Kissy Stepanova, garnered second-team All-America awards. Junior second baseman Stacy Oliver was selected as a third-team All-American.

During the 2003 campaign, AASU utilized the pitching of NFCA All-America Eronina, the Division II leader in earned-run-average, to advance to the South Atlantic Region final. The Pirates achieved a final ranking of 16th and completed the season at 41-13 overall.

All-Americans Annie Sells and Richardson helped guide the 2002 version of McDaniel's Pirates to a No. 2-seeding at the South Atlantic Regional and another final ranking of 16th. AASU registered the best won-lost record in Division II with a 40-7 mark while Richardson was the NCAA's DII home run champion with a school-record 16 round-trippers. The squad finished with a 15-2 mark for a second-place finish in the Peach Belt Conference.

The 2000 South Atlantic Coach of the Year, McDaniel has had experience on the Weeklys' staff before as he joined AASU from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. During his two-plus year stint on the staff of then Head Coach Ralph Weekly, also a U.S. Olympic Assistant Coach, Chattanooga won two Southern Conference Championships.

A native of Chattanooga, Tenn., McDaniel received his Bachelor of Science degree from Carson-Newman College in 1989 and also assisted with the baseball team as a coach for two seasons. As a top-rated pitcher, McDaniel has made numerous all-region squads in the sport of men's fastpitch softball.

During 2008 he was honored in a ceremony at Armstrong Atlantic State as a coaching inductee into the softball program's "Wall of Fame."

McDaniel and his wife, the former Kelly Stewart, currently reside in Knoxville, Tenn. The pair have a child, Lindsey Jo, who was born during the 2005 softball campaign.

INDIA CHILES

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH, 1ST SEASON AT TENNESSEE

1ST SEASON AS A COLLEGIATE ASSISTANT COACH

NFCA ALL-AMERICAN (2007)

2007 SEC PLAYER OF THE YEAR

ESPN THE MAGAZINE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN (2007)

DRAFTED BY THE AKRON RACERS ON THE NPF (2007)

India Chiles is entering her first season as assistant coach with the Tennessee softball program, returning to Rocky Top and co-head coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly.

Chiles, a former All-American for the Lady Vols (2004-07), will primarily work with the slappers and outfielders. She joins the staff after working as a pharmaceutical sales representative for Johnson & Johnson. She is the current owner and operator of SlapperNation, LLC.

As a player, Chiles helped Tennessee reached the Women's College World Series three times (2005, 2006 and 2007) and the NCAA Tournament four times from 2004-07. The Lady Vols also made the WCWS championship game in 2007 and finished the season as national runners-up. Chiles has been regarded as one of the best slappers in the game and for her efforts was named SEC Player of the Year in 2007.

The Louisville, Ky., native started 176 games over her four seasons, while recording 204 hits and scoring 157 runs.

Her senior season was her most impressive season, in which she finished with a .459 batting average with 57 runs, 89 hits, 44 stolen bases, an on-base percentage of .502 and a slugging percentage of .500. In addition to her SEC Player of the Year honor, Chiles was named Louisville/NFCA First-Team All-American, WCWS All-Tournament Team and All-SEC Tournament Team honors.

She was also invited to the USA Softball Team Selection Camp and was drafted by the Akron Racers of the National Pro Fastpitch in 2007.

Chiles was also a great student in the classroom while on Rocky Top, having been named an ESPN the Magazine Academic All-American, SEC Spring Honor Roll (2006, 2007, 2008), and Academic All-SEC (2004, 2008) honoree.

MELISSA BROWN

DIRECTOR OF SOFTBALL OPERATIONS

Melissa Brown returns to the University of Tennessee, where she is entering her first season as the Director of Softball Operations, serving on the staff of co-head coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly.

She takes the position after spending last season as a volunteer assistant coach at LSU. Her job duties will include the coordination, planning and execution of the program's day-to-day activities, as well as coordinating team travel plans and meals and supervising the team's managers.

During her time with the Tigers, the program made the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Women's College World Series. With her as a volunteer assistant coach in 2017, the Tigers made an amazing run to the Women's College World Series by going on the road for a Super Regional in Tallahassee, Fla., where they defeated then-No. 4 Florida State to advance to their third straight WCWS.

Prior to her time at LSU, Brown completed her Master's degree in Sports Psychology and Motor Behavior at Tennessee while serving as a manager under the Weekly's for two seasons.

As a player at Tennessee, Brown helped the Big Orange reach the Women's College World Series three times (2010, 2012 and 2013) and the NCAA Tournament four times. The Valencia, Calif., native started 154 games over her four seasons, while recording 126 hits and scoring 107 runs.

HOLLY FRANTZ

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Holly Frantz is in her ninth year as a Tennessee assistant strength & conditioning coach and she enters her sixth season working with the UT softball team.

Frantz, who also works with the volleyball team, designs and implements comprehensive programs that maximize the student-athletes' strength, speed, agility, quickness and conditioning.

She arrived in Knoxville in the summer of 2009 after working as an assistant strength & conditioning coach at Xavier University from 2005-09. She was previously a strength & conditioning intern at the University of Notre Dame from 2004-2005.

Frantz earned her masters in sports administration from Bowling Green State University in 2004. She earned her bachelors in sports management at BGSU in 2002, where she also played softball as a four-year scholarship student-athlete.

SAMMIE CHARTERS

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Sammie Charters is in her third season as an Assistant Athletic Trainer with Tennessee Softball. She previously worked as a Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer at UT with the women's tennis team.

A native of Chesapeake, Virginia, Sammie received her Bachelors of Science in Athletic Training from James Madison University in 2012. There she worked with the James Madison women's Soccer, football and softball teams. After James Madison, she went on to work as an Intern Athletic Trainer at Missouri State University for the 2012-2013 season. There she was responsible for the health care of the field hockey and women's cross country teams.

Sammie then received her Master of Science in Recreation and Sport Management at the University of Tennessee in May 2015. Sammie is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA), Southeast Athletic Trainers' Association (SEATA) and Tennessee Athletic Trainers' Association (TATS).

HISTORY & RECORDS

DR. BEVERLY DAVENPORT

UT KNOXVILLE CHANCELLOR

Second Year at Tennessee
Western Kentucky, 1977

Beverly Davenport is the eighth chancellor of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, the state's flagship public research university.

She joined the Volunteer family on Feb. 15, 2017, after serving for more than three years at the University of Cincinnati, most recently as interim president and before that as senior vice president and provost.

At UC, Davenport initiated plans that resulted in record-breaking enrollment as well as increases in student retention and graduation rates. She directed resources to improve advising, career education, online learning, and study abroad programs. Collaborating with the athletics department, she helped make it easier for student-athletes to keep up with their studies through technology and innovative classroom spaces.

As UC's provost, she launched several faculty hiring programs. A $60 million cluster hiring initiative recruits world-class faculty for interdisciplinary collaborations in emerging areas of study. Programs for strategic hiring opportunities and dual career assistance resulted in strong growth in the numbers of minority and female faculty.

Davenport served at Purdue for more than 11 years, most recently as vice provost for faculty affairs. Before that she was a senior fellow on the provost's staff at Virginia Polytechnic University. She worked for Kansas for 11 years, most recently as a divisional dean for social sciences. She began her academic career at Kentucky, where she rose to the rank of associate professor and chaired the Department of Communication.

An accomplished scholar, she has published three books on issues of work life and workplace civility and has authored more than 100 papers. She has served as principal investigator or co-principal investigator on more than $19 million of funded research projects and has been recognized for advancements in technology-infused learning and health communication, including telemedicine and telehospitality.

Davenport earned a PhD in communication with a minor in organizational behavior from Michigan, and bachelor's and master's degrees in communication and journalism from Western Kentucky. She also completed Harvard's Institute for Management and Leadership in Higher Education.

She is a native of Bowling Green, Kentucky, and has two grown children: daughter Sloan Sypher, who graduated from Vanderbilt with a degree in biomedical engineering and is a graduate student at Cincinnati's School of Design, and Ford Sypher, who studied international affairs at Columbia and served in the 75th Ranger Regiment of the U.S. Army. He now lives in New York City.

DR. DONALD BRUCE

FACULTY ATHLETIC REPRESENTATIVE

19th Year at Tennessee
Drew University, 1994

Donald Bruce is the Douglas and Brenda Horne Professor of Business in the Center for Business and Economic Research (CBER) and the Department of Economics at UT Knoxville.

He joined the UTK faculty in 1999 after receiving his M.A. and Ph.D. in Economics from Syracuse and his B.A. with honors in Economics from Drew University.

As a CBRE economist, Dr. Bruce regularly provides objective, non-partisan policy research and evaluation under contracts with an array of government agencies at the federal and state levels. His recent work in CBRE has included an ongoing evaluation of Tennessee's welfare program, Families First, for the Tennessee Department of Human Services, an analysis of teacher supply and demand in Tennessee for the Governor's Office of Education Policy, and a forecast of expenditures on Tennessee Education Lottery Scholarships for the Tennessee Higher Education Commission.

In addition to his CBRE research, Dr. Bruce studies the economic and behavioral effects of tax policies on such things as small business activity and owner-occupied housing. His work has been presented and published in a variety of academic journals, edited volumes, and professional meetings. He has testified before Congress on the topic of internet taxation, and he presented his work on taxes and small business activity before the President's Advisory Panel on Federal Tax Reform in 2005.

Dr. Bruce regularly teaches graduate and undergraduate courses on the economics of taxation and the economics of health and health care. He has recently served as the Director of Graduate Studies in Economics and the Director of the Undergraduate Major in Public Administration. Before becoming Faculty Athletics Representative, Dr. Bruce served for two years as chair of the Athletics Board's Fiscal Integrity and Long-Range Planning Committee. He has also served as chair of the UTK Faculty Senate's Budget and Planning Committee. Dr. Bruce is an active member of the National Tax Association, the International Institute of Public Finance, and the American, Southern, and Western Economic Associations. His community service has included numerous economic and policy presentations for state and local organizations, and he currently serves as Chairman of the Board of Innovative Education Partnership, the non-profit governing body of the Clayton-Bradley STEM Academy in Blount County.

Dr. Bruce lives in Walland, Tenn, with his wife Jennifer, a mathematics teacher at Clayton-Bradley, and their daughter Annie.

PHILLIP FULMER

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

First Year
Tennessee, 1972

University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Chancellor Beverly Davenport announced the appointment of Phillip Fulmer as Director of Athletics on Dec. 1, 2017. Fulmer moved to this position after serving as special advisor to University of Tennessee President Joe DiPietro for community, athletics and university relations since June 20, 2017.

Fulmer—a former Tennessee football co-captain who went on to lead the Volunteers to a football national championship and earn first-ballot induction into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame—has faithfully served the University of Tennessee for more than 40 years.

“Phillip understands the need to support our student-athletes and our commitment to excellence in all athletic programs,” Davenport said. “I appreciate his willingness to serve.

“No one better understands the storied history of Vol athletics and its deep connection to alumni and fans, and I believe he will be a unifying presence for all of us committed to the university’s success.”

Fulmer wasted no time getting to work. Six days after taking the reins of the athletic department at his alma mater, he finalized a deal to make Jeremy Pruitt the 26th head coach in the storied history of the Tennessee football program.

Fulmer had experience in such endeavors, as in 2013 he was tabbed by the administration at ETSU to serve as “special assistant to the athletic director and advisor to football,” providing guidance and expertise as the school sought to restart its football program, which had been dormant for 10 years.

The cornerstones of Tennessee Athletics under Fulmer’s leadership are warmth, communication, trust and intensity.

Warmth – Ensuring that we care about our student-athletes, our university, our state, our fans and our community

Communication – Transparency in sharing our vision and goals with our various constituencies
Trust – We will build trust with our constituencies to ensure that we weather and withstand the challenges we are certain to face.

Intensity – We will operate with great intensity daily to be the very best at our chosen calling

1975-76: Wichita State, Linebackers Coach

1977-78: Wichita State, Offensive Line Coach

1979: Vanderbilt, Offensive Line Coach

1980-88: Tennessee, Offensive Line Coach

1989-92: Tennessee, Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line Coach

1992-2008: Tennessee, Head Football Coach

2013-15: ETSU, Special Assistant to the Athletic Director and Advisor to Football

2017: Tennessee, Special Advisor to the President for Community, Athletics and University Relations

2017: Tennessee, Director of Athletics

Fulmer leaned on those same four pillars while leading his alma mater’s storied football program to the most dominant era in its modern history.

Fulmer’s 17 years at the helm of the Volunteers program produced a record of 152 wins and 52 losses. At the conclusion of Fulmer’s final season, he was the dean of SEC football coaches and no active coach with at least a decade in Division I-A had a better winning percentage (.744).

Under his tutelage, the Volunteers were the first to win the Bowl Championship Series National Championship in 1998 and made five appearances in the SEC Championship game, winning it in 1997 and 1998 and also capturing SEC East titles in 1997, 1998, 2001, 2004 and 2007.

Fulmer was named SEC Coach of the Year and National Coach of the Year in 1998.

A 1972 Tennessee graduate, he starred on the offensive line during his playing career, serving as team co-captain as a senior. The Vols were 30-5 and won an SEC Championship and a Sugar Bowl during his playing career from 1969-71.

He returned to Rocky Top as an assistant coach in 1980 before being named head coach in 1992.

Fulmer built his programs by challenging and motivating his teams to victories when the pressure was highest. Among his many accolades:

- Nine Fulmer-coached squads eclipsed the 10-win mark and two others just missed with nine victories.
- Eighteen of Fulmer's Vols earned first-team All-America honors, 70 Vols garnered first-team All-SEC acclaim and he produced 19 first-round NFL Draft selections and had a total of 101 players selected overall.
- Under Fulmer, the Vols were ranked in the national polls at game time for 169 of his 204 games as head coach.
- Tennessee posted a 44-37 record against teams ranked in the Associated Press Top-25 Poll during his tenure.
- Fulmer is one of only three coaches to produce multiple winners the Draddy Award (now known as the William V. Campbell Trophy), which recognizes the nation's top academic and athletic student-athlete by The National Football Foundation & College Football Hall of Fame. Offensive lineman Michael Munoz and quarterback Peyton Manning both received the award under Fulmer's tutelage.

Fulmer's family approach in developing and guiding his young men on and off the field gave him the opportunity to mentor some of the top names in college and NFL history—including Manning, Eric Berry, Chad Clifton, Al Wilson and Jason Witten. Fulmer's motivation was rooted in his role as a principled mentor who pushed his student-athletes to grow socially, spiritually, academically and personally, as well as athletically.

Fulmer's reputation as an ace recruiter led many analysts to praise him as one of the top head coach recruiters. His holistic approach earned recognition from his peers as he was named the second coach in history to earn the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Trophy, the presidency of the American Football Coaches Association, and national, regional and conference coach of the year honors.

His induction into the 2012 National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame on the first ballot was a rare accomplishment, signifying immense respect from his peers. He previously was inducted to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in 2001 and the Greater Knoxville Sports Hall of Fame in 2008. He was welcomed into the Tennessee Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017.

Fulmer and his wife, Vicky, have been passionate and active supporters of several philanthropic causes. Phillip has served as the national spokesperson for The Jason Foundation, Inc., since 1998. He also serves as honorary chair of the Knoxville Alzheimer's Association Walk and sits on the Board of Trustees for the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Tennessee Valley. The annual Phillip Fulmer Golf Classic in 2001 has raised over $1 million for Boys & Girls Clubs of the Tennessee Valley. Additionally, Vicky stands as an honorary board member with Friends of the Smokies.

Fulmer's three daughters—Courtney, Brittany and Allison—each graduated from the University of Tennessee's College of Communication & Information. Brittany and Allison also lettered as Lady Vols, competing as a diver and a softball player, respectively. His son, Phillip Jr., lives and works in White House, Tennessee.

Between his Tennessee coaching tenure and his return to UT in 2017, Fulmer also worked in business development and made motivational speaking appearances nationwide.

REVIEW

MCCLAIN

The 2017 season saw Tennessee softball win 48 games, host an NCAA Super Regional and fall one game shy of advancing to the program's eighth trip to the Women's College World Series. A 5-3 season-ending loss to SEC foe Texas A&M gave the Lady Vols a 48-12 record for 2017, and the game also marked a new attendance record (2,459) at Sherri Parker Lee Stadium. For the three-game Super Regional, Tennessee drew a record 7,176 fans.

The Lady Vols were ranked No. 8 in the nation at the time of their loss to Texas A&M. Tennessee ended the 2017 season ranked No. 11 in the final USA Today/NFCA Coaches' Poll, while ranking No. 12 in the last ESPN.com/USA Softball Collegiate Top 25 poll of the season.

Along the way, Tennessee tied Florida for the lead in the SEC in on-base percentage (.418), while also ranking second in the conference in batting average (.316), runs scored (382), RBIs (340), and tied for second with Ole Miss in stolen bases (101). The Lady Vols were third in the SEC in slugging percentage (.468) and doubles (80) on offense, while also ranking in the top three in such pitching categories as opponents' batting average (.194), strikeouts (357), strikeouts looking (96) and wins (48).

Meghan Gregg, the 2017 SEC Player of the Year and a finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year award, was a staple among the SEC's individual standouts, leading the conference and ranking top 15 nationally in batting average (.437), slugging (.838), on-base (.557), RBIs (79) and total bases (140), while tying for second in doubles (18) and ranking third in home runs (15).

Gregg, the program's single-season leader in RBIs, also became the Lady Vols' 14th All-American, earning First Team honors from the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA). She was also named a CoSIDA Academic All-American.

Aubrey Leach tied for the conference lead with 60 runs scored, while Brooke Vines led the SEC with seven sac flies and CJ McClain was fourth in stolen bases (30).

In the circle, Matty Moss had an SEC-high 45 appearances and she was second in the SEC with 26 wins. Her 193 strikeouts were fourth-most in the conference.

The Lady Vols finished third in the SEC in 2017, going 16-7 in league play to rank behind Florida and Auburn in the conference standings before falling in the quarterfinals of the conference tournament to LSU.

In addition to Gregg as the conference's Player of the Year, Tennessee boasted the 2017 SEC Rookie of the Year in Caylan Arnold. Gregg was also named First Team All-SEC by the league's head coaches, while Moss and Vines earned Second Team All-SEC honors. Arnold and Chelsea Seggern were named to the All-Freshman Team.

Gregg was also an SEC All-Defensive selection.

Tennessee opened the 2017 season with 13 straight wins, a stretch that included a 2-1 win over eventual national champion Oklahoma. Arnold was masterful in the circle, going the full seven innings and not giving up an earned run to earn her fifth win of the season. Seggern had both of the Lady Vols' RBIs in the upset.

The Lady Vols didn't lose their first game until dropping a 3-0 decision to nationally-ranked Utah on Feb. 24. After a loss to Texas, Tennessee rattled off eight wins in the span of nine games, including two of three against South Carolina to open SEC play.

A 5-1 win over Arkansas on March 19 kicked off a stretch that saw Tennessee win 20 in a row. Over that time, the Lady Vols defeated North Carolina and swept Ole Miss, N.C. State, Kentucky and Alabama. Of those five opponents, four were ranked at the time of Tennessee's victories. The win streak also included a pair of victories against then-No. 16 LSU.

April 30 saw Tennessee defeat Florida, then the No. 1 team in the country, 5-1, before the Lady Vols ended the regular season by taking two out of three from Texas A&M.

Tennessee made its fifth trip to the Super Regional in the past six seasons after going undefeated in the regional round, which it also hosted, with wins over Longwood and USC Upstate. In a 3-0 win over Longwood that clinched the Lady Vols' spot in the Super Regional, Moss threw seven shutout innings, giving up just four hits and striking out nine.

Jenna Holcomb ended the 2017 season on a nine-game hitting streak.

Lauren Gibson had a performance for the ages in UT's 15-5 (6) rout of Ole Miss in Oxford. The senior second baseman went 4-for-5 with three homers, one RBI double and nine RBIs. Her three blasts set a new Tennessee single-game record and her nine RBIs matched Kat Dotson's record from two years earlier.

Madison Shipman put on a defensive clinic in Tennessee's 6-5 win over South Carolina, setting a school record with nine assists at shortstop. She also scored a pair of runs in the UT victory.

1999 NCAA REGIONAL NO. 3 (0-2)

Seattle, Wash.

May 20-21, 1999

When the NCAA Selection Committee announced the 48-team field for the 1999 NCAA Softball Tournament, the Lady Vol softball squad heard the news it had been awaiting since the inception of its program in the fall of 1995. With a 44-25 overall record and a first-ever Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title on its resume, Jim Beitia's club earned an at-large bid to one of the eight, six-team regional sites.

As a third seed, Tennessee traveled to Seattle, Wash., for a first round meeting with number four seed Cal-State Fullerton. Host Washington, ranked sixth nationally, drew the top seed in the double-elimination event on its home field. While the Orange & White dropped both of its contests in the Pacific Northwest, the results failed to lessen the achievement of participating in the nation's premier event after recording the program's most successful campaign to date. Tennessee fell to Cal State Fullerton, 12-1 (5), on May 20 and lost to host Washington, 12-1 (5), on May 21.

2004 NCAA REGIONAL NO. 6 (2-2)

Ann Arbor, Mich.

May 20-22, 2004

After recording a program-record 55 victories and picking up its first Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title since the 1999 season, the Tennessee Lady Vol softball team, under the direction of SEC Co-Head Coaches of the Year Ralph and Karen Weekly, continued its successful run by nabbing its first NCAA bid in five years. As the second seed in NCAA Regional No. 6, the Orange & White would travel to Ann Arbor, Mich., to participate in a double-elimination format.

The Lady Vols opened the event by downing Illinois-Chicago to register the program's initial NCAA Tournament victory and added another with a 4-0 defeat of the DePaul Blue Demons. Tennessee would be eliminated, however, from the rain-plagued event by suffering defeats to No. 18 Oregon State (4-0) and Illinois-Chicago (6-5).

Following a stellar 59-13 regular-season, the Tennessee Lady Vol softball team was chosen to the NCAA Tournament field of 64 for the second consecutive season. As a bonus for their No. 11 national seeding, the Orange & White were allowed to host the NCAA Regional round at Tennessee's Tyson Park.

UT opened its tournament run with a dominating 9-0, five-inning victory over Miami (Ohio) behind a two-hitter from hurler Monica Abbott.

After a 4-0 throttling of College of Charleston advanced the Lady Vols to the regional title game, Abbott no-hit the Cougars in a rematch as sophomore shortstop Lindsay Schutzler delivered a crucial two-run home run in UT's 2-0 win. With the triumph, the Big Orange advanced to the NCAA Super Regional in Palo Alto, Calif.

2005 NCAA SUPER REGIONAL NO. 6 (2-0)

Palo Alto, Calif.
May 27-28, 2005

With the program's first NCAA Regional title in its back pocket, UT was summoned to wing its way across the country to battle No. 4-ranked Stanford at the Smith Family Stadium in Palo Alto, Calif. Down to a best two-of-three game format, Tennessee made the most of its opportunity with consecutive shutout victories to take the crown and advance to the program's initial berth in the Women's College World Series.

While Monica Abbott was in the process of striking out 12 Stanford hitters in a two-hit, 2-0 victory in game one, junior utility player Katherine Card was busy delivering an RBI single in the first and a solo home run in the sixth to give UT all the runs necessary to take a 1-0 series lead.

Another solid pitching performance in game two by Abbott (one-hitter) was backed up by a five-run third inning outburst as the Orange downed SU 6-0. Three Cardinal errors led to three UT unearned runs.

2005 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES (3-2)

Oklahoma City, Okla.
June 2-6, 2005

Tennessee's first-ever trip to the Women's College World Series was just about everything that the squad and co-head coaches Ralph and Karen Weekly could have desired. Three stirring victories, late-inning heroics, national television coverage and big-game experience on the largest national stage in softball made UT's visit to Oklahoma City, Okla., a memorable one. In the end, the Lady Vols finished third and came up just short of a berth in the NCAA Championship series.

Behind sophomore Monica Abbott's one-hit, 12-strike-out performance and a key hit by junior utility player Katherine Card, the Lady Vols picked up their first-ever WCWS victory with a 1-0, triumph over the third-ranked Arizona Wildcats. In the sixth inning, Card singled down the right field line. Pinch-runner Ashley Cline, who was on second, raced around third and scored the game's lone run as a result of a Wildcat throwing error. The victory was the 200th of Ralph and Karen Weekly's UT coaching career.

Despite a solo home run (UT's first in WCWS play) in the fourth inning by freshman Tonya Callahan that tied the game at 1-1, Tennessee dropped into the losers' bracket at the Women's College World Series after a tough, 3-1 defeat to eventual national finalist UCLA.

A seventh-inning rally that saw the Lady Vols lace three hits came up just short. UT's Monica Abbott allowed just one earned run in the contest.

Junior utility player Katherine Card hit a solid .375 at the Women's College World Series on her way to all-tournament honors. In UT's initial foray into WCWS play, the Soddy Daisy, Tenn., native's single down the right field line in the sixth inning scored the Lady Vols' lone run in a 1-0 victory over No. 4 Arizona.

UT became just the third Southeastern Conference team to reach the semifinal round of the WCWS by shutting out fellow league foe Alabama, 4-0. Abbott pitched her third-straight complete game at the event, allowing just four hits and recorded eight K's. With the victory in front of the largest crowd ever to see the Lady Vols play softball (6,148), UT advanced on to face No. 1 Michigan with a berth in the championship series on the line.

A classic fastpitch softball game unfolded late on June 5 in Oklahoma City, Okla., with No. 1 Michigan and No. 11 Tennessee battling for almost 11 full innings in a scoreless tie. With one down in the bottom of the 11th and at 1:21 a.m. CT, freshman first baseman Tonya Callahan ended the suspense with a towering shot just over the wall down the left field line to grant UT a 2-0 victory. Abbott worked all 11 innings to establish a new career high.

The Lady Vols' magical WCWS run came to an end just hours after the completion of the two squads' exciting, 11-inning thriller with a 3-2 defeat at the hands of eventual national champion Michigan. The Wolverines plated a run in the first off Abbott and added two more in the third on a two-run shot by Stephanie Bercauw. Freshman Natalie Brock helped UT get back in the game with a two-RBI double in the fifth. UT left a runner stranded at second in the seventh to fall short by just a single run.

In 37 innings of work at the 2005 WCWS, sophomore hurler Monica Abbott went 3-2 with a 0.76 ERA and 37 strikeouts. The 6-3 lefthander from Salinas, Calif., fired three shutouts in victories over Arizona, Alabama and Michigan in picking up all-tournament honors. In UT's 2-0 win over the No. 1 Wolverines, Abbott worked a career-high 11 innings.

Another dominating regular season and the first Southeastern Conference Tournament title in program history granted UT a ton of confidence heading into its third straight NCAA Tournament. For the second straight season, Tennessee's Tyson Park would serve as host for the NCAA Regionals.

In the regional opener the Big Orange found themselves down 4-2 to upstart Tennessee Tech after 3.5 innings and without Monica Abbott who had been lifted from the contest. UT rallied with a four-run fourth keyed by a two-RBI single by Sarah Fekete to survive 6-4.

Waiting next for the Lady Vols was ACC Pitcher of the Year Angela Tincher and Virginia Tech. A first inning grand slam by clutch postseason performer Katherine Card set the tone as Tennessee rolled 9-1 (five inn.).

With a berth in the NCAA Super Regionals hanging in the balance, #18 Louisville sent BIG EAST Pitcher of the Year Catherine Bishop to the circle to oppose Abbott. UT's 6-3 lefty struck out 12 in a two-hitter and the Orange & White rang up eight runs on 10 hits in an 8-1 rout.

2006 NCAA SUPER REGIONAL NO. 8 (2-1)

Knoxville, Tenn.
May 27-28, 2006

The NCAA draw made sure that Tennessee's initial stint hosting the Super Regional round would be a challenge as defending national champion Michigan ventured to Knoxville for a best-of-three game set. UT and the Maize & Blue had split a pair of epic contests at the WCWS in 2005 to eliminate the Lady Vols from title contention.

Tennessee jumped on top 2-0 in the opener as a Tonya Callahan single and a Katherine Card sac fly plated a pair in the fourth. Michigan rallied to knot the score, but a three-run sixth from the Lady Vols keyed a 5-3 win. Abbott struck out 11 in the complete game.

After UM's Jennie Ritter got the measure of the Big Orange in game two by a 5-1 count, Tennessee sent Abbott back to the circle with an all-or-nothing game three waiting. She didn't disappoint by twirling a five-hit, nine-K shutout as the Lady Vols prevailed 1-0. Clutch Card laced an RBI single to right center in the sixth to score the game's only run. UM loaded the bases in the bottom of the seventh with two down, but Abbott struck out Rebekah Milian to end the series.

The Tennessee Lady Vols fought their way to another third-place national finish in their second straight trip to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla., from June 1-4, 2006. Along the way, UT upset #1 UCLA (4-3), outlasted #9 Arizona State (3-1, nine inn.) and defeated eventual national champion #3 Arizona (1-0) before falling just a single game short of the WCWS Championship Series. For their efforts junior pitcher Monica Abbott and senior designated player Kristi Durant were named WCWS All-Tournament.

Down 2-0 heading into the sixth frame, Tonya Callahan singled and the Bruins committed a crucial error to tie the contest at 2-2. Kristi Durant drove Facing elimination for the first time in the 2006 Women's College World Series, the Lady Vols proved they were up to the task ahead by outlasting a game Arizona State squad, 3-1 (nine inn.). An ASU fielding error in the fifth provided UT with the game's initial run, but the Sun Devils' Heidi Knabe homered off Abbott to deadlock the contest at 1-1. Neither team could race in front until the ninth when freshman Jennifer Griffin delivered a clutch two-run homer to right center to seal the 3-1 win.

The orange-clad partisans in attendance as well as the national television audience watched UT stave off elimination behind the efforts of WCWS and UT rookie Jennifer Griffin. The Whittier, Calif., native drove a pitch over the right center field wall in the ninth for a two-run, game-winning home run in UT's 3-1 triumph. The above picture is from the moment of contact.

Tennessee enjoyed an enthusiastic fan following at the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla. With constant chants and cheering, the orange-clad partisans in attendance helped lead the Lady Vols past #1 UCLA, #9 Arizona State and #3 Arizona. For the second straight season, the Lady Vols came up just a win short of the WCWS Championship Series falling to #3 Arizona, 6-0. The Wildcats wasted no time jumping on Abbott by plating a pair of runs in both the first and second. Three uncharacteristic UT errors opened the door for three unearned runs as UA added single tallies in the third and sixth frames. Tennessee completed the 2006 campaign third nationally and with 61 victories against 12 losses for a program-best .836 win percentage.

Despite suffering through a back injury for the majority of the 2006 campaign, senior designated player Kristi Durant demonstrated her grit and toughness by returning with a vengeance in the WCWS. The Placentia, Calif., native hit at a team-best .333 clip on her way to WCWS All-Tournament honors. She went 2-for-4 with two RBI in the upset of #1 UCLA.

A 63-8 overall record and having spent a record 11 consecutive weeks atop the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll helped the national fifth-seeded Tennessee Lady Vol softball team again draw hosting position for an NCAA Regional. For the third straight season, UT swept its three match-ups to advance on to the best-of-three Super Regional.

In the opener, Tennessee senior pitcher Monica Abbott (5 IP, 0 H, 13 K) and junior hurler Megan Rhodes (1 IP, 0 H, 0 K) combined on a perfect game by facing the minimum of 18 Furman hitters over six frames. Up 2-0 heading to the fifth, a three-run blast by Shannon Doepping helped the Orange roll to an 8-0 (6 inn.) win.

In a rematch of an early season match-up, UT plated a pair of runs in the first frame against North Carolina via a Tonya Callahan RBI single and a Doepping sacrifice fly. Abbott struck out 17 in a complete-game six-hitter. Unfortunately India Chiles also suffered a torn ACL on a play between first and second.

In the regional title contest Tennessee bested Winthrop 7-0 behind RBIs from Anita Manuma, Alexia Clay and Kenora Posey. Abbott struck out 12 in a three-hit shutout.

May 25-26, 2007

The NCAA Super Regionals brought Tennessee a surprise, as No. 12 Hawai'i and its powerful offense roared into Knoxville after having taken down perennial power UCLA in the regionals. For freshman Anita Manuma, the visit had special significance, as her sister Valana Manuma played shortstop for the Rainbow Wahine.

Having been on the mainland for weeks for conference and NCAA play, Hawai'i looked overwhelmed in the first game of the series as Abbott no-hit the Wahine and struck out 10 in a 9-0 (5 inn.) blowout. Freshman Tiffany Huff knocked in a career high five runs in the match-up.

Hawai'i's powerful bats got uncorked in the second contest by blasting three home runs and outlasting the Lady Vols, 9-6. UT plated four runs in the top of the seventh, but the rally proved fruitless.

Staring elimination squarely in the eye, down 1-0 in the fourth frame, UT rookie put together a three-run fourth on a big two-RBI double from Erinn Webb and a four-run fifth to win 7-1 and advance on to the WCWS.

The 2007 campaign will go down as the most successful in program history for Tennessee for a variety of reasons after a second-place finish at the Women's College World Series, the program's first Southeastern Conference regular season title and the initial No. 1 ranking in school and league history. The season also will be remembered as one of disappointment after coming so very close to UT's first softball national title before falling short in a 5-0 loss to No. 4 Arizona in Oklahoma City, Okla. UA erupted for five runs in the fifth to back a Taryne Mowatt shutout to win its eighth title.

The Tennessee Lady Vol softball team received its fifth consecutive bid to the NCAA Field of 64 and played host to its fourth consecutive NCAA Regional in 2008. UT managed a 3-2 overall record in the event, being eliminated in the championship contest by eventual Women's College World Series participant Virginia Tech and its All-American hurler Angela Tincher by a 4-2 count.

The Big Orange rode a combined one-hit shutout from Megan Rhodes and Ashton Ward to a 3-0 victory over Winthrop in both teams' opener, marking UT's 10 straight NCAA Regional victory dating back to 2004. Va. Tech utilized 14 strikeouts from Tincher and a surprise grand slam from No. 9 hitter Caroline Stolle to race past Tennessee 4-0 and drop the Lady Vols into the loser's bracket. Forced into action again later that day, UT blew out Louisville, 8-1, as freshman Jen Lapicki blasted a homer and knocked in four runs.

With two teams remaining with a chance at NCAA Super Regionals, UT had to beat Tech twice in the same day to advance. The Big Orange used the Erinn Webb power show to drop the Hokies 7-1 in the opener as the Hemet, Calif., native hammered two home runs in the triumph. Up 1-0 after three innings and with the momentum, UT was undone by a 50-minute rain delay. Following the break, Tech responded with a four-run top of the fourth to eventually prevail 4-2 and send UT home early.

The 2009 Tennessee Lady Vol softball team secured the program's sixth consecutive trip to NCAA Regionals as the nation's No. 13 seed for the second straight year. Hosting the regional round for the fifth consecutive season, UT advanced to the championship round of the event at Lee Stadium before dropping back-to-back match-ups to upstart Jacksonville State and ending its season at 40-18-1 overall.

A clutch RBI single in the bottom of the seventh inning from freshman third baseman Jessica Spigner backed 1.1 frames of scoreless relief by senior hurler Danielle Pieroni as Tennessee outlasted James Madison in its regional opener, 4-3. A 5-2 triumph over Nebraska on the strength of a clutch three-run, second-inning double by pinch hitter Ashton Ward sent the Big Orange through to face JSU for a place in NCAA Super Regionals.

Jacksonville State wasted little time in getting to UT for a pair of runs in the second frame and four more in the sixth on the way to a 6-1 victory to force a championship-deciding game. Despite jumping in front 1-0 during the opening inning on a sacrifice fly from junior catcher Tiffany Huff, Tennessee watched the Gamecocks rally for single tallies in the top of the fourth and fifth innings versus Pieroni to eventually prevail, 2-1, and advance through to the best-of-three Super Regionals.

Front row (l-r): Ashley Andrews, Kat Dotson, Morgan Fowler, Holly Baker, Kelly Grieve, Nicole Kajitani, Andi Williamson, Lauren Gibson, Melissa Brown, Megan Givens.

Tennessee picked up the national No. 15 seeding and earned the right to host NCAA Regionals in Knoxville for the sixth straight season. UT swept its three match-ups to advance on to a best-of-three Super Regional for the first time since 2007.

In the opener versus Ball State, UT freshman pitcher Ivy Renfro tossed a four-hit shutout in her first NCAA Tournament action as the Lady Vols prevailed, 5-0. Rookie second baseman Lauren Gibson had the big blow at the plate with a tone-setting, two-run homer during the Lady Vols' three-run first inning.

The Big Orange set numerous NCAA program records, including those for most single-game runs, hits and RBIs, in an 11-2 rout of Virginia to advance to the Knoxville Regional title tilt for the sixth consecutive campaign. Freshman left fielder Raven Chavanne equaled a program NCAA mark with four hits as part of a 4-for-5, two-RBI effort, while junior center fielder Kelly Grieve went 3-for-5 with a double and two RBIs and sophomore third baseman Jessica Spigner was 2-for-5 with two RBIs.

Between Tennessee and its fourth all-time berth in the NCAA Super Regionals was Louisville, making its third trip to Knoxville for NCAA's after previous visits in 2006 & 2008. UL struck first on a HR by clean-up hitter Chelsea Bemis in the second inning. A two-out single by Grieve and an RBI double off the bat of Spigner tied the score at 1-1 in the fifth. With regulation play not enough, the match-up progressed to the ninth frame where a lead-off double by Gibson started a two-run UT outburst. Sophomore pitcher Cat Hosfield, who had fired eight innings of four-hit ball, gave way to Renfro in the circle. The 6-0 right hander worked a perfect ninth for the save as UT advanced on to super regionals.

2010 NCAA ANN ARBOR SUPER REGIONAL (2-0)

Ann Arbor, Mich.

May 27-28, 2010

Back in the NCAA Super Regionals for the first time since 2007, Tennessee was sent on the road to face No. 2 national seed Michigan. The powerful Wolverines entered the best-of-three series having won 36 consecutive games at the Wilpon Softball Complex in Ann Arbor, Mich., dating back to the 2009 season.

Right from the start in the series opener, UT freshman pitcher Ivy Renfroe took control from the circle, carrying a no-hitter into the seventh inning in an eventual 5-0 upset of the Maize & Blue. Junior center fielder Kelly Grieve proved the heroine at the plate by contributing three, two-out RBIs during the shocking Big Orange victory.

With sophomore hurler Cat Hosfield keeping Michigan's bats in check over the first four innings of game two, Tennessee used the long ball to race to a commanding 4-0 advantage. Seniors Nicole Kajitani and Erinn Webb blasted back-to-back home runs in the second inning, while Webb followed two innings later with her second big fly of the contest. UM clawed back within a run at 4-3 and loaded the bases with one out in the seventh against reliever Renfroe. The 6-0 righthander struck out dangerous third baseman Maggie Viefhaus and got catcher Roya St. Clair to line sharply to Ashley Andrews at short to set off Big Orange jubilation.

2010 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES (2-2)

Oklahoma City, Okla.

June 3-6, 2010

For the fourth time in program history, Tennessee earned its way to Oklahoma City for the Women's College World Series and for the fourth time in the last six seasons, UT secured a top three national finish. The Big Orange opened its stay at the event with a 9-0 (5 inn.) rout of eventual WCWS finalist No. 3 Arizona and then bested Southeastern Conference Eastern Division rival No. 9 Georgia, 7-5, to reach the semifinal round. Unfortunately, needing just one win to reach the best-of-three WCWS Championship Series, UT suffered back-to-back losses to the Wildcats to finish its magical year at No. 3 in the national rankings and with a 49-15 overall record.

Tennessee improved to a staggering 4-0 all-time in WCWS opening games with a 9-0 (5 inn.) rout of #3 Arizona to advance on into the winner's bracket. The nine runs marked the most scored by the Lady Vols in a WCWS contest and the victory continued UT's perfect run through the NCAA Tournament to that point, improving to 6-0. Freshman pitcher Ivy Renfroe limited the dangerous Wildcats to just three hits in a complete game to move to 30-4 on the season and become the only Lady Vol pitcher not named Monica Abbott to win 30 games in a season and post a victory at the WCWS. Senior first baseman Erinn Webb and sophomore third baseman Jessica Spigner each knocked in two runs to lead the offense. UA hurler Kenzie Fowler helped UT's cause by being called for numerous illegal pitches from the circle, including one that plated Tennessee's first run in the third.

A clutch grand slam from senior first baseman Erinn Webb helped power No. 16 Tennessee past old league rival No. 9 Georgia, 7-5, and advance the Lady Vols on to the WCWS semifinal round. Freshman pitcher Ivy Renfroe went the whole way from the circle, striking out 10 Bulldogs while recording her 14th career complete game to improve to 5-0 with a 1.21 ERA and 42 K's in 34.2 innings of work during NCAA Tournament action. Four UGA pitches helped UT nab a 2-0 lead in the second frame before Webb blew things open with her third inning grand slam. Georgia rallied late, cutting its deficit to 7-5 and bringing the potential tying run to the plate in the seventh inning. A Renfroe K and a stellar play on a bouncer to third by Jessica Spigner ended the drama as UT prevailed.

Senior first baseman Erinn Webb races toward the plate ready to celebrate her crucial third-inning grand slam that gave #16 Tennessee a 6-0 lead over #9 Georgia. The Big Orange eventually hung on to upset the Bulldogs, 7-5.

Facing elimination from the WCWS, No. 3 Arizona turned the tables on No. 16 UT by downing the Big Orange by run-rule, 8-0 (5 inn.), and forcing an "if necessary" contest for a berth in the best-of-three championship series. UA pitchers Kenzie Fowler and Sarah Akamine limited the Big Orange offense to just two hits (senior catcher Tiffany Huff, freshman pinch hitter Melissa Brown), while Ivy Renfroe took the loss for UT after allowing three runs on four hits with five K's in 2.2 innings. Brittany Lastrapes and Karissa Buchanan each posted two RBIs for the 'Cats.

Despite racing to a 2-0 lead heading into the bottom of the third inning, Tennessee was eliminated from the WCWS by No. 3 Arizona, 5-2. A bases-loaded walk by UT freshman second baseman Lauren Gibson granted the Lady Vols a 1-0 lead in the first and things looked promising as the Big Orange had entered the contest 39-4 in 2010 when scoring first. A beautiful Gibson slide around the UA catcher on a bloop single by senior catcher

Tiffany Huff made it 2-0 in the top of third. Unfortunately for Tennessee, Arizona's Stacie Chambers dead-locked the score at 2-2 on a two-run bomb in the bottom of the third. A one-out single by Bridgette Del Ponte in the fifth gave UA its first lead of the game. From there Brittany Lastrapes added a two-run HR just inside the right field fair pole to finalize the score at 5-2.

When the annual NCAA bracket was announced, Tennessee, fresh off a thrilling SEC Tournament title run, was surprised to earn a lower-than-expected No. 14-seed in the field of 64. UT's reward was perhaps the toughest regional in the country as three of the top 18 teams in the RPI would battle it out in Knoxville.

In the opener against Liberty, Ivy Renfroe was dominant in the circle, firing her third career no-hitter to back a Lady Vol offense that scored eight two-out runs in an 8-0 (5 inn.) victory. Freshman Madison Shipman ended a seven-run, seventh inning outburst with a walk-off grand slam.

Despite out-hitting Oklahoma State, 9-8, UT dropped into the losers bracket by suffering a 6-1 defeat at the hands of the Cowgirls. With Tennessee forced to play again on May 21 in an attempt to avoid elimination, sophomore Lauren Gibson blasted a pair of homers to back another Ivy Renfroe masterpiece (two-hitter) as the Big Orange cruised past No. 19 Georgia Tech, 7-0.

On championship Sunday UT knew it would have to defeat OSU twice to advance to NCAA Super Regionals. The Lady Vols rallied from deficits on a pair of occasions, even grabbing a 4-3 lead in the fifth, before the Cowgirls erupted for three tallies in the sixth. Down to its last chance, Tennessee managed to plate a run in the top of the seventh via a sacrifice fly. With a runner at second and two down, Gibson ripped a single to left. Unfortunately for the Big Orange, Kelly Grieve was thrown out at the plate to end the season.

Tennessee was named the No. 7 seed of the 2012 NCAA Tournament and played host to Miami (Ohio), UAB and Virginia Tech in the Knoxville Regional.

After a 1-0 setback against Miami (Ohio) in their first game, the Lady Vols came roaring back with four consecutive wins to advance to the Super Regionals. UT took an 8-0 win over UAB as Raven Chavanne and Kat Dotson each had two RBIs while Ellen Renfro and Ivy Renfro combined for five shutout innings of one-hit ball. Tennessee followed that with an 8-0, six-inning victory over Miami (Ohio) to eliminate the Redhawks. Madison Shipman and Melissa Brown each had two RBIs in the win and Ivy Renfro came through with 4.2 shutout innings in relief.

Virginia Tech presented a tough challenge on May 20, but UT survived a late seventh-inning surge by the Hokies to win, 2-1. Ellen Renfro tossed seven strong frames and Shipman had a solo homer in the game.

The Lady Vols punched their ticket to the Super Regionals later that day, riding the momentum of a five-run fifth to power past Virginia Tech, 10-2. Shelby Burchell was 3-for-4 with two RBIs and two doubles in the win.

2012 NCAA KNOXVILLE SUPER REGIONAL (2-1)

Knoxville, Tenn.

May 26-27, 2012

Making its fifth appearance in the NCAA Super Regionals, Tennessee found itself facing a familiar foe in SEC rival Georgia.

During the regular season, the teams split a doubleheader in Knoxville on April 4. The Lady Vols took the first game of the Super Regional on May 26, 3-2. Ivy Renfroe fired a seven-strikeout complete game and Shelby Burchell drove in two runs.

The Bulldogs evened the series with a 1-0 win in Sunday's first game. An errant throw to first on a double-play ball scored UGA's Macie Couey for the lone run of the game.

Tennessee re-gathered itself quickly and used some late-inning magic in the deciding game to punch its fifth ticket to the Women's College World Series. Georgia took a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the fifth, but UT would respond in the top of the sixth. With the bases loaded, Shelby Burchell delivered an RBI bloop single to score Raven Chavanne and tie the game at 1-1. Kat Dotson followed with a sac fly to plate Lauren Gibson and give the Lady Vols a 2-1 edge they would hold the remainder of the game.

Ivy Renfroe earned all six of UT's wins in the Regionals and Super Regionals, cementing her place in school history as one of the most clutch pitchers to ever don the Orange and White.

Senior Shelby Burchell's RBI single in the top of the sixth sparked a UT rally to help the Lady Vols punch their ticket to the 2012 Women's College World Series.

2012 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES (0-2)

Oklahoma City, Okla.

May 31 - June 6, 2012

Tennessee earned its fifth trip to the Women's College World Series behind gritty performances from a variety of UT stars. In Oklahoma City, the Lady Vols battled hard, but came up short in two games. A re-match with SEC rival and eventual national champion Alabama was Tennessee's first game and the Crimson Tide rode the momentum of a four-run fourth to take a 5-3 win over the Lady Vols on May 31. The team fell to the Oregon, 3-1, on June 2 UT finished the season ranked seventh in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and sixth in the USA Today/NFCA Division I poll.

Tennessee suffered its first-ever loss in a WCWS opening game. Alabama jumped out to a 4-0 lead in the bottom of the first. UT responded with two runs in the top of the second thanks to a two-run homer from sophomore Melissa Davin.

The Crimson Tide added another run in the bottom of the fourth when Jennifer Fenton ripped an RBI single up the middle.

UT tried to rally back in the top of the seventh. Rookie Cheyanne Tarango drew a one-out walk off Alabama's Jackie Traina and fellow freshman followed with a pinch-hit walk. With two Lady Vols on board, Raven Chavanne delivered an RBI hit to the right to plate a run.

Alabama would escape with the win as Traina issued back-to-back strikeouts.

Oregon scored two runs in the top of the first to take command of the game early.

UT senior catcher Ashley Andrews put a spark in the Tennessee offense in the bottom of the second. With two outs, Andrews singled through the right side and stole second base. Sophomore Tory Lewis drove her in with an RBI hit to right center.

The Ducks added another run in the top of the fourth.

A controversial play ended a potential UT scoring opportunity in the bottom of the sixth when a throw struck Lauren Gibson in the back while she was running from first to second. The resulting obstruction call produced an inning-ending double play.

Tennessee was named the No. 7 seed of the 2013 NCAA Tournament and played host to Longwood, James Madison and NC State in the Knoxville Regional.

UT dominated Longwood in a 9-2 win in Game 2 of the Regional. Ivy Renfro struck out six over five strong innings, Cheyanne Tarango had a two-RBI hit and a three-run jack and Rainey Gaffin had a two-run blast as the Lady Vols stormed past the Lancers.

The Lady Vols played an 11-inning marathon game against NC State the next day, marking Tennessee's longest-ever game (at the time) and the seventh 11-inning game in school history. UT came away with a 1-0 win in the bottom of the 11th thanks to a walk-off triple by Rainey Gaffin that scored Cheyanne Tarango from first base. Ellen Renfro was stellar in the circle, fanning 13 batters over 11 scoreless frames.

On May 19, after inclement weather and lightning delayed the start of the game, Tennessee defeated NC State, 7-0, to win the regional. Madison Shipman had a two-run homer and three RBIs and Ivy Renfro had five shutouts over seven scoreless frames of one-hit ball.

Knoxville, Tenn.

May 24-25, 2013

In its sixth-ever appearance in the NCAA Super Regionals, the 2013 Tennessee softball team would have to get through defending National Champion Alabama to earn its way to Oklahoma City.

When the teams met in the regular season, Tennessee came out ahead in a pair of thrillers to take the first two games out of three against then-No. 1/2 Alabama.

In the Super Regionals, the Lady Vols and the Crimson Tide provided fans with more edge-of-your seat action

In Game 1, Alabama struck first with a second-inning RBI single and Hannah Akamine answered with a solo shot to left-center in the bottom half of the inning. Tennessee took a 3-1 lead in the bottom of the third when Cheyanne Tarango ripped a two-run single. Alabama's Haylie McCleney hit an RBI double in the fourth to bring the Tide to within one run. Ivy Renfroed tossed 3.1 scoreless relief frames to earn the win.

Tennessee fell into a 3-0 hole after the first two innings of Game 2, but clawed its way back with runs in the the middle innings. Madison Shipman had a sac fly in the third inning to get UT on the board. In the fourth, Rainey Gaffin hit a sac fly to center and Raven Chavanne clubbed an RBI single to center to tie the game at 3-3.

UT took the lead in the top of the fifth after Shipman hit a leadoff double and Kat Dotson brought her home with a sac fly to center.

Alabama had a great chance to come back with two on in the bottom of the fifth, but Tarango, who had not pitched in over a month, came through in the circle. Pitching in relief of starter Ivy Renfroed, Tarango's off-speed pitches baffled the Alabama batters as she got three outs to leave the Tide runners stranded.

Melissa Brown added an RBI double up the middle in the seventh to plate fellow senior Whitney Hammond and give UT an insurance run. Ellen Renfroed tossed scoreless sixth and seventh frames to help UT punch its sixth trip to the Women's College World Series.

2013 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES (3-2)

Oklahoma City, Okla.

May 30 - June 4, 2013

Tennessee punched its sixth ticket to the Women's College World Series in nine years behind key hits and excellent pitching, especially from senior Ivy Renfroed, who posted five wins in the NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals. In the Women's College World Series, Ellen Renfroed proved to have the hot hand and elevated her game to another level on the sport's biggest stage. Key hits and dominant pitching carried UT to the Championship Series for the second time in school history. Tennessee and Oklahoma dueled for 12 innings in an instant classic Game 1, but UT would fall in the title series to the Sooners in two games. The Lady Vols concluded the season as the national runner-up and finished at No. 2 in both the USA Today/NFCA Division I softball poll and the final ESPN.com/USA Softball Collegiate Top 25 poll.

NO. 7 TENNESSEE VS. NO. 2 FLORIDA

WCWS GAME 2

Using three-run first and a four-run sixth, the No. 7 Tennessee handed No. 2 Florida its worst loss of the year in a 9-2 win for the Lady Vols in Game 2 of the 2013 Women's College World Series.

The Lady Vol seniors helped Tennessee to its eighth 50-win season as Melissa Brown, Raven Chavanne, Kat Dotson and Lauren Gibson combined for six hits, seven RBIs and four runs scored. Fellow senior Whitney Hammond scored a pinch run while Dotson was just a home run shy of the cycle.

Ellen Renfroe was dominant in the circle allowing just four hits and two earned runs while sitting down nine Gators by way of the K.

UT scored three in the first when Cheyanne Tarango drew a bases-loaded walk to plate Dotson and Brown clubbed a two-RBI double to right center.

The Lady Vols exploded to a 7-2 lead with a four-run sixth. Hammond scored on an error, Dotson knocked a two-RBI double down the right field line and Gibson knocked an RBI double down the left field line.

In the seventh, Hannah Akamine scored on a wild pitch and Kat Dotson hit an RBI triple to center to seal the Tennessee victory.

After tornadoes in the Oklahoma City area canceled play on May 31, No. 7 Tennessee and No. 11 Washington squared off in Game 5 of the WCWS on June 1.

UT's Ellen Renfroe and Washington's Kaitlin Inglesby were locked in a pitchers' duel through six and a half innings. Cheyanne Tarango opened the bottom of the seventh with a single to short and senior Whitney Hammond entered to pinch run. A sacrifice bunt by Melissa Brown moved Hammond to second base and the crafty senior base runner advanced to third base on a lineout to the circle. Tory Lewis delivered a two-out walkoff single up the middle in the bottom of the seventh to plate Hammond for the game-winning run.

Ellen Renfroe tallied 10 strikeouts in an seven-inning, two-hit shutout to earn the win.

NO. 7 TENNESSEE VS. NO. 4 TEXAS

WCWS GAME 11

No. 7 Tennessee started and finished strong in 2-1 win over No. 4 Texas in Game 11 of the WCWS on June 2 to earn a trip to the Championship Series.

Lauren Gibson, who hit her first collegiate home run off Texas ace Blaire Luna in 2010, launched a two-out 2-0 pitch from Luna into the stands in left field in the first inning to give the Lady Vols a 1-0 lead. Tennessee scored again in the top of the sixth when Lexi Overstreet drew a bases-loaded walk to score Gibson. Texas scored in the bottom of the seventh when Lindsey Stephens hit a solo homer off Ellen Renfroe, but UT held on to seal the victory.

Ivy Renfroe got the win after striking out six over 4.2 scoreless frames.

NO. 7 TENNESSEE VS. NO. 1 OKLAHOMA CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES GAME 1

In the longest game in Tennessee softball history, the Lady Vols fell to Oklahoma, 5-3, in the bottom of the 12th inning in Game 1 of the Women's College World Series Championship Series.

The three-hour and 50-minute, edge-of-your-seat Championship Series opener was one of the most thrilling games in the history of college softball with late-game heroics by both Tennessee and Oklahoma stars.

Game 1 was first and foremost a pitching duel between two of the finest hurlers in the country in OU's Keilani Ricketts and Tennessee's Ellen Renfro. Both pitchers kept the opposing lineups off the scoreboard for 10 innings before things got very interesting in the 11th.

With one out and two on in the top of the 11th, UT's Madison Shipman ripped a three-run home run to deep center field to give the Lady Vols a 3-0 advantage.

Oklahoma answered in the bottom of the 11th, tying the game at 3-3 with an RBI double by Brittany Williams, an RBI triple by Destinee Martinez and an RBI double by Callie Parsons.

The Sooners won the game in the bottom of the 12th when Lauren Chamberlain hit a two-run homer.

The Tennessee softball team's season came to a close on June 4 as the Lady Vols fought hard, but came up short in a 4-0 loss to Oklahoma in Game 2 of the Women's College World Series Championship Series. The Sooners were crowned the 2013 NCAA National Champions.

Lauren Gibson, Ellen Renfro and Madison Shipman were named to the WCWS All-Tournament team for their efforts over the course of the WCWS.

Ivy Renfro started the game and tossed 2.1 innings with two strikeouts and three runs allowed, all on a Keilani Ricketts home run in the third inning. Ellen Renfro came into the game in relief after the Ricketts home run and allowed four hits and just one earned run while fanning five in relief.

OU starter Michelle Gascoigne held Tennessee to three hits on the day (Madison Shipman, Melissa Davin, Kat Dotson) while totaling 12 strikeouts over seven shutouts frames.

The loss capped one of the finest seasons in Tennessee softball history and marked the final game for the incredible, record-setting senior class of Melissa Brown, Raven Chavanne, Kat Dotson, Whitney Hammond, Lauren Gibson and Ivy Renfro.

Tennessee was named the No. 10 seed of the 2014 NCAA Tournament and played host to Charleston Southern, Lipscomb and Virginia Tech in the Knoxville Regional from May 16-18.

The Lady Vols set a new program record with 12 runs scored in a 12-3, five-inning win over Charleston Southern in Game 2 of the Knoxville Regional on May 16. UT tied another program record when it posted eight runs in the first inning, matching its most ever in an NCAA Tournament game. Annie Aldrete hit a three-run homer in the first to set the tone and finished with six RBIs. Ellen Renfroe threw three shutout frames to earn the win.

Tennessee remained hot the next day, crushing Virginia Tech, 12-0 in five frames in Game 4 of the regional. Aldrete smashed two home runs to tie Lauren Gibson's single-season home run record of 19. Lexi Overstreet smacked a three-run homer in the third inning to give UT a 9-0 lead. Renfroe earned the win after striking out four over five scoreless innings.

UT punched its seventh ticket to the NCAA Super Regionals on May 18, edging Lipscomb, 2-0. In a pitching duel between Renfroe and Lipscomb's Ashley Anderson, one hit made all the difference. Overstreet smacked a two-run homer in the sixth inning to give Tennessee the lead. Renfroe was brilliant in the circle, striking out 10 over seven shutout innings while allowing just three hits.

Tennessee hit .324 as a team with nine homers and 26 runs in the 2014 Knoxville Regional. The Lady Vols' pitching staff combined for a perfect 0.00 ERA with 17 strikeouts over 17 innings of work.

2014 NCAA NORMAN SUPER REGIONAL (1-2)

Norman, Okla.
May 23-25, 2014

Tennessee found itself matched up against a familiar foe in the 2014 NCAA Super Regionals as the No. 10-seed Lady Vols faced No. 7-seed and defending national champion Oklahoma from May 23-25 in Norman. The teams had played the previous year in the Championship Series of the Women's College World Series.

Game 1 of the Norman Super Regional featured a lightning delay in the bottom of the third inning followed by a rain delay that lasted two hours and 37 minutes. Oklahoma had a 2-0 lead after Georgia Casey hit an RBI single in the first inning and Erin Miller knocked a sacrifice fly to center in the second.

Tennessee came out of the rain delay strong. In the top of the fourth, Annie Aldrete hit a one-out double to the wall in right center, Melissa Davin followed with a bloop single to right field and Lexi Overstreet clubbed an RBI single off the top of the right field wall to pull UT to within 2-1.

Oklahoma responded a Lauren Chamberlain RBI single in the bottom of the fourth, a solo homer by Brittany Williams in the fifth and four more runs in the sixth to seal an 8-1 win at 11:30 p.m. CT.

Tennessee bounced back the next day, taking a 4-0 win in Game 2 of the series to force a Game 3. In the bottom of the second inning, Megan Geer ladered a full-count pitch from Kelsey Stevens to left field for a solo homer. The Lady Vols plated three runs in the fifth inning. Overstreet and Aldrete drew a bases-loaded walks and Madison Shipman scored on an error.

Ellen Renfro was strong in the circle, striking out six Sooners over seven shutout frames. The win was the 102nd of her storied career and the shutout was her 41st - both the second-best in Tennessee history.

Game 2 featured weather delays as well as lightning and rain in Norman caused a delay of three hours and 54 minutes, halting the game in the second inning. With Game 3 slated to start at 11:20 p.m. CT, the NCAA decided to move the game to the next day.

The Lady Vols fell to the Sooners in Game 3, 8-2, marking Tennessee's first time not advancing out of a Super Regional after successfully winning its previous six (2005, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2012, 2013).

UT took a 1-0 lead in the second inning when Megan Geer scored after Destinee Martinez dropped a high fly ball in left field. The Sooners answered with two runs in the second inning, including a solo homer by Chamberlain and an RBI single up the middle by Erin Miller.

Tennessee tied the game at 2-2 in the top of the fourth when Davin ripped a one-out, solo home run to left field. That blast was the 30th of her career and tied her for fifth most in UT history.

Oklahoma retook the lead when Martinez scored on a fielder's choice in the bottom of the fourth. The Sooners added another run in the fifth and four more in the sixth.

After a late-season surge, Tennessee earned the No. 8 seed of the 2015 NCAA Tournament and played host to Longwood, Utah and Virginia Tech in the Knoxville Regional from May 15-17.

The Vols opened the regional with a 2-0 shutout over Longwood. Erin Gabriel pitched a complete-game one-hitter while racking up 13 strikeouts to lead UT to a hot start in the tournament. Megan Geer and Tory Lewis both had RBI singles in the win.

Tennessee used a combination of hot bats and stellar pitching to advance to 2-0 in the regional with a 9-1 run-rule victory over Utah. Lexi Overstreet and Megan Geer led the way offensively with three RBIs a piece while Rainey Gaffin and Cheyanne Tarango combined to shut the Utes down in the circle.

UT took down Utah again to earn its fourth straight regional championship and advance to the NCAA Super Regionals. The Vols got a 2-run homer from Meghan Gregg in the first inning and tacked on another run in the sixth to hold on for a 3-1 victory. Rainey Gaffin and Erin Gabriel combined to allow only two hits while striking out 10 batters to keep Utah's offense in check.

The Vols hit .338 as a team with 14 runs in the 2015 Knoxville Regional. The pitching staff was dominant throughout, allowing only six hits and two runs while holding opposing batters to a .094 batting average in three games.

2015 NCAA KNOXVILLE SUPER REGIONAL (2-1)

Knoxville, Tenn.

May 21-22, 2015

Following its dominant performance in the regional, No. 8 seed Tennessee welcomed No. 9 seed Florida State to Sherri Parker Lee Stadium for the Super Regional. The Seminoles also hosted a regional and posted a perfect 3-0 record to advance to the supers.

Game 1 saw the Vols fall behind early after giving up a run apiece in the second and third innings to spot FSU a 2-0 lead. However, pitchers Cheyanne Tarango and Rainey Gaffin shut the door the rest of the way and the offense went to work.

Lexi Overstreet and Gretchen Aucoin both had two hits and scored runs while the Vols chipped away at the Noles lead, scoring runs in the fifth and sixth innings to draw even heading into the seventh. In the final frame, Meghan Gregg proved to be the hero, hitting a walk-off RBI single to drive in Overstreet and give the Vols a 3-2 victory and 1-0 series lead.

Gaffin earned the win after throwing 2.2 scoreless innings in relief to improve to 16-3 on the season.

Game 2 saw the Vols fall behind early once again as Florida State scored two runs in the first inning. Meghan Gregg drove in a run in the third to pull UT within one but that was as close as it would get as FSU pulled away with three runs in the fourth and another in the fifth en route to a 6-1 victory to send the series to a deciding Game 3.

Unlike the first two games, Tennessee struck first in Game 3 thanks to an RBI double by Megan Geer in the bottom of the first inning. The Vols added another run in the fourth when CJ McClain scored from third on a fielder's choice in what turned out to be the game-winning run.

Rainey Gaffin outdueled FSU ace Lacey Waldrop, allowing only one run in a complete game performance. Gaffin struck out four and allowed only five hits to earn her third win of the NCAA tournament and punch the Vols ticket to the Women's College World Series.

The win gave the Vols their seventh super regional win in program history. Gaffin was the star for UT in the series, picking up both wins while recording a 0.72 ERA in 9.2 innings pitched. She also had seven strikeouts and allowed only five hits. Gretchen Aucoin led the Vols at the plate with three hits and two runs while Meghan Gregg led the team with two RBIs.

2015 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES (0-2)

Oklahoma City, Okla.
May 28 - June 3, 2015

Tennessee earned its seventh trip to the Women's College World Series after dominating its regional and defeating No. 9 seed Florida State in a hard-fought Super Regional.

Rainey Gaffin emerged as the Vols top player, earning three of the team's five wins entering the WCWS. Unfortunately for the Vols, they couldn't keep their magical postseason run alive in Oklahoma City, falling to eventual national champion Florida in Game 1 before being eliminated by No. 4 seed Auburn two days later. Megan Geer was the best performer for the Vols in the WCWS with two hits, two RBIs and a home run.

UT finished the season with a 47-17 record and ranked eighth in both the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and the USA Today/NFCA Division I poll.

In the opening game of the 2015 Women's College World Series, No. 8 seed Tennessee fell behind 3-0 after three innings against top-seed and defending national champion Florida.

Megan Geer gave the Vols some life with a 2-run homer in the top of the fourth to cut the deficit to one, but that would be the closest UT would get.

The Gators responded with two runs of their own in the bottom of the fourth and added two more in the sixth to take a commanding 7-2 lead.

Rainey Gaffin got the start and suffered her first loss of the NCAA tournament for Tennessee.

Florida would go on to defeat Michigan in the championship series to win their second straight national championship.

A big third inning for No. 4 seed Auburn was the difference in an elimination game for both teams. The Tigers scored four runs in the frame thanks to RBIs from Haley Fagan, Carlee Wallace and Jade Rhodes and held on for the 4-2 victory.

Tennessee tried to fight back, scoring runs in the fourth and the fifth thanks to RBI hits from Shaliyah Geathers and Cheyanne Taranto to cut the deficit to two.

However, the Vols were unable to solve Tigers' reliever Rachael Walters, who shut the door for the final 2.1 innings to earn the save and eliminate UT from the WCWS.

Erin Gabriel suffered the loss for Tennessee after giving up four runs in 2.2 innings pitched.

2016 NCAA KNOXVILLE REGIONAL (2-2)

Knoxville, Tenn.

Tennessee earned the No. 13 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament after finishing third in the SEC regular-season standings and advancing to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament one week earlier in Starkville, Miss.

Despite a strong finish to the regular season, the Vols were placed in one of the toughest regionals, welcoming historic softball power Arizona as well as Ohio State and Marist to Knoxville. It marked the 12th straight season that UT hosted an NCAA Regional and the 14th NCAA Tournament appearance overall for the Vols.

Inclement weather ended up postponing all play on Friday and effected the weekend schedule significantly. The Big Orange did not play their first game until Saturday but got off to a good start thanks to their high-powered offense, which ranked among the national leaders in numerous categories, earning a 10-2 six-inning run-rule victory over MAAC champions Marist. Megan Geer blasted her fifth game-winning home run of the season while Gretchen Aucoin also had two RBIs to help power the offense.

Unfortunately, the Vols' offense was completely shut down by Arizona ace Danielle O'Toole in the winner's bracket game on Saturday as UT fell to the Wildcats, 4-0. O'Toole held Tennessee to just a single hit in a complete-game effort.

Tasked with the monumental challenge of having to win three games in one day to advance to the Super Regionals, Tennessee came out strong in its first elimination game against Ohio State on Sunday, bouncing the Buckeyes from postseason play with a dominant 10-1 run-rule victory. Senior catcher Lexi Overstreet drove in four runs while Meghan Gregg also homered and drove in a pair. Senior pitcher Erin Gabriel was stellar in the circle, tossing four scoreless innings of relief to earn her 21st win of the year and help the Vols advance to the regional championship against Arizona.

Needing to defeat the Wildcats twice, the Vols looked to be on their way to forcing a winner-take-all game when Overstreet launched a three-run homer in the fourth inning to put UT ahead 3-1. Unfortunately, Arizona was able to respond with two runs in the fifth to tie the game, and went on to win the contest in extra innings to eliminate the Vols in the regional round for the first time since 2011.

After a stellar year for the Lady Vols, Tennessee earned the 8 seed in the 2017 NCAA Tournament and hosted some familiar foes in Ohio State, Longwood, and USC-Upstate in the Knoxville regional from May 19-21.

The Lady Volunteers opened the regional with a 5-0 shutout over Longwood. Matty Moss pitched a complete game only allowing one hit while racking up 10 strikeouts to help UT to a hot start in the tournament. Meghan Gregg recorded a two-run home run in the bottom of the third inning to pull the game away for UT.

Tennessee got off to a sluggish start against USC-Upstate in the winners' bracket of the tournament. After a change at the mound for the Vols, the defensive attitude stepped up and going into the top of the seventh, the hot bats of the Lady Vols came alive to bring the score to 7-3 before the game was over. Aubrey Leach and Meghan Gregg both recorded homeruns that would bolster the Vols into the final match of the Knoxville regional.

In the championship match of the Knoxville regional, the Lady Vols took down Longwood, 3-0, for a second time in three days. Matty Moss faced a harder test against the Lancers the second time around, but ultimately only allowed four hits in seven innings pitched with nine strikeouts. Brooke Vines helped put the final touches on the scoring with a single up the middle and recorded an RBI when Jenna Holcomb crossed the home plate.

The Lady Vols would capture their first regional championship since 2015 and move on to the NCAA Super Regional.

2017 NCAA KNOXVILLE SUPER REGIONAL (1-2)

Knoxville, Tenn.

May 26-28, 2017

Following a dominant offensive performance in the Knoxville regional, the Lady Vols would go on to welcome the No. 9 seed Texas A&M to Knoxville for the NCAA Super Regional from May 26-28 at Sheri Parker Lee Stadium. The Aggies also hosted a regional where they posted a 3-0 record to advance to the supers.

Game 1 saw the Vols' bats come to life where they would beat the Aggies 8-1. The lights out offense was a combination of the whole team. The standout performer in game one was Jenna Holcomb, who paced the offense with a triple and two RBIs. Matty Moss threw another complete game as her standout pitching only let the Aggies score once in the contest.

The Aggies came back into Sheri Parker Lee Stadium with revenge and that is what occurred. In game 2 of the super regional, the Lady Vols offense was alive in the first half of the game, but the Aggies offense would rally to take a 5-4 lead in the bottom of the fifth frame. The Vols would tie the game back up, but the Aggies took the lead back on a RBI single. The Vols would try to regain the lead with batters on first and second in the seventh frame, but the Aggie pitcher would go onto retire the next Volunteer batters to secure the victory for Texas A&M. The victory for the Aggies would force a winner-take-all game three in the Knoxville super regional.

The game that would decide who would go to the Women's College World Series would take place on Memorial Day weekend and the series was tied 1-1. In game 3 of the supers, the Lady Vols would fall just short, 5-3, against the Aggies. The Lady Vols took an early 3-0 lead, but at the beginning of the third inning, the Aggies offense would prove too much for the Vols to handle. The Aggies scored four of their five points in the third. The Aggies would score one more in the fourth to seal their victory and advance onto the NCAA WCWS.

BY THE NUMBERS

THE COLLEGIATE WOMEN SPORTS AWARDS

PRESENTED BY HONDA

The Honda Sports Award acknowledges athletic achievement as well as scholastics and community involvement, and is given to female athletes in 12 different NCAA-sanctioned sports throughout the year. In the fall, athletes are honored for their achievement in sports including soccer, volleyball, cross country, field hockey; in winter, gymnastics, basketball, swimming & diving; and in spring, lacrosse, softball, golf, tennis and track & field. Each Honda Sports Award winner is recognized as the top collegiate female athlete in her sport, and the award is considered by many as one of the highest honors a female college athlete can receive in the nation.

Tennessee has two Honda Sports Award winners for the sports of softball - Monica Abbott (2007) and Madison Shipman (2014).

2007 HONDA SPORTS AWARD FOR SOFTBALL

Monica Abbott

"When I found out that I had been nominated for the second time for the Honda Award, I thought to myself what a great opportunity it is. Everyone who has won this award for softball in the past has been a fantastic athlete and role model. And what a privilege it is to win an award in a program in which Mia Hamm and Jackie Joyner Kersee have been honored!"

- Monica Abbott

Madison Shipman

"I am extremely honored to not only win this award but be a part of the award's legendary list of recipients. My coaches, teammates and the University of Tennessee have all helped me become the player and person I am today. It has been an unforgettable journey for me these last four years and I couldn't have done this without them."

- Madison Shipman

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition.

After four years of excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community, Madison Shipman won the 2014 Senior CLASS Award on May 30, 2014. She was the first Tennessee student-athlete in any sport to win the prestigious award. Shipman's win also marked a breakthrough for the softball program, which had five prior finalists for the Senior CLASS Award entering 2014.

Finalists were chosen by national media from the list of 30 candidates announced in February. Fan votes and the votes of media and Division I head coaches determined the winner.

MADISON SHIPMAN'S 2014 STATS

YEAR	AVG	GP	GS	AB	R	H	2B	3B	HR	RBI	TB	SLG	BB	HBPSO	GDPOB%	SF	SH	SB/ATT	PO	A	E	FLD%

"Tennessee has not only prepared me for my future career as a professional softball player and coach but has taught me the importance of community. The Tennessee softball program provided me with the opportunity to work with different charity organizations and helped me gain a true understanding of what 'giving back' means. It doesn't have to mean simply monetary contributions. Your time, respect, dedication and caring spirit are all ways to give back. My journey these last four years have been full of life experiences and I wouldn't be the same person that I am today without all of the charity events that the Tennessee program participated in."

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

MONICA ABBOTT

On a beautiful Tuesday evening at the ASA Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City, Okla., Tennessee senior pitcher Monica Abbott made history by receiving the USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year award, the equivalent of the Heisman Trophy for NCAA Division I softball. The Salinas, Calif., native went 50-5 with 724 strikeouts over 358.1 innings of work while helping UT to its first No. 1 ranking, the Southeastern Conference regular-season title and the Women's College World Series for the third straight season. Abbott finished her Tennessee career as the NCAA Division I all-time leader in wins, shutouts, games played and strikeouts.

The USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year award is designed to recognize outstanding athletic achievement by NCAA Division I collegiate softball players across the country. Abbott took home the award over fellow Top 3 Finalists Kaitlin Cochran (Arizona State) and Samantha Ricketts (Oklahoma).

"I have worked so hard and have come so close to getting this award that I can't really put it into words what this honor means to me and I am very humbled. I would like to thank USA Softball and the University of Tennessee for giving me the honor to be a contender for this award."

DIVISION I GOLDEN SHOE AWARD WINNER

RAVEN CHAVANNE

Tennessee's Raven Chavanne won the 2013 NFCA Division I Golden Shoe Award after a stellar senior campaign in which she hit .435 with career highs of 70 runs and 41 stolen bases.

The Golden Shoe Award honors the top speedsters in the nation. These athletes are selected by NFCA divisional committees in NCAA Divisions I, II, and III, NAIA, NJCAA Divisions I, II and III, junior college and high school.

Chavanne finished her collegiate career as UT's all-time leader in batting average (.442), runs (244), stolen bases (143), stolen base attempts (156) and on-base percentage (.508). Her speed and athleticism made her one of the greatest slap hitters and base stealers in the history of the sport.

5 NFCA REGIONAL COACHING STAFF OF THE YEAR HONORS

Tennessee co-head coaches Ralph Weekly and Karen Weekly have earned five NFCA regional Coaching Staff of the Year honors dating back to 2005. Assistant coach Marty McDaniel and former volunteer assistant coach Mark Weekly were on each of those five coaching staffs.

The Weeklys directed Tennessee to the Women's College World Series in each of those five seasons (2005, 2007, 2010, 2012, 2013), producing squads with All-Americans, Academic All-Americans and outstanding student-athletes on and off the field.

The Tennessee softball program has featured several student-athletes who have shined in the classroom. Lillian Hammond, Tiffany Huff, Raven Chavanne and Ellen Renfro were recognized for their academic excellence and earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships.

The NCAA awards up to 174 postgraduate scholarships annually, 87 for men and 87 for women. The scholarships are awarded to student-athletes who excel academically and athletically and who are at least in their final year of intercollegiate athletics competition.

The one-time grants of $7,500 each are awarded for fall sports, winter sports and spring sports. Each sports season (fall, winter and spring), there are 29 scholarships available for men and 29 scholarships available for women. The scholarships are one-time, non-renewable grants.

The NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship was created in 1964 to promote and encourage postgraduate education by rewarding the Association's most accomplished student-athletes through their participation in NCAA championship and/or emerging sports. Athletics and academic achievements, as well as campus involvement, community service, volunteer activities and demonstrated leadership, are evaluated. An equitable approach is employed in reviewing each applicant's nomination form to provide opportunity to all student-athlete nominees to receive the postgraduate award, regardless of sport, division, gender or race. In maintaining the highest broad-based standards in the selection process, the program aims to reward those individuals whose dedication and effort are reflective of those characteristics necessary to succeed and thrive through postgraduate study in an accredited graduate degree program.

2012-13 TODAY'S TOP 10 AWARD RAVEN CHAVANNE

Tennessee's Raven Chavanne was selected as one of 10 extraordinary student-athletes to receive the NCAA Today's Top 10 Award for the 2012-13 academic year. Chavanne and the nine other winners of their respective sports were honored at a ceremony in San Diego, Calif., in January of 2014.

Chavanne completed an impressive Tennessee softball career with a stellar 2013 senior season that merited numerous national honors. She helped lead the Lady Vols to a national runner-up finish, its sixth appearance in the Women's College World Series and a 52-12 record. Chavanne was named the 2013 Capital One Academic All-American of the Year for the Division I Softball Team and was also a Top 3 Finalist for the USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year and finalist for the Senior CLASS Award. As a senior, Chavanne hit .435 with 91 hits, seven homers, five doubles, one triple, 33 RBIs, 70 runs and 41 stolen bases. She earned NFCA Division I All-American first-team honors, NFCA All-Southeast Region first team honors and First Team All-SEC honors.

The NCAA Today's Top 10 Award recognizes student-athletes for their successes on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. The award recipients completed their athletics eligibility during the 2012-13 academic year.

Previously, the award recognized eight student-athletes and was known as Today's Top VIII. The NCAA Honors Committee expanded the award in 2013 to include 10 honorees in order to recognize the increased number of student-athletes, sports and championship opportunities.

The scream of delight from Abbott in the background tells the whole story. On May 6, 2007, at Tyson Park in Knoxville, Tenn., the 6-3 lefthander struck out Alabama's Charlotte Morgan to end the first inning. The K was number 2,266 in her illustrious career to break the record of former Texas and U.S. pitcher Cat Osterman who was in attendance working for ESPN.

Abbott earned a silver medal in the 2008 Beijing Olympics with the U.S. Women's National Team. She competed on the Women's National Team each summer from 2005-10

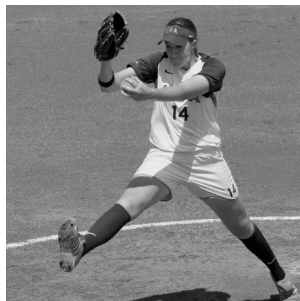

On March 23, 2013, Abbott became the first Tennessee softball player to have her jersey retired. Several of Abbott's UT teammates joined her for a special reunion and ceremony before the No. 8 Lady Vols took down No. 5/4 Texas A&M, 8-6. Tennessee's Her No. 7 is on the left field wall.

Abbott continues to thrive in the professionals ranks. She currently dominates National Pro Fastpitch with the Chicago Bandits as well as the Japan Softball League with Toyota Motor Corporation.

19 PLAYERS ASSOCIATED WITH USA SOFTBALL

MONICA ABBOTT -- SALINAS, CALIF.

U.S. Senior Women's National Team (Summer 2010) -- Won gold medals at the KFC World Cup of Softball 5 (July 22-26) and the ISF XII Women's World Championship in Caracas, Venezuela (June 23-July 3).

RALPH WEEKLY & KAREN WEEKLY

2002-PRESENT

The 2002 season was Tennessee's first under the direction of Ralph Weekly and Karen Weekly. The Weeklys came to Tennessee after seven years of success at Chattanooga, leading the Lady Mocs to a pair of NCAA Regional appearances. Prior to that, Ralph Weekly had led Pacific Lutheran to a pair of NAIA National Championships (1988, 1991), and one national runner-up finish (1990). After Tennessee experienced back-to-back losing seasons in 2000 and 2001, the Weeklys turned things around, leading UT to a 35-25-1 finish in 2002, 15-straight winning seasons and seven trips to the Women's College World Series to date.

Coaching record at UT: 802-245-2 (.765)

Bold - 2018 Opponents

Tennessee has won all 20 of its games against Tennessee Tech, which is UT's longest active winning streak against any opponent. The Vols beat the Golden Eagles 8-0 in five innings in 2016.

Lauren Gibson set a UT single-game record with three home runs at Ole Miss on April 20, 2013. Over the years Tennessee has totaled 42 wins against Ole Miss -- its most against any single opponent.

UT's 14 consecutive victories over Ole Miss is the longest current win streak for the Vols against any SEC opponent. Tennessee closes out the 2016 regular season with three games against the Rebels in Oxford, Miss.
